◆—Bowl Championship Series: The following bowls have these conference champions serving as host/regional tie-in teams: Fiesta (Big 12), Orange (ACC), Rose (Big 10 and Pac-10) and Sugar (SEC). Should a BCS Bowl's regional tie-in be ranked No. 1 or 2 in the final BCS Standings, when such bowl is not hosting the national championship game, the No. 1 or 2 team shifts to the title game and the bowl shall select a replacement team from the pool of eligible BCS teams. That pool consists of any Division I-A team ranked in the top 12 in the final BCS Standings, provided that team has achieved a minimum of nine wins during the regular season, excluding any NCAA-exempted contests. The standings will be formulated from a statistical rating system calculated from the USA Today Coaches' and the new Harris Interactive polls, and a composite of six nationally published computer rankings. The three polls are weighted and averaged to create a school's BCS average and ranking. The payouts for 2005 will again be between $14-18 million per school, depending on conference affiliation, with a second conference participant netting a minimum payout of $4.5 million.

THE UNIVERSITY OF COLORADO

"The University of Colorado, and Boulder, is a town which stops where the Rocky Mountains begin. Normally in America such a superb site would be occupied by a golf course, but somebody goofed and instead they built what may be the most beautifully situated campus in the world... if anyone asks you to Boulder, I have one word of advice: 'Go.'"

From the London (England) Observer Magazine article, "Us and Them," by Simon Hoggart (April 23, 1989)

Often called the best of the United States' public universities by the Fiske Guide to Colleges, that belief was again strengthened when the University of Colorado received the largest donation ever given to an American public institution of higher learning. The quarter-billion dollar gift to run an institute for cognitive disabilities, it reinforced the fact that CU students not only have the minds to match its mountains, but they climb, and create, those mountains.

Founded in 1876 at the foot of the Flatirons, over 129 years has transformed the University of Colorado from a lone building on a bleak, windswept hill to one of the nation's leading public research institutions. Established in 1861, the University was formally founded in 1876, the year Colorado became a state. The doors of Old Main opened the following year with 44 students, an instructor and the President who taught and lived there with his family, pasturing his horse nearby.

The Boulder campus now encompasses 786 acres on the main campus, east campus (which includes a research park), Williams Village and the Mountain Research Station north of nearby Nederland (which supports ecology, chemistry and geology). In 1996 the Board of Regents purchased 308 acres of land in unincorporated Boulder County, now informally known as the south campus, in an effort to insure the growth of the University well into the 21st century.

While over 29,000 students are educated on the main campus, another 13,000 study at the University of Colorado (including the Health Sciences Center) at Denver and the University of Colorado at Colorado Springs. Nine elected Regents and President Elizabeth Hoffman, who was named to the position in 2000, lead the three-campus system, while each campus has a Chancellor who serves as the chief academic and administrative officer. Dr. Richard Byyny is in his eighth year as chancellor of the Boulder campus.

Students can enter any of 10 schools and colleges offering more than 2,500 courses in 150 fields, representing a full range of disciplines in the humanities, social sciences, physical and biological sciences, the fine and performing arts, and the professions.

The largest University in the Centennial State is a big school, but its northern Italian architecture, named fourth in a ranking of the "most architecturally successful campuses in the country," in The Campus as a Work of Art, creates an intimate, visitor-friendly public space thanks to the varicolored sandstone and red-tiled roof facade of more than 200 buildings created by its rural Tuscany influence.

There are 17 residence halls that dot the campus, with more than 1,080 students enrolled in five residential academic programs, providing undergraduates with shared learning and living experiences. Colorado's Greek system, which is comprised of more than 2,000 students, became the first in the nation to vote its houses "dry" and the ban is taken seriously among the Greeks.

Many of the high-tech companies located along the Front Range owe their origins to CU-Boulder's cutting-edge science.

CU has shown that RNA can act as a catalyst in biochemical reactions, developed the first classification system of human chromosomes, created the first national model to assess child development, successfully completed the first instance of human cloning, identified the battered child syndrome, discovered the process of aging is under direct genetic control, developed ways of dealing with natural hazards, created the coldest temperature on earth, and alerted the nation to heightened academic pressures on kindergarten children.

CU-Boulder has played a major role in NASA space programs, designing and building many scientific instruments flown in outer space, and graduated 17 men and women who became astronauts, including the late Jack Swigert, one of the three astronauts in the crippled Apollo 13 mission who made it dock to Earth safely from the moon. When the Hubble Space Telescope was launched in 1990, it was carrying seven major instruments, including a high-resolution spectrograph to study the evolution of stars and designed and built by an international science team led by astronomer Jack Brandt of CU-Boulder. Since Hubble has been up, CU-Boulder faculty and students have been among the top users of Hubble of any institution in the world. CU-Boulder is the only university in the country where undergraduate students have operated a NASA satellite.

The University has produced 19 Rhodes Scholars, five of which were former football student-athletes at CU, with Jim Hansen the most recent recipient in 1992. Faculty member Thomas Cech, a distinguished professor of chemistry and biochemistry, won the 1989 Nobel Prize in chemistry. Other notable alumni include former United States Supreme Court Justice Byron "Whizzer" White, former big band leader Glenn Miller and actor Robert Redford.

A premier institution in and of itself, the Boulder campus is in good company with some of the finest campuses in the country:

- ◆ Colorado is one of the four most outstanding universities in the United States according to the 2005 Fiske Guide to Colleges (with Brown, Stanford and Virginia), based on academics, social life and quality of life.

- ◆ The U.S. News & World Report ranked CU-Boulder 32nd among the nation's Top 50 Public National Universities in its 2004 Best Colleges issue. The rankings were based on factors such as academic reputation, retention, faculty resources, student selectivity and financial resources.

- ◆ U.S. News & World Report also ranked seven CU graduate programs in the nation's top 20: Environmental Law (7th), Aerospace Engineering (12th), Clinical Psychology (15th), Entrepreneurship Specialty (Business, 15th), Speech Language-Pathology (17th), Chemical Engineering (18th) and Civil Engineering (20th).

- ◆ And in April 2004, The Economist of London ranked CU as the 11th best public university in the world, as well as one of the 50 best universities of any kind, based on criteria such as highly cited researchers and Nobel laureates in selected fields.

If the aphorism, "Somewhere between the Rockies and reality," seems too good to believe, then come for a visit. Start with a walk on the historic Pearl Street Mall, a downtown pedestrian mall that is the ceremonial heart of the city actually that works despite the efforts of its street theatre.

Visitors may be so taken in by the scenery, the mall, Tudors and Victorians they may forget the University that put it all together. From Pearl, Broadway leads directly onto campus where the University of Colorado Museum and the CU Heritage Center, in the original Old Main building, which introduces the University's past and present. Visitors can experience the University's cosmopolitan atmosphere by visiting Fiske Planetarium, Sommers-Bausch Observatory, and Norlin

MASCOT/NICKNAME

The University of Colorado has one of the more unique mascots in all of intercollegiate athletics, a real buffalo named Ralphie.

The live buffalo mascot leads the football team out on the field both at the start of the game and second half. It is truly one of the special sights that exist anywhere in college or professional sports, especially for opposing teams, who often stop in their tracks watching the massive buffalo round the end zone and head directly at their sideline.

The buffalo first appeared in 1934, three weeks after a contest to select an official school nickname by the Silver & Gold newspaper had come to an end and "Buffaloes" was the winning entry. For the final game of the '34 season, a group of students paid $25 to rent a buffalo calf along with a real cowboy as his keeper. The calf was the son of Killer, a famed bison at Trails End Ranch in Fort Collins. It took the cowboy and four students to keep the calf under control on the sidelines, a 7-0 win at the University of Denver on Thanksgiving Day.

Prior to 1934, CU athletic teams usually were referred to as the "Silver and Gold," but other nicknames teams were sometimes called included Silver Helmets, Yellow Jackets, Hornets, Arapahoes, Big Horns, Grizzlies and Frontiersmen. The student newspaper decided to sponsor a national contest in the summer of 1934, with a $5 prize to go to the author of the winning selection. Entries, over 1,000 in all, arrived from almost every state in the union. Athletic Director Harry Carlson, graduate manager Walter Franklin and Kenneth Bundy of the Silver and Gold were the judges.

Local articles first reported that Claude Bates of New Madrid, Mo., and James Proffitt of Cincinnati, Ohio, were co-winners for the prize as both submitted "Buffaloes" as their entry. But 10 days later, the newspaper declared Boulder resident Andrew Dickson the winner, after a follow-up revealed his submission of "Buffaloes" had actually arrived several days before those of the original winners. Through the years, synonyms which quickly came into use included "Bisons," "Bufs," "Thundering Herd," "Stampeding Herd," "Golden Avalanche," and "Golden Buffaloes."

Live buffaloes made appearances at CU games on and off through the years, usually in a pen on the field or sometimes driven around in a cage; in the 1940s, the school kept a baby buffalo in a special pen at the University Riding Academy. The first named buffalo was "Mr. Chips," who appeared for the first time at the 1957 CU Days kickoff rally, as supporter Mahlon White donated him to the school, and it was cared for by a men's honorary.

A few years passed between a live mascot on the sideline and the tradition Colorado fans have come to know so well. In 1966, John Lowery, the father of a CU freshman from Lubbock, Texas, donated to the school a six-month old buffalo calf from Sedgewick, Colo.

For a while, she was billed as "Rraalph," but the origin of the name is in some doubt. Some say it was given by the student body after sounds she allegedly made while running and snorting; others say it was named for Ralph Jay Wallace, the junior class president at the time; and the original handlers will tell a third version. Regardless, an astute fan soon discovered that the buffalo was in fact a female, thus the name alteration to Ralphie.

The initial tradition was for CU's five sophomore class officers to run the buffalo around the stadium in a full loop. They would pick her up from caretaker William "Bud" Hays at the Green Mountain Riding Stables, and would run her for two hours in the morning to tire her a bit to keep her under control by the time the game started. At the conclusion of the run, the fans would break into the "Buffalo Stomp," which would literally shake the stadium in deafening fashion as the team took the field. But CU officials soon had the tradition stopped because of the actual physical damage it was causing.

Around that same time, head coach Eddie Crowder was approached with the idea the charging buffalo running out on the field before the game with the team behind right her.

A young Ralphie IV with John Parker

Crowder thought it was a great idea, and the debut of this great tradition took place on October 28, 1967, CU's homecoming game against Oklahoma State. Though OSU won the game, 10-7, the tradition was here to stay, though those who had some training in such an endeavor as working with a wild animal eventually replaced the sophomores. The five sophomores appointed themselves as the board of directors of a fundraising effort to bring Ralphie to the '67 Bluebonnet Bowl in Houston, raising the necessary money through selling stock.

Ralphie attended every CU home football game for 13 years (including all bowls), and retired at the end of the 1978 season. CU's first Ralphie achieved nationally celebrity status, and was even kidnapped in 1970 by some Air Force Academy students as well as being named the school's 1971 Homecoming Queen at the height of the anti-establishment era.

Ralphie's replacement on the sidelines was Ralphie II, making her first-ever appearance at CU's final home game of the 1978 season. The buffalo's original name was Moon, short for Moonshine, but the name Ralphie had become so popular and traditional that it was restored. The Bank of Boulder, a significant contributor through the years to the Ralphie program, purchased and donated Ralphie II to CU. At the age of 12, and after serving the Buffs for 10 years, Ralphie II passed away on September 19, 1987, following a 31-17 CU win over Stanford.

Ralphie III was pressed into action earlier than anticipated, as she had been in training for the 1988 season. Originally named "Tequila," she made her debut on November 7, 1987, when the Buffs beat Missouri, 27-10. After over 10 years of service, she passed away in January 1998, at the age of 13.

Colorado's latest mascot is Ralphie IV, donated to the university by media and sports entrepreneur Ted Turner.

Ralphie IV was born in April 1997 on the Flying D Ranch in Gallatin Gateway, Montana, which is a part of Turner Ranches, the largest ranch operation in the United States. Named "Rowdy" by ranch hands, she was separated from her mother when she was about a month old and was literally found in the jaws of a coyote with bite marks around her neck. She survived the attack and was bottle-fed by the hands for four months. She was released back to the herd but wouldn't bond with them, so the ranch hands took her back in and fed her grasses and grain. It was then that she was donated to CU as a yearling early in the spring of 1998. John Parker, who trained and housed both Ralphie II and III, brought her back to Colorado from Montana and supervised all of her early training.

Parker retired as Ralphie's caretaker in May 2000. Long-time CU supporters Dale and Lynn Johnson housed Ralphie for the following year, with Parker's assistant, Ted Davis, assuming the program duties for the 2000 season.

In the summer of 2001, two former Ralphie Handlers and CU graduates, Ben Frei and Kevin Priola, took over the program. Together they coordinate the selection and managing of up to 12 student handlers as well as all aspects of training.

Ralphie IV, now full grown and mature, weighs in at about 1,100 pounds, about three times her weight when she made her debut against Colorado State at Mile High Stadium in Denver on September 5, 1998. A strong and powerful animal, she can reach speeds of 25 miles per hour. Her home is an undisclosed ranch in nearby Henderson.

FOLSOM FIELD

Folsom Field, named after legendary University of Colorado Coach Frederick Folsom, opened for the 1924 season and has been the home of Buffs ever since. This will be the 82nd season the Buffs will play their home games on the "hilltop." The 400th game in the stadium's history took place in 2002.

Colorado owns one of the nation's best all-time home records, and in the previous 81 seasons of play at Folsom, the Buffaloes are 275-131-10, a winning percentage of .673.

The stadium was dedicated on October 11, 1924, as Colorado defeated Regis College, 39-0. It actually was the second home game of the season, as CU closed out playing at Gamble Field the week before with a 31-0 win over Western State.

It originally was called Colorado Stadium, the name being changed to Folsom Field in 1944 following Folsom's death. In addition, old 24th Street was also changed to Folsom Street to honor the man who coached Colorado teams three different times totaling 15 years between 1895 and 1915. His 76.5 winning percentage (77-23-2) is still tops among all coaches ever at CU.

CU had played its games at Gamble Field for two decades, where seating was limited to temporary bleachers. In the winter of 1923-24, CU President George Norlin studied the possibility of a new stadium, as the approaching completion of a sparkling new gymnasium (Carlson Gym), the inadequate number of seats at Gamble Field (roughly 9,000) and the growing interest in physical education and intercollegiate athletics demanded that a remedy needed to take place soon.

Investigation of a natural ravine just east of the site of the gymnasium as a site for the new stadium, suggested by professor Whitney Huntington, was not only a convenient location, but by using it a great expense could be avoided. After a financing plan was worked out, CU's own construction department began moving dirt with a steam shovel on January 14, 1924.

The new structure had an original capacity of 26,000, featuring wooden bleacher seating over cement, and quarter-mile running track. A California red wood, dipped in creosote, was selected as the initial material, as estimates at the time put a lifetime of around 13 years for the wood. There were 22 sections divided by radial aisles installed, the same set-up in the lower bowl that still exists today.

Accounts at the time put the cost of the stadium at around $2.60 per seat, instead of $10 had concrete been used; the total cost was $65,000. By comparison, the cost to construct Carlson Gym was $350,000.

With expansion in mind when originally built, it was by design rather easy to add an upper deck. In 1956, Folsom Field's capacity was upped to 45,000 when a second deck was erected around two-thirds of the stadium. Some 6,000 more seats were added in 1967 when the running track was removed and the team dressing facilities were constructed at the north end of the field.

Improvements continued, as the gigantic six-level press box facility was added on the west side for the start of the 1968 season. It also serves as the home for CU's Flatirons Club, a group of donors who financially support the athletic program.

In the summer of 1976, Folsom Field had another face-lift, as the wooden bleacher seats were removed and replaced with silver and gold aluminum bleachers, expanding the stadium to a capacity of 52,005.

The renovation of CU's team house in the summer of 1979 took away a few seats, changing the capacity to 51,463. The construction of the magnificent Dal Ward Center in 1991 added new bleacher seating in the north end zone and increased the capacity to 51,748. In 1992, the addition of a yellow concourse wall on the southeast side took away a few hundred seats, and corporate boxes (in 1995) lowered the capacity to 51,655.

The removal of a set of old rickety bleachers in 2001 and a few other changes placed the stadium capacity at 50,942, but that figure stood for just two seasons. The addition of suites and club seating on the east side, completed in August 2003, has increased the capacity to 53,750, an all-time Folsom Field high.

Prior to the 1971 season, the playing surface at Folsom Field was natural grass. Monsanto of St. Louis, Mo., replaced the natural grass with Astroturf for the 1971 campaign, with the first game being played on the artificial surface against the University of Wyoming on September 18 (the Buffs won 56-13); it was a godsend, as that very morning, Boulder received a rare late summer snowstorm that blanketed the field with more than two feet of snow.

The original Astroturf surface was replaced with a "new rug" for the start of the 1978 season, and in the summer of 1989, "Astroturf-8" was installed, the third artificial surfacing in the school's history. Folsom was covered with artificial surfaces for 28 seasons (168 games), and it was fairly friendly for the Buffs, which posted a 110-56-2 record in those games.

In the spring of 1999, Folsom Field returned to natural grass, as "SportGrass" was installed on the stadium floor. The project, which included bio-thermal heating, drainage and a sub-air system, cost $1.2 million. Video display boards, known as "BuffVision" were also added in the summer of 1999 at a cost of $3.6 million.

DAL WARD ATHLETIC CENTER

The 1990-91 athletic season was a landmark one for the University of Colorado in two areas. The year produced national championships in football (its first) and skiing (its 14th at the time), and the men's basketball team reached the NIT Final Four.

That was also the year that the magnificent Dal Ward Athletic Center became a reality. The entire construction process was completed in less than nine months, from ground-breaking in December 1990, to completion the following August.

The $14 million building was completely funded through private donations. This multi-functional, state-of-the-art structure is one of the top facilities anywhere in college athletics.

The Dal Ward Center boasts 92,000 square feet that includes academic and computer centers, sports medicine and weight training centers, a full-service kitchen and dining area, an auditorium, men's and women's lockerrooms, a player's lounge and offices for athletic administration and coaches.

Construction on the project actually began in November, 1990, with the demolition of the old team house building, which had stood in the north end of Folsom Field since its erection in 1967. The foundation was dug and concrete poured over the next couple of months, with construction of the actual building starting in February, 1991. The structure was available for the football team's use by mid-August, with the remainder of the building completed later that fall.

The building is named for Dallas Ward, the football coach who led CU into the Big Seven Conference in 1948. Ward was the head coach for the Buffaloes for 11 seasons (1948-1958), compiling a 63-41-6 record, with his teams noted for the single wing offense.

The facility has several outstanding attributes, which benefit both the athletic department and the entire CU-Boulder campus. The tile roof, native stone walls and traditional Italianate architecture were selected to complement the style of the Boulder campus. The Center also establishes a new sense of entry to the campus coming from the north. The building features a dramatic two-story entry and lobby space with a grand staircase.

ATHLETIC DIRECTOR MIKE BOHN

Mike Bohn was introduced as just the sixth athletic director in University of Colorado history on April 13, 2005, returning to the place where he starred as a prep athlete before embarking on a journey that would take him all over the western half of the United States and then back home.

Bohn, 44, came to Colorado from San Diego State University, where he left an indelible imprint in just 18 months as the Aztecs' director of athletics. He agreed to a 5-year contract with the Buffaloes.

He replaced Jack Lengyel, who served as interim athletic director since last December 1; Lengyel took over the position when Dick Tharp stepped down on November 22. Tharp held the role from 1996 through 2004, as he followed three legendary men in CU athletic history, Harry Carlson (1927-65), Eddie Crowder (1965-84) and Bill Marolt (1984-96).

Aside from Lengyel, who came out of retirement to serve in an interim capacity, Bohn is the first person to be named CU athletic director without having previously worked within the CU system. Carlson and Crowder were coaches upon being named, Marolt returned to CU where he coached for 10 years before leaving for the U.S. Olympic ski team, and Tharp was a university attorney with strong CU-Boulder campus ties.

He accomplished a lot in his first 100 days on the job, from branching out into the community with Chancellor Phil DiStefano at four town meetings, to implementing the YOUR TEAM campaign to raise significant funds ($3.7 million in three months) for immediate scholarship and capital project needs.

Bohn's brief tenure at San Diego State featured many remarkable accomplishments, including the instilling of energy, enthusiasm, accountability and determination into the Aztec staff. Officially named SDSU athletic director on October 6, 2003, his immediate task was to unify the athletic department, the campus and the community of San Diego.

Bohn strategically and steadily restructured the SDSU athletic department with emphasis on fund raising, fiscal responsibility, compliance and academics.

Under his watch, San Diego State set a new single-game attendance record in football when more than 57,000 fans watched the Aztecs' win over Idaho State in the 2004 season opener. The average football attendance of 35,995 in 2004 was the best at the school since 1993, with the increase of 14,369 fans per game marking the third largest attendance jump in the country.

The enthusiasm spread to other sports. SDSU blanked Houston, 4-0, and set a college baseball record with a crowd of 40,106 on hand in the opener of San Diego's PETCO Park. When the Aztecs hosted Colorado State in a 2005 Big Monday basketball battle, SDSU set a school record with nearly 4,000 students crammed into Cox Arena for the event.

He landed the San Diego State position after serving five years as athletic director at the University of Idaho (1999-2003), where he first made his mark as a lead administrator in the area of transformation.

At Idaho, he developed projects for new facilities, increased community and corporate support, and produced balanced budgets for the department after inheriting an operation that had accumulated a deficit of over $1 million.

During his five years in Moscow, he oversaw the transition of the Vandals to the Division I-A ranks from the Big Sky Conference. Under Bohn, Idaho began construction on the Vandal Athletics Center, the first facilities improvement for UI athletics in two decades. He was also the driving force behind a 20-percent increase in the Vandal Scholarship Fund and a $350,000 surge in annual corporate support.

Between Idaho and San Diego State, Bohn hired 12 head coaches in all as well as several administrators.

Bohn prepared for his career goal of becoming a Division I athletic director entirely in the state of Colorado, his adopted "native" state despite being born in Illinois; he moved to Colorado with his family when he was 1-year old.

His first job in athletic administration came at the Air Force Academy, where he worked for the better part of nine years (1984-92). During his tenure in Colorado Springs, Bohn advanced from an intern to assistant athletic director. He served as executive director of the Blue and Silver Club, as well as other external operations throughout his stay at the academy. He played a major role in the increase of football season ticket sales from 6,000 to 20,000 and implemented a fundraising campaign that generated $16 million for stadium improvements.

From 1992 to 1995, Bohn served as Director of Marketing for the College Football Association, where he worked for one of the most respected people in the history of college athletics, Chuck Neinas (the one-time Big Eight Conference commissioner). The CFA, the precursor to the current Bowl Championship Series, consisted of six major football conferences encompassing 67 universities. He created and developed the CFA "Good Works Team" which recognized significant off-the-field accomplishments in the area of community relations of 11 football student-athletes nationally (a team that is still selected today by the American Football Coaches Association).

Bohn was involved in many facets of the organization's operations, including the administration of a $67 million television package involving ABC, ESPN and ESPN2. He also formulated a blueprint for the promotion and development of the image of college football as a whole.

He then moved on to Colorado State University, where he spent the next three years (1996-98) as an associate athletic director for the Rams. At CSU, he was responsible for all external revenue-producing operations, including ticket sales, fund raising through the Greater Ram Club, licensing, corporate sales, signage, capital campaigns and broadcasting rights fees, as well as special events.

Along with increasing revenue on several fronts, Bohn helped escalate student interest in CSU athletics while working with Associated Students of Colorado State University.

He earned his bachelor's of arts degree from the University of Kansas in 1983, where he was recruited as a quarterback and also played baseball. He then graduated with a master's degree in sports administration from Ohio University in 1984. While earning his master's, he worked as a graduate assistant football coach for the Bobcats.

Bohn is a former member of the NCAA Championships Cabinet and the Division I-A Athletics Directors Association Executive Council. During his stay at Idaho, he was a member of the Big West Conference executive committee and served on the University of Idaho executive council.

Born November 16, 1960 in Hinsdale, Ill., he graduated from Boulder High School where he lettered in football, basketball and baseball. He is married to the former Kim Zeren, and the couple has two children, Michaelyn (21) and Brandon (19).

Mike Bohn is believed to be the first athletic administrator to work at three of the state's Division I-A colleges (CU, Air Force, Colorado State and Denver). Only one coach is thought to have spent time at three schools: Terry Dunn served as assistant basketball coach at Air Force (1991-94), Colorado State (1994-96) and then CU (1996-2004). Several high profile people have logged time in at two of the schools; those who spent time at CU and one other include assistant football coaches Kay Dalton (CU/CSU), Chuck Heater (CU/CSU), Tom McMahon (CU/CSU) and Dan Stavely (CU/DU); track coaches Don Meyers (CU/CSU) and Jerry Quiller (CU/CSU); sports information directors Steve Hatchell (CU/CSU) and Tim Simmons (CU/CSU); gymnastics coach Dan Garcia (CU/DU), golf coaches Sammie Chergo and Eric Hoos (both assistants at CU and then head coaches at DU); assistant women's basketball coach Tanya Haave (CU/DU); assistant trainers Eric Fry (DU/CU), Ed Lochrie (CU/DU) and Nicole Makris (DU/CU); and development employee Chris Kiser (CU/CSU).

HEAD COACH GARY BARNETT

Gary Barnett was officially named the 22nd head football coach in University of Colorado history on January 20, 1999, returning to where he spent eight seasons as an assistant under Bill McCartney from 1984-91.

Barnett, 59, is now in his seventh season at the reins of the CU program. He owns an 85-89-2 overall record as a collegiate head coach, the first two years coming at NAIA Fort Lewis in Durango (Colo., going 8-11-1) and the next seven at Northwestern University (35-45-1). In seven seasons at Colorado he has piloted the Buffaloes to a 42-33 record, bringing his record on the NCAA Division I-A level to 77-78-1. His staffs have now coached three league champion teams, two outright and one shared; all three teams were ranked in the nation's Top 15, including two in the Top 10.

At Colorado, he has won one Big 12 Conference title (2001) and three Big 12 North Division crowns (2001, 2002, 2004). The Buffs are 29-19 in conference games under Barnett, including a 14-2 mark over the '01 and '02 campaigns, the fourth-best two-year record in league history. His last four teams are 17-3 against his fellow Big 12 North counterparts, best in the league.

Twice honored as the Big 12 Coach of the Year by the Associated Press (2001, 2004), Barnett has earned that honor four times in 13 seasons as Division I head coach, as he was also so honored at Northwestern in both 1995 and 1996. Thus, in his 13 seasons as a head coach at college football's highest level, Barnett's teams have won a division or league championship every 3.3 years, the same span that he continually has earned a coach of the year honor in his league (or higher).

Colorado was 7-5 in 1999, his first season at the reins of the program, finishing third in the Big 12 North Division with a 5-3 mark. His second Buff squad finished 3-8, as a team riddled with injuries and youth managed to play well at times and had chances to realistically win at least six of the eight games it lost, including five against ranked teams. But his third CU team came on strong, winning its last four regular season games including a record-setting 62-36 win over Nebraska. That win gave CU a 7-1 record in the Big 12 North Division and earned the Buffs their first-ever appearance in the Big 12 Championship game, where a week later, Colorado defeated Texas, 39-37, to win its first league title since sharing the old Big Eight crown in 1991.

His first Buffalo team in 1999 was ranked 14th nationally in total offense, averaging 424.9 yards per game, and featured a pair of All-Americans in guard Brad Bedell and cornerback Ben Kelly. CU defeated a ranked team for the 12th straight year when it beat No. 24 Oklahoma, and lost games to No. 3 Nebraska and No. 6 Kansas State by a combined nine points.

The Buffs wrapped up his first season on a high note, as CU whipped No. 22 Boston College, 62-28, in the Insight.com Bowl. Colorado raced to a 45-7 halftime lead in setting numerous records en route to the win, dominating in all phases of the game as the final score would indicate.

His second CU team finished with a 3-8 record, including an 0-3 start with the losses by a combined 10 points, but it did lay the foundation for one of the greatest seasons in school history.

The 2001 Buffaloes opened with a 24-22 loss to Fresno State, which went on to have a great year, but CU bounced right back and ended a two-year losing streak to CSU with a convincing 41-14 victory, the first of five straight wins. Colorado reappeared in the national rankings five games into the year, eventually zooming to No. 3 in all major polls in earning a Fiesta Bowl berth against Oregon. Though the Buffs suffered a 38-16 loss to the No. 2 Ducks in the bowl, CU finished No. 9 in both polls, it's best finish since 1996. The 2001 team also boasted five All-Americans, including John Mackey Award winner Daniel Graham at tight end, and eight All-Big 12 performers, with Barnett a near-unanimous choice for the conference's coach of the year.

The 2002 Buffaloes overcame quite a bit of adversity to repeat at Big 12 North champions, none harder than a group of 18-to-22 year olds having to deal with the death of Tom McMahon, the team's popular co-defensive coordinator. The Buffs persevered after a 1-2 start to finish the regular season with a 9-4 mark, the school's best-ever record after dropping two of its first three games. High points included a 31-17 road win at UCLA, a thrilling 35-31 home win over Kansas State, and a 28-13 victory at Nebraska, CU's first win in Lincoln since 1990. Two CU players earned All-America honors with four garnering All-Big 12 mention. Colorado came up short in its bid to become the first back-to-back Big 12 champions, falling to Oklahoma in the league's title game. In the Alamo Bowl, Wisconsin rallied for a 31-28 overtime win over the Buffs, as CU finished the year with a 9-5 record.

The combination of a youthful team at key positions and one of the nation's toughest schedules in 2003 played major roles in Colorado finishing 5-7. There were highlights, however: CU opened with an electrifying 42-35 win over rival Colorado State in Denver (literally speaking, as the game endured a half-hour lightning delay); the Buff defense came up big late in holding off UCLA for a 16-14 win; CU rallied and won its only overtime game of the season, 50-47, over Kansas; the Buffs gave No. 1 Oklahoma a run for its money before succumbing, 34-20; and a 21-16 win over No. 22 Missouri was Barnett's fifth straight win over his alma mater.

In 2003, he was one of four coaches who were finalists for the State Farm Eddie Robinson Coach of Distinction Award, which is presented to a coach for his football success, serving as a role model to his players and for service to his community. He was also a member of the coaching staff for the 2004 Hula Bowl in Maui.

He produced one of his best coaching jobs in 2004, as the Buffaloes overcame a tumultuous off-season. After a 3-0 start, CU slipped to 4-4 which included a 1-4 mark in Big 12 play; but the Buffs responded with wins over Kansas, Kansas State and Nebraska, two coming on the road, to rally to a 7-4 regular season mark and 4-4 in the conference. CU won a tiebreaker with Iowa State to win its third North Division title in four seasons, though succumbed to No. 2 Oklahoma 42-3 in the championship game in Kansas City. The league's beat media recognized him as their coach of the year, and the team went bowling for the fourth time in six years under Barnett's tutelage. The Buffs closed out the season with a 33-28 win over UTEP in the Houston Bowl, giving the team an 8-5 overall mark for the year.

Thanks to that 2001 season, Barnett joined a very select group of head coaches who have twice coached the NCAA Most Improved Team. At Northwestern, his 1994 team was 3-7-1; the '95 Wildcats posted a 10-2 record for an NCAA-best six game improvement. In 2001, Colorado tied for the top spot (also at plus-6), enabling him to join three coaching legends to accomplish the feat on two occasions: Paul "Bear" Bryant pulled it off at Kentucky (1946) and Texas A&M (1955); John McKay at Southern Cal (1962 and 1972) and Johnny Majors at Pittsburgh (1973) and Tennessee (1989). And remember—Barnett was also an assistant coach at Colorado in 1985 when the Buffs tied for the best-improved mark.

Barnett returned to CU in 1999 from Northwestern, where he had served as the Wildcats' head coach since 1992. He took over the Northwestern program on Dec. 18, 1991, after having worked eight seasons as running backs and/or quarterbacks coach in Boulder, the last one also as offensive coordinator.

In seven seasons at Northwestern, he compiled a 35-45-1 record, which included the outright Big Ten Conference title in 1995 and a shared championship in 1996. He took the Wildcats to their first bowl game in 47 years when the '95 team played USC in the Rose Bowl. His 1996 squad went to the Citrus Bowl, marking the first time Northwestern ever went bowling in back-to-back seasons.

In fact, Barnett led Northwestern to two of its first three bowl appearances in its school history, and coached the Wildcats to two winning seasons in his tenure (1995 and 1996), matching the school's total in its previous 31 seasons. NU was 10-2 in 1995, with an 8-0 mark in Big Ten play, and 9-3 in 1996, posting a 7-1 record in league action. He was named the Big 10 Coach of the Year both seasons, and he won 18 citations in all as the Big 10 and/or national Coach of the Year for 1995.

Northwestern was honored with the 1998 AFCA's Outstanding Academic Award, as the Wildcats boasted the nation's highest graduation rate for the class of 1992. All 22 of Barnett's recruits that year graduated, and all doing so in four years.

Northwestern made its first appearance in the national polls in 1995 since Dec. 6, 1971 under Barnett. The Wildcats were ranked No. 8 in the Associated Press and No. 7 in the USA Today/CNN (coaches) final polls that year, and were No. 15 in the AP and No. 16 in the USAT/CNN final ballots for 1996.

Barnett became the first Colorado head coach to come to Boulder from an immediate head coaching position in the college ranks since 1974, when Bill Mallory joined CU after spending five years as head coach at Miami, Ohio. Chuck Fairbanks came to CU in 1979 from the New England Patriots, Bill McCartney in 1982 from Michigan where he was defensive coordinator, and Rick Neuheisel was promoted in 1995 from within to succeed McCartney.

He got his start in the coaching profession at his alma mater, the University of Missouri. After lettering as a senior at wide receiver for legendary head coach Dan Devine, he graduated from MU with a bachelor's degree in social studies in 1969. He earned his master's in education from MU in 1971, working that spring as a graduate assistant under coach Al Onofrio.

Barnett moved to Colorado that summer and spent the next two years as offensive coordinator at Air Academy High School in Colorado Springs. He was named head coach at Air Academy in 1973, a position he held for the next nine years. At Air Academy, his teams reached the state semifinals twice (1980, 1981) and won six conference titles. He was considered one of the state's finest prep coaches before leaving the school to become head coach at Fort Lewis College in Durango.

He coached the Raiders for two seasons (1982-83), compiling an 8-11-1 mark. In 1982, he guided FLC to a 4-5-1 mark, its best record in five years, and his 1983 team finished 4-6. The 1984 team, made up of players primarily recruited by Barnett, won its first and only Rocky Mountain Athletic Conference title in football.

McCartney brought Barnett into the Division I-A football ranks on February 20, 1984, naming him CU's running backs coach. A year later, when McCartney made the dramatic announcement that the Buffaloes would switch to the wishbone offense, Barnett coached the quarterbacks and fullbacks, a position he would hold throughout his remaining tenure as a CU assistant. On December 3, 1990, he was promoted to offensive coordinator after Gerry DiNardo resigned to become head coach at Vanderbilt. His first game as OC was in the 1991 Orange Bowl against Notre Dame, a 10-9 Colorado victory that enabled CU to win its first national championship in football.

During his eight seasons as an assistant coach at Colorado, he coached some very high profile players, most notably Lee Rouson, Eric McCarty, Mark Hatcher, the late Sal Aunese, George Hemingway, Erich Kissick, Kordell Stewart and the winningest quarterback in CU history, Darian Hagan. CU was 59-34-2 during his tenure as an assistant under McCartney, and in his last seasons at Colorado, the Buffaloes did not lose a Big Eight Conference game (going 20-0-1).

GARY BARNETT FOUNDATION

Gary and his wife, Mary, announced in February 2005 the formation of the Gary Barnett Foundation, a tax-exempt, non-profit organization dedicated to the support of educational programs for economically disadvantaged and at-risk youth. "Mary and I have been discussing the possibility of creating a foundation for years," Gary Barnett said, "After the passing of Gabe Oderberg, we decided the time was now to make this happen."

Oderberg, who was on the football team between 1999-2002 and worked as an undergraduate intern after back injuries ended his career, committed suicide in 2004. Former Buff and '91 Orange Bowl MVP Charles Johnson is involved in the organization, as is Boulder physician Dr. John Meyer and Boston TV anchor Paul Burton. For more information, go to www.GaryBarnettFoundation.org.

Northwestern was 3-8, 2-9 and 3-7-1 in his first three seasons in Evanston, with the 8-24-1 mark almost identical to McCartney's 7-25-1 in his first three years at Colorado before he turned around the fortunes of the CU program.

Barnett was born May 23, 1946 in Lakeland, Fla., and graduated from Parkway Central High School in Chesterfield, Mo. He is married to the former Mary Weil, and they have two grown children, Courtney and Clay. Courtney graduated from Northwestern in 1997 and Clay from Georgetown in 2000. An avid golfer and runner, he was the official starter for the 2000 Bolder Boulder. He is also active in local charity work, specifically the ALS and Lupus foundations.

In April 2005, he received the Marinus Smith Award as presented by the CU Parents Association to teachers, advisors and staff who have made a significant impact on the lives of undergraduate students.

Barnett joined the Colorado staff on Feb. 20, 1984, as then-head coach Bill McCartney hired him to coach the running backs. He eventually was promoted to offensive coordinator on Dec. 3, 1990, following Gerry DiNardo's departure to become head coach at Vanderbilt. A year-by-year look at Barnett as a Colorado assistant:

CU was 59-34-2 during his tenure as an assistant coach under Bill McCartney. In his last three seasons at Colorado, the Buffaloes did not lose a Big Eight Conference game (20-0-1). He was named head coach at Northwestern on December 18, 1991, but did accompany CU to Miami to coach in the Blockbuster Bowl against Alabama.

NOTE: For year-by-year as head coach at Colorado, please refer to the record section later in this guide.

THE ASSISTANT COACHES

BRIAN CABRAL

Inside Linebackers/Assistant Head Coach

Brian Cabral is in his 17th season at the University of Colorado, his 16th as a full time assistant coach, as he joined the Buffalo staff as graduate assistant in 1989. Shortly after CU hired Gary Barnett as head coach, he was promoted to assistant head coach on February 1, 1999. In addition to coaching the inside linebackers, he also coaches the punt return unit on special teams.

In the summer of 2002, he was one of 500 nationwide recipients of the AFLAC National Assistant Coach-of-the-Year Award. Coaches on all levels were honored, from youth to professional, and he was one of 10 selected regionally to receive the award.

His 16 years as a full-time assistant rank as the third most in CU history, as he trails two legendary Franks: Potts and Prentup, both of whom assisted Buff head coaches for 18 years.

Cabral also served as interim head coach for just over three months in 2004 (February 19 to May 27), when head coach Gary Barnett was on paid administrative leave. In that role, he continued to coach his position players but also took care of day-to-day operational details of the program.

His 2001 punt return team led the nation with a 17.4 average, and also boasted the nation's top individual return man in Roman Hollowell, who averaged 18.0 per return and scored two touchdowns. In 2002, Jeremy Bloom averaged 15.0 yards per return and was 13th in the nation as a freshman (ranking 21st as a sophomore in '03). Cabral prides himself on the team being composed largely of non-starters, drawing comparison to his roots when he was special teams captain of the Chicago Bears.

Cabral, 49, tutored the inside linebackers his first year in Boulder as a grad assistant, and assumed full-time duties in the same capacity in 1990 and has coached the position at CU to this day. He returned to Colorado, his alma mater, from Purdue, where he coached the inside linebackers for two seasons (1987-88). He also is the director of CU's summer football camps.

He is a 1978 CU graduate, as he earned a B.S. degree in therapeutic recreation. He lettered three seasons for the Buffs at linebacker from 1975 to 1977 under Coach Bill Mallory, as he was a captain and played a big role on CU's Big Eight champion team in 1976. He led CU with 13 tackles (12 solo) in the 1977 Orange Bowl against Ohio State. As a senior, he was honored as the Big Eight Conference's player of the week for a monster 25 tackles in a CU 27-21 win over Stanford and shared the team's Sure Tackler Award with Mark Haynes. That 25-tackle game included 13 solo stops and is still tied for the fourth most in a single game in CU history.

Cabral had 297 tackles in his CU career (120 solo, 177 assisted), a number that still has him tied for 11th on Colorado's all-time list. A unique fact is that he has coached five of the players on the list ahead of him: Matt Russell, Greg Biekert, Ted Johnson, Chad Brown and Michael Jones. A sixth, Jashon Sykes, is the player he is tied with.

He was a nine-year NFL veteran, as Atlanta drafted him in the fourth round in 1978. He played two seasons with Atlanta, one with Green Bay and six with Chicago. As the captain of the Bears' special teams, he was a member of Chicago's Super Bowl XX champion team in 1985. He was selected as the Frito-Lay Unsung Hero in the Bears' win over New England, as he had two solo and two assisted tackles on special teams.

Known as one of the top linebacker coaches in the nation, his students have included Matt Russell, the 1996 Butkus Award winner, and all-Big Eight performers Greg Biekert, Chad Brown and Ted Johnson, who have gone on to stardom in the National Football League. He also recruited Rashaan Salaam, the 1994 Heisman trophy winner, and Chris Naeole, a 1996 All-American.

He was born June 23, 1956, in Fort Benning, Ga, but grew up in Kailua, Hawaii. He is married to the former Becky Lucas, and they have three children, Kyle (27), Maile (23) and Mele (18). He is an active member in the Fellowship of Christian Athletes. He has authored a book ("Second String Champion"), and his hobbies include surfing, skateboarding and snowboarding.

MIKE HANKWITZ

Defensive Coordinator/Outside Linebackers

Mike Hankwitz is in his second year of his second stint at Colorado, as he was named defensive coordinator on February 2, 2004, marking his return to where he worked 10 seasons as an assistant between 1985 and 1994. He also coaches the outside linebackers and the punters in addition to his duties as coordinator.

Hankwitz, 57, is just the eighth assistant coach to have two full-time tenures at Colorado. He thus was reunited with Gary Barnett, as the two worked together for seven seasons in Boulder (1985-91) as assistants under Bill McCartney.

He returned to Colorado from the University of Arizona, where he was the Wildcats' defensive coordinator to start the 2003 season. But after a 1-3 start, head coach John Mackovic was dismissed with Hankwitz promoted to interim head coach. The Wildcats went 1-7 under Hankwitz; the win came over Washington (27-22) while two of the losses were three-point setbacks to TCU and UCLA.

Hankwitz has coached in exactly 400 Division I-A football games (377 as a full-time coach and 23 as a grad assistant), and other than Arizona's 2-10 overall mark in 2003, the other seven schools all posted winning records during his time on their staffs.

He joined the CU staff the first time on March 4, 1985 as outside linebackers coach, the position he mentored his first three seasons in Boulder. He was promoted to defensive coordinator in 1988 and coached the inside linebackers that season; he did not coach a position in 1989 and 1991, but coached the secondary in 1990 and resumed coaching the outside 'backers in 1992 through his last game during his first stay in Boulder, the 1995 Fiesta Bowl. The Buffs were 86-30-4 during this time, including a 66-15-1 record when he was defensive coordinator. CU won Big Eight titles in 1989, 1990 and 1991, and was the consensus national champion in 1990. His 1992 defense allowed just 278.0 yards per game (No. 9 in the NCAA), the only time CU has led its conference in total defense since 1958 as well as still being the lowest figure over the last 36 seasons.

Hankwitz also coordinated the overall CU special teams effort, and worked hands on specifically with the punt team. During his first 10 seasons, Colorado's punt team was the nation's No. 1 rated unit for that span, twice leading the country in net average (1985 and 1989), producing four consecutive first-team All-America punters in Barry Helton, Keith English, Tom Rouen and Mitch Berger. Upon his return, he helped coach the Buffs right back to No. 1 in net punting in the nation, as CU led the NCAA with a 42.5 net average in 2004.

After McCartney retired following the 1994 season and new coach Rick Neuheisel had different ideas for the CU defense, Hankwitz parted ways with the program on his own terms, landing as defensive coordinator and inside linebackers coach for Glenn Mason at Kansas. The Jayhawks had their best season in 90 years in going 10-2 in 1995, including an upset over CU in Boulder; Mason moved north to the University of Minnesota in 1997 and originally tabbed him as his DC; but Hankwitz instead went south, joining Texas A&M as the defensive coordinator for the vaunted Aggie Wrecking Crew defense, a position he held for six seasons before taking the Arizona job. At A&M, his defenses were top 10 units in total defense, scoring defense and/or passing defense in 1998 (when the Aggies were Big 12 champs), 2000 and 2001.

Hankwitz graduated from the University of Michigan in 1970 with a bachelor's degree in physical education. He lettered three times as a linebacker and tight end for the Wolverines, and played in the 1970 Rose Bowl after Michigan emerged as the co-champions of the Big 10 Conference.

He started his coaching career in the fall of 1970, as he coached Michigan's junior varsity team. He was a graduate assistant on defense at Michigan the next two years before moving on to Arizona in 1973, where under head coach Jim Young he worked that season as outside linebackers coach. The following year, coaching the defensive backs was added to his duties, and in 1976, he was defensive coordinator in the final year of his first stop in Tucson. It was there where he first worked with Mackovic, who would later hire him back at the U of A in 2003.

Hankwitz (and Mackovic) followed Young to Purdue in 1977, where for five seasons he coached the outside linebackers and punters. In 1982, he moved on to Western Michigan as defensive coordinator and secondary coach for three years until being hired at Colorado by McCartney, also a former Michigan assistant. His 1982 WMU defense ranked No. 1 in the nation in scoring defense, allowing just 78 points in 11 games.

He was born December 14, 1947 in Ludington, Mich., and graduated from Mason County (Scottville, Mich.) Central High School, where he lettered in four sports: football, basketball, track and baseball. He is married to the former Cathy Leeds, and the couple has a son, Jacob (11).

SHAWN WATSON

Offensive Coordinator/Quarterbacks & Receivers

Shawn Watson joined the Colorado staff as quarterbacks coach on January 22, 1999, coming to CU from Northwestern with head coach Gary Barnett after holding a similar position for two seasons at Northwestern. This is his seventh season in Boulder.

He was named offensive coordinator almost exactly a year later, on January 19, 2000, replacing Tom Cable who left to become head coach at Idaho. In his first game as CU's O-coordinator, the Buffs gained 532 yards against Colorado State, the most ever by a Buff team in their first game under a new offensive "pilot." In 2001, CU was 20th in the nation in total offense (434.4 yards per game), but was only the third team in Buff history to average both 200 yards rushing and passing.

He added coaching the receivers to his duties in February 2005.

Watson, 45, has been adept at tailoring the offense around CU's talent. The 2001 and 2002 teams were strong rushing teams, and in 2003, the Buffs were prolific in the passing game, ranking 18th nationally with 279.3 yards per game, despite the fact that CU entered the year with its quarterbacks having only 10 collegiate snaps at the position. The 2004 team, despite an offensive line with just two returning starters, produced a 1,000-yard rusher and 2,000-yard passer, only the second time that occurred in school history.

Barnett hired Watson in 1997 at Northwestern after he spent three seasons as head coach at Southern Illinois. During his three years at the helm of the Salukis, SIU compiled an 11-22 record, but produced 20 all-conference players. Two of his standout players included Mark Gagliano, who led the nation in punting in 1996, and tight end Damon Jones, who was drafted in the fifth round by Jacksonville in the 1997 NFL draft.

Watson tutored quarterback Mike Moschetti his first year in Boulder, watching his senior signal-caller set a school record for completion percentage for a single season, 61.6 percent. Moschetti completed 204 of 331 passes for 2,693 yards, with 18 touchdowns and 12 interceptions. He also helped bring along redshirt freshman Zac Colvin, who became only the fifth freshman to start a game for CU, and just the second to lead the team to victory in CU's 16-12 win at Iowa State. He's also been a key element in the development of several other outstanding CU quarterbacks, including Bobby Pesavento and Joel Klatt.

Watson first attended Illinois on a football scholarship, but then transferred to Southern Illinois, where he would eventually play two seasons at strong safety. He began his coaching career at SIU as a graduate assistant in 1982, the same year he earned his bachelor's degree in health education. He moved on to the University of Illinois for the next four seasons (1983-86), coaching a host of positions while he worked on his master's degree, also in health education. He was a graduate assistant for the first two years, and then was the full-time tackles and tight ends coach in 1985 and the ends and wide receivers coach in 1986. The Illini went to the Rose and Peach bowls during his stay in Champaign.

After working with wide receivers, tight ends and special teams at Illinois, he moved on to Miami University in Oxford, Ohio, where he would coach the next seven seasons. He was the tight ends coach his first three years there (1987-89), then the wide receivers mentor (1989-91) and then quarterbacks coach and recruiting coordinator for his final two years (1992-93).

He was born September 21, 1959 in Carbondale, Ill., and graduated from Carterville (Ill.) High School where he lettered in football, basketball and track. He is married to the former Anita Wentz and is the father of three, Amber (25), Aaron (19) and Adam (17).

TOP PLAYERS COACHED—All-Americans (5): Coe Bonner, Cap Boso, Mark Gagliano, Damon Jones, David Williams. All-Big 10 Performers (2): Boso, Williams. NFL Players/Draft Picks (2): Boso, Jones.

RECORD—He has been a full-time assistant coach for 210 Division I-A games, along with his 33 as head coach of a Division I-AA program. Colorado is 42-33 in his six years in Boulder; Illinois was 27-18-1 his four years in Champaign-Urbana, while Miami was 28-44-5 in his seven years and Northwestern 8-16 in two years. He has coached in seven bowl games (two New Year's Day).

DAVE BORBELY

Offensive Line

Dave Borbely is in his fourth year as offensive line coach, as he joined the Colorado staff on February 15, 2002. He also coaches the offensive field goal/PAT unit on special teams.

Borbely, 46, came to CU with an outstanding resume, topped off by spending four seasons at Notre Dame (1998-2001). In South Bend, he coached the entire offensive line in 1998 and 1999 and solely the guards and centers in 2000 and 2001. While with the Irish, he coached in two New Year's Day bowls ('99 Gator and '01 Fiesta), as was on the same staff in 1998 as the late CU co-defensive coordinator Tom McMahon. His 2000

Notre Dame line, anchored by third-team All-American Mike Gandy, helped pave the way for the Irish to average 213.5 yards rushing per game, 14th in the nation.

In his first year at Colorado (2002), the Buffs finished sixth in the NCAA in rushing, largely due to an offensive line, minus two NFL draft picks, melding together. He worked with a young line with only one returning starter in 2003 and an offense that switched gears from being predominantly a rushing team to a passing unit, but set the group up well for the future. His 2004 unit, with just two returning starters at the onset, allowed just 20 quarterback sacks, the second fewest per game in a CU season when the Buffs also amassed 2,000-plus passing yards.

He was set to coach the offensive line at Kansas in the spring of 2002, but the CU position opened when Steve Marshall left the Buffs a little over a month later to join the NFL expansion Houston Texans. Gary Barnett made quick work to get him to Boulder.

A 1981 graduate of DePauw University, he earned his degree in history while lettering four times in football, being named the team's top lineman twice. His first taste of coaching came at the University of Evansville, where he worked two years (1981-82) as a graduate assistant while earning his master's degree in secondary education.

He moved on to become the defensive line coach for the freshman team at Penn in 1983 (a part-time position), and then worked the next two seasons as a graduate assistant at Tennessee, with both Volunteer teams going to bowl games ('84 Sun and '86 Sugar).

His first full-time coaching position followed at Rice University in the fall of 1986, and it was the first of four successive three-year stints at different programs around the country. He moved from Rice to Temple in 1989, then to Tulane in 1992 and then to Stanford in 1995 before settling at Notre Dame in 1998. Along the entire way he coached the offensive line, and he was also a coach of two Stanford teams that went to the postseason ('95 Liberty and '96 Sun bowls). No less than six of the players he has coached have been drafted into the National Football League.

He was born April 5, 1959 in Hammond, Ind., and graduated from Hammond (Ind.) High, where he lettered in football, baseball and wrestling. He is married to the former Bev Beard, and they have three children, Joseph (16), Laura (14) and Brian (12).

RECORD—He has coached in 221 games as a full-time collegiate assistant coach, 245 including his time as a grad assistant at Tennessee. That includes 39 at Colorado, with a record of 22-17. He has coached in eight bowl games (two New Year's Day).

CRAIG BRAY

Secondary

Craig Bray is in his second year as a member of the Colorado staff, as he was named secondary coach on June 4, 2004.

Bray, 53, has 29 years of coaching experience at the collegiate level, including 26 years coaching defense with an emphasis on the secondary, with seven as a coordinator. He worked as the linebackers coach in 2003 at the University of Arizona, where he was on the same staff as current CU defensive coordinator Mike Hankwitz.

Prior to his one year in Tucson with Arizona, he was the defensive coordinator and secondary coach at Oregon State University for the 2000 through 2002 seasons. His 2000 defense at OSU ranked as the best in both total and scoring defense in the Pacific 10 Conference, as well and ranks of 20th and 16th, respectively, in the NCAA. His 2001 squad was the third best defensively in the Pac-10, with the 2002 Beavers ranking ninth nationally in rushing defense and 11th in total defense in 2002. He directed a multiple scheme with a 4-3 base defense at Oregon State, similar to what Hankwitz installed at CU this past spring.

Bray also coached eight seasons in two stints at Washington State, in 1987 and 1988 and from 1994 through 1999. He joined Dennis Erickson's staff at the University of Idaho in 1984, serving as defensive backs coach in addition to recruiting coordinator, and went with Erickson to the University of Wyoming in 1986 (solely as the secondary mentor). He then moved on to Washington State in the same capacity in 1987, and when Erickson left for the University of Miami for the 1989 season, he again followed. But after working the spring as the DB coach, he returned to the Pacific Northwest to take a coordinators' position under John L. Smith at Idaho, where he was both the defensive coordinator and secondary coach.

He then joined Mike Price's staff at Washington State in 1994, and was reunited with Erickson at Oregon State in 2000.

His first full-time position in the profession came as wide receivers coach at Nevada-Reno in 1976; he coached the running backs there in 1977 and then switched to defense for the first time in 1978, as he coached the secondary there for the next two years (1978-79). He spent the next four seasons (1980-83) as the secondary coach at Northern Arizona.

Bray started his coaching career as a student assistant receivers coach at UNLV in 1975, the same year he earned a Bachelor of Science degree in Education. He attended the College of the Siskiyous from 1970-72 and played two years before transferring to UNLV, where he started two years as a wide receiver in 1973 and 1974 (the Rebels were 20-4 in his two seasons there in Division II ball).

He was born on December 18, 1951 in Yreka, Calif., and graduated from Yreka High School where he lettered in football, basketball and track. He is married to the former Kaprice Rupp, a former Washington State University head volleyball coach. The couple has two grown sons, Josh and Trenton; Josh recently graduated from Oregon State, while Trenton is a senior middle linebacker on the Beaver's football team.

He has coached in six bowl games (two New Year's Day), and coached in 10 Division I-AA playoff games, eight with Idaho and two at Nevada.

DARIAN HAGAN

Offensive Assistant

Darian Hagan, one of the names synonymous with Colorado's rise to glory in the late 1980s, was named an offensive assistant coach on February 9, 2005. He is working with the skill position players on offense in his first year as a full-time assistant.

Hagan, 35, had a brief taste of coaching in the spring of 2004 as he subbed as secondary coach when the staff was minus a full-time assistant. Otherwise, he was the defensive technical intern for the '04 season, assuming that role in February of that year. It marked the third time he has made the University of Colorado his destination of choice.

He starred at quarterback for the Buffaloes between 1988 and 1991, leading the school to its first national championship, and following his professional playing career, returned in the mid-1990s to work as CU's Alumni C Club Director.

Hagan left CU in the spring of 1998 to work as an area sales manager for the Transit Marketing Group. Three months into his new position, he was promoted to Southeast Regional Sales Manager. He remained in that position for over five years until deciding to pursue his dream as a coach and return to his alma mater for the third time. By working as a technical intern, he learned the intricacies of the profession in a hands-on role in his desire to coach; when a temporary vacancy opened on the staff, he was "activated" as a coach to work with the defensive backs and it added to his penchant for the profession.

Arguably the best all-around athlete in the history of the CU football program, he was an integral part of CU's run at two national championships in 1989 and 1990. The Buffs were 11-1 in 1989, losing to Notre Dame in the Orange Bowl, but went 11-1-1 in 1990 with a win over the Irish in an Orange Bowl rematch to give CU its first national title in football. CU was 28-5-2 with him as the starting quarterback for three seasons, including a 20-0-1 mark in Big Eight Conference games as he led the Buffs to three straight league titles in 1989, 1990 and 1991.

In 1989, he became just the sixth player in NCAA history at the time to run and pass for over 1,000 yards in the same season, finishing, as just a sophomore, fifth in the balloting for the Heisman Trophy. He established the school record for total offense with 5,808 yards (broken three years later by Kordell Stewart), and is one of two players ever at CU to amass over 2,000 yards both rushing and passing along with Bobby Anderson. He was a two-time all-Big Eight performer, and the league's offensive player of the year for 1989 when he also was afforded various All-America honors. He still holds several CU records and was the school's male athlete-of-the-year for the 1991-92 academic year.

In 2002, he was a member of the fourth class to be inducted into CU's Athletic Hall of Fame, and his jersey (No. 3) is one of several to have been honored.

Hagan played for Toronto, Las Vegas and Edmonton over the course of five seasons in the Canadian Football League, mostly as a defensive back and special teams performer. He returned to CU to earn his diploma just prior to his last professional season, and graduated with a bachelor's degree in sociology in May 1996. He was hired later that year (December 1) as the Alumni C Club Director, a position he held for 16 months until leaving for an incredible opportunity in private business.

He was born February 1, 1970 in Lynwood, Calif., and graduated from Los Angeles' Locke High School in 1988, where he lettered in football, basketball, baseball and track. He was drafted in two sports, football (by San Francisco in the fourth round in the 1992 NFL Draft) and baseball (selected as a shortstop by both Seattle and Toronto). He is the father of a son, Darian, Jr. (17), and a daughter, Danielle (10).

WILLIAM INGE

Defensive Line

William Inge is in his first year as a member of the Colorado football staff, as he was officially named defensive line coach on March 15, 2005. He also coaches the field goal/PAT defensive unit on special teams.

Inge, 31, came to CU from the University of Northern Iowa, where he was the co-defensive coordinator and special teams coordinator for the Panthers in 2004. He first joined the UNI staff in 2001 as linebackers coach, and switched to the defensive line in 2003, the position he coached while serving in the dual role as coordinator for the first time last season.

Barnett and Inge had some history, as the two first met Inge in 1992, when as then the first-year head coach at Northwestern, Barnett tried to recruit him to play for the Wildcats. However, Inge opted to attend the University of Iowa.

Inge lettered four times at Iowa (1993-96), and spent one year in the National Football League with the Tennessee Titans. He returned to Iowa City in 1998, where he would spend the next three years as the Hawkeyes' recruiting coordinator. He also had his first taste of coaching, working briefly as a graduate assistant. He had extensive involvement in Iowa's athletic program, ranging from compliance and fundraising to chairing the minority enrichment committee.

Simms, 42, joined the CU staff after coaching the running backs for two seasons at the University of Pittsburgh. His experience includes stops at Illinois and Ohio State. At Colorado, he tutored Bobby Purify in 2004, just the 12th different player in school history to run for 1,000 yards in a single season.

Simms earned his bachelor's degree in business education from Bowling Green in 1986, where he lettered as a linebacker and was an all-

Mid America Conference performer as a senior in 1984. His first taste of coaching came in 1985 with Heidelberg in nearby Tiffin, Ohio, as he coached the linebackers one year and the secondary in another while finishing up his degree at Bowling Green. He then moved on to San Diego State, where spent one season (1987) as a defensive grad assistant; while at SDSU, he studied in its master's program in educational administration.

His first full-time position was as running back coach with Oberlin, where he worked one year (1988), before accepting his first full-time Division I-A job with Miami, Ohio.

After two seasons as outside linebacker coach with Miami (1989-90), he moved on to Toledo, where he again coached the running backs for four seasons (1991-94). Simms then spent the 1995 and 1996 seasons as running backs coach at Illinois, where he tutored Robert Holcombe, who set single game, season and career rushing records for the Fighting Illini. Holcombe went on to earn a Super Bowl ring with the '99 St. Louis Rams.

Simms moved on to Ohio State for the 1997 through 1999 seasons, switching sides of the ball in coaching defensive ends, including standout performers James Cotton and Rodney Bailey, future NFL draft picks. He also recruited four players who saw plenty of action for the Buckeyes on their 2002 national championship team, including starting defensive end Will Smith.

Prior to joining the Pittsburgh staff in 2001, he coached the running backs at Rutgers for the 2000 season. At Pitt, he coached junior Brandon Miree, who gained 943 yards in 2002 to help lead Pittsburgh to a 9-4 record and near upset of No. 1 Miami.

His half brother, Charles Woodson, won the Heisman Trophy in 1997 as a collegian at Michigan and is currently with the Oakland Raiders. FOOTBALL SUPPORT STAFF

Hunter Hughes is in his second year as a graduate assistant on the Colorado staff, as he works with the defensive coaches in addition to other administrative chores. He worked with defensive coordinator Mike Hankwitz and the outside linebackers this past spring.

Hughes, 36, joined the Colorado staff in July 2003 as the defensive technical intern. He came to CU from Brentwood (Tenn.) High School, where he was an assistant coach for six years, and the defensive coordinator the last four. He was also a member of the faculty at Brentwood, as he taught Algebra I and II. He previously coached football (defensive coordinator) and taught Algebra at Overton High School in Nashville for three years before moving on to Brentwood.

He graduated from Middle Tennessee State University (Murphreesboro) in 1991 with a degree in physical education. While a student at MTSU, he was head equipment manager for the football team, as a student rather than a full-time employee traditionally staffed the role; he maintained the position for three years after graduation while teaching and coaching at Overton. While coaching at Brentwood, he earned his master's in sports management from MTSU in 2001.

He was born February 27, 1969 in Nashville, Tenn., he graduated from Father Ryan High School in Nashville in 1987, where he lettered in football and wrestling. An uncle (Boots Donnelly) was the head football coach for 20 seasons at Middle Tennessee State. He is single.

He was a high school All-American as a senior, when he caught 50 passes for 980 yards and 12 touchdowns. His father (Robert) played basketball at Cornell; one brother (Mike) played hockey at New Hampshire and professionally with Saginaw; another brother (Rob) played football at Ball State. He is single.

DONNELL LEOMITI Defensive Technical Intern

Donnell Leomiti is in his first year as the defensive technical intern, as he assumed the role in March 2005, returning to his alma mater to continue working in the football coaching ranks.

Leomiti, 32, joined CU from Boulder High School, where he coached the linebackers for four years while coaching an after school youth program for the Boulder County School District, which he had done since graduating from CU in 1998. The last two years he worked as a counselor for at-risk minority students and low-income families for the Family Learning Center in Boulder.

He completed his playing career in the Cotton Bowl on New Year's Day 1996, signed as a free agent with the San Francisco 49ers but a previous neck injury eventually ruled out his pursuing a pro football career. He returned to CU and finished up his degree in communication in the spring of 1998. He then started coaching, working as an assistant at Denver North High School for two years (1999-2000), also while working his Boulder County job.

Starting out as a receiver at CU, he saw action in 11 games including the Fiesta Bowl as a true freshman in 1992, but was moved to the safety the following year, where he would earn three letters and start at strong safety his junior and senior years. He had 159 career tackles, including 98 as a senior (the third most on the team), along with three interceptions, three fumble recoveries and seven pass deflections. Two of his biggest plays came his junior year (1994): he returned an interception for a touchdown at Missouri and had a key fumble recovery in the fourth quarter at Michigan, a big play in the game now referred to as both "The Miracle in Michigan" and "The Catch."

He was born June 10, 1973 in Santa Ana, Calif., and graduated from Leone High School in Pavaia, American Samoa, in 1992 where he lettered in football, basketball and baseball. He was a two-time Ashaa League most valuable player on offense, earning the honor his junior and senior years. ing the two previous years as an undergraduate assistant coach. He worked with both the offense and defense, working under offensive coordinator Tom Cable (a one-time assistant at Colorado) in 2004.

Babcock played three seasons as an inside linebacker at UCLA, and was a member of the Bruins' 1997 and 1998 Pacific-10 Conference championship teams, which played in the Cotton and Rose bowls, respectively. He earned his bachelor's of arts degree in sociology from UCLA in 2002.

He was born February 13, 1979, in Walnut Creek, Calif., and graduated from Miramonte High School (Orinda, Calif.), where he lettered in football (all-league as a senior) and baseball. He is single.

Jean Onaga is in her 20th year with the Colorado football program, and she handles all secretarial duties for the assistant coaches. She graduated from Kapiolani C.C. in Honolulu, Hawai'i, with a degree in business. Onaga's first season with the Buffaloes was in 1986. A native of Honolulu, she is married (Loren).

ERIC MCCREADY Offensive Technical Intern

Eric McCready was named offensive technical intern in March 2004, returning to his alma mater to begin what he hopes is his climb into the coaching ranks.

McCready, 27, joined CU from private business in Atlanta, Ga., where he was a Christmas tree sales representative while also selling commercial real estate; he had been living there since he left CU.

He graduated with a degree in business (marketing) in 2001 from CU, where he lettered four times in football between 1997 and 2000. He played extensively on special teams his first two seasons, then saw more and more action at receiver and finished his CU career with 38 catches for 435 yards and two touchdowns. He closed his career as a favorite target for Buff quarterbacks, with 13 catches for 127 yards and both his scores, with CU defeating Iowa State and Missouri and losing in the final seconds at Nebraska.

He signed as a free agent with the Philadelphia Eagles, but suffered a knee injury in training camp and called it an end to his football career.

He was born November 14, 1977 in Shawnee Mission, Kan., and grad-

2005 OUTLOOK

Colorado won its third Big 12 North Division title in four years last November, but was systematically dismantled in the conference's title game by No. 2 Oklahoma. It was only natural for frustration and disappointment to set in, and the coaches had some work to do in getting the team prepared for its bowl game.

Solution: head coach Gary Barnett and his coaches adopted and conveyed the attitude that the EV1.net Houston Bowl would be the first game of the 2005 season. After all, the Buffs were graduating just 11 seniors, only five of whom were starters. The end result? The underclassmen-dominated Buffaloes defeated an up-and-coming Texas-El Paso team by 33-28 in come-from-behind fashion, finishing off a tumultuous season on a satisfying note.

The North Division appears to be up for grabs again, and compelling arguments for all six teams could be made at this point; the conference is entering its 10th year of existence, and CU, Kansas State and Nebraska each have three titles, though only the Buffs and K-State have crowns this decade. So the race is on for either the first four-time champion or for Iowa State, Kansas or Missouri to breakthrough for their first title.

As for Colorado, the focus in the spring for the coaches was to shore up both the passing offense and defense, as well as to sift through intense battles at nearly every position on the team.

"Developing in the pass game on both offense and defense was the top priority in the spring," Barnett emphasized. "I felt we make progress in both areas, but we're still not close to a refined, finished product just yet. But the staff liked what we saw."

Another spring priority centered around figuring out who, if anyone, would emerge as the top running back, whether it will be one guy or be by committee. That question will carry into the fall as no one broke from the pack, not necessarily a negative as the coaches feel there is talent at the position, it's just largely untested since two players saw spot action as true freshmen a year ago and a third has been saddled with injury.

"It is obviously crucial to have one or two guys come to the forefront since establishing the ground game is so pivotal in laying the foundation for what we want to do on offense," Barnett said.

"There's a number of spots that remain open heading into August," he added. "We know a lot more after the spring, but we want to see the competition continue into fall camp at running back, wide receiver, both lines, linebackers and in the secondary. Whether its two veterans vying for the starting position or new guys trying to earn them for the first time, all those positions are going to continue to have competition. We're deep at quarterback and veteran tested there, and we're obviously set at punter and placekicker with two All-American candidates."

CU returns 50 lettermen and 17 starters from 2004, when the Buffs finished with an 8-5 record after starting 3-0 and surviving an October which saw the Buffaloes go just 1-4 and seemingly fall out of the division race. But adhering to the old cliché of the "the games they remember are played in November," the Buffs posted three straight wins and had everything fall into place for them to win the North. Everything included about six other games to end in a particular way, topped off by Missouri's upset win at Iowa State the last day of the regular season; that enabled CU and ISU to tie for the division lead with 4-4 records, with the tiebreaker going to the Buffs by virtue of their 19-14 win over the Cyclones in Boulder in October.

Offensively, quarterback Joel Klatt is secure in his starting role, and he had another solid spring in likely cementing his name atop the depth chart heading into the season. Klatt, CU's starter the last two seasons, overcame some struggles early last season to take command down the stretch. He is in position to become the holder of every major CU career passing record as well as to become the first three-year starting signal caller for the Buffs since Kordell Stewart barked the play calls from 1992 to 1994.

Who Klatt will hand off to as well as throw to is still up for grabs. There's no clear cut favorite at tailback, though Lawrence Vickers showed how versatile he was playing both tailback and fullback last year. Vickers and tight ends Joe Klopfenstein and Quinn Sypniewski are fine targets in the passing game, with the receivers needing to sort themselves out. But there are plenty of veteran candidates to emerge as favorite options, including Evan Judge, last year's leading receiver, Blake Mackey and Dusty Sprague, along with several others who at this juncture simply lack game experience. Whoever winds up in the rotation, the focus will be on eliminating drops. "We had 39 dropped passes last year, and that is way too many," Barnett said. "So the ball was in the air a lot this spring, but we still had too many drops and those will have to disappear in camp."

As for the offensive line, the goal will be to become more physical in pass protection. Not that CU gave up an inordinate amount of sacks (20), but it did allow 62 pressures and a slew of batted balls at or behind the line of scrimmage. Juniors Brian Daniels (tight guard) and Mark Fenton (center) along with senior Clint O'Neal (tight tackle) are returning starters who should

Lawrence Vickers

Mason Crosby

Billingsley has both been reinstated after tending to academics and is healed after a pair of knee surgeries.

The two spots Barnett knows are locked up belong to CU's kicking duo of placekicker Mason Crosby, the nation's leader with six 50-plus yard field goals last year, and punter John Torp, who finished second individually but helped Colorado win its fifth net punting title. How good are these two? Last year, opponents started 80 of 159 drives at or inside the 20, thanks to the legs of the aforementioned gentlemen who help form perhaps what will be the nation's top special teams unit from top to bottom.

Colorado has played one of the nation's top 15 toughest schedules for five straight years. The Buffs will see the same eight conference opponents, while Miami, Fla., and New Mexico State replace Washington State and North Texas in the non-league slate. This is the last 11-game regular season in NCAA history, as legislation passed in April that permanently added a 12th regular season contest.

Repeating last year's 7-4 regular season record won't be an easy task, considering the five road trips that loom this fall (Miami, Fla., Oklahoma State, Texas, Kansas State and Iowa State), but the Buffaloes have proved resilient when adversity has flown in their faces. Colorado certainly proved last fall what can truly happen when teams take games one-at-a-time.

And besides, CU is already 1-0 in 2005; the Buffs are just in the middle of the longest bye week in its history.

anchor the line; they were three of the same quintet that started every game in 2004.

On defense, 10 starters return on a defense that improved as the season progressed, along with another five players with three or more career starts under their belts. That has the coaches excited since so many return to a unit that underwent a transformation from the 4-2-5 scheme on defense in 2003 to a 4-3 base last season.

Linebacker appears to be the most well-stocked unit on this year's team, led by a trio that figures to be in there on a rotating basis simply because how can you keep Akarika Dawn, Jordon Dizon or Thaddaeus Washington out of the lineup. They were three of CU's top five tacklers last season, with Washington second on the squad with 93 while Dizon set a true freshman record with 82. And that's not including outside linebacker Brian Iwuh, the team leader in stops with 98 as well as a team-high 14 tackles for losses.

The defensive front should be stronger, with James Garee moving inside which enables ends Alex Ligon and Abraham Wright, who split time last year, to be in the lineup at the same time. Vaka Manupuna is a rock at nose tackle and thrives on inhibiting the run.

The secondary returns almost intact from last season, with the anchor at corner being Lorenzo Sims; at safety, there's a lot of competition expected, led by three returning veterans, Tom Hubbard, Tyrone Henderson and Dominique Brooks. The minus here is that CU loses the services this fall of cornerback Terrence Wheatley, also a top return man who will miss the entire season due to a wrist injury; but a plus is that safety J.J.

IN-DEPTH LOOK AT THE BUFFS

Offense

Quarterback

VETERAN PERSONNEL: Joel Klatt, Sr.; James Cox, Jr.; Brian White, Soph.; Bernard Jackson, Soph.

Klatt should become CU's first three-year starter at quarterback since Kordell Stewart (1992-94) and only the sixth ever as he cemented his stranglehold on the starting spot in spring drills. He is already in the top five in the five top passing categories in school history, and he ended last fall on a high note in being named the offensive MVP in leading CU to a come-from-behind win over UTEP in the Houston Bowl. Cox pushed Klatt at midseason, starting one game (Iowa State) and is waiting in the wings, as he is a little faster and offers a different style. White, who missed most of the spring with a wrist injury, is probably the purest passer with the strongest arm of the lot, while Jackson is of the "Michael Vick" mode, the fastest of all the signal callers who can hurt the opponent with his legs as well as his arm; he had a fantastic spring as he continues to learn the offense. Klatt has the most experience (22 starts), while Cox has roughly three halves of action not including mop-up duty. White and Jackson have not logged significant game time as of yet.

Fall Additions: Mack Brown, Patrick Devenny (recruits). Key Losses: Erik Greenberg (graduation).

Running Back

VETERAN PERSONNEL: Lawrence Vickers, Sr.; Brandon Caesar, Jr.; Hugh Charles, Soph.; Byron Ellis, Soph.; Paul Creighton, Jr.

Vickers has the most experience, as he saw action at both tailback and fullback, thus earning the "VB" tag for versatile back when combined with his receiving abilities; he'll again likely see snaps at tailback and fullback. Charles, the team speedster (4.37), and Ellis saw spot action as true frosh and will get their chance to shine this fall—and they'll need to. Caesar returns from a pair of knee surgeries and shook off the rust with a solid spring and should finally get the chance to show what he can do. Bobby Purify ran for 1,016 yards a year ago, so the competition will be to see who will have the opportunity to pickup the lion's share of that figure.

Fullback Creighton saw more time at the position as the 2004 season progressed, and he's worked hard to develop into a fine fullback; he was in there a lot when Vickers lined up at tailback. Senior Brendan Schaub, who made a name for himself on special teams duty last fall, is the only other veteran fullback on the roster.

Fall Additions: FB Jake Behrens, TB Maurice Greer, TB Kevin Moyd (recruits). Key Losses: TB Bobby Purify (graduation), VB Daniel Jolly (transferred).

Offensive Line

VETERAN PERSONNEL: Brian Daniels, Jr.; Mark Fenton, Jr.; Clint O'Neal, Sr.; Edwin Harrison, Soph.; Gary Moore, Sr.; Tyler Polumbus, Soph.; OT/G Jack Tipton

The line matured as the '04 season progressed, and while it suffers two key losses in starters ST Sam Wilder and SG Terrance Barreau, three starters return with two others who saw extensive time to provide a solid nucleus to build on. Juniors Daniel and Fenton are the anchors at tight guard and center, respectively, with senior Clint O'Neal back at his tight tackle spot as well. That trio played 2,103 snaps last fall, and Daniels topped the grade chart at 82.3 percent. Harrison has switched from tackle to split guard, and he was supposed to get his first serious set of reps during the spring, but a shoulder injury in conditioning sidelined him the entire spring but he will be back full-go for the start of fall camp; Tipton, a natural tackle who's played mostly guard to cover depth issues, slid in at split guard to fill the void in the spring. Polumbus, who played mostly on the FG/PAT unit last year, is penciled in at split tackle, while Moore, who plays both tackle and guard, opens as O'Neal's backup but could get a look at both positions. The group adjusted to a slight scheme change last year that incorporated some of techniques of the neighboring Denver Broncos. The challenge for the group will be to improve protection, reduce pressures and sacks allowed (along with balls batted down at or behind the LOS), as well as become more physical to aid in the running game. There's a second wave of players who will be heard from, starting with JC transfer Bryce MacMartin who is the backup center after spring drills; he'll also get reps at guard. Redshirt freshman Daniel Sanders will battle for time at guard. The coaches got what they wanted in the spring — intense competition all across the line — and it will continue into the fall, so don't look for the starting five to be cemented until well into camp.

Fall Additions: Paul Backowski, Devin Head (recruits). Key Losses: OG Terrance Barreau, OG Derek Stemrich, OT Sam Wilder (graduation); OL Garret Collins (quit football).

Receiver

VETERAN PERSONNEL: Evan Judge, Sr.; Blake Mackey, Jr.; Dusty Sprague, Soph.; Reggie Joseph, Soph.; Patrick Williams, Fr-RS

The position had the expected growing pains in 2004, but 39 dropped balls (for what could have been 700-plus yards in gains) were a little much for the coaches to take. But there were plenty of positives, such as the emergence of Judge, a former walk-on who led the team in receiving (29 for 336, 3 TD), and the late-season blooming of Mackey, who had a team-high 16.0 yards per catch. Sprague was also coming on, but was sidelined for three games with a broken collarbone; he still caught 22 balls. Joseph saw spot action, as did Williams, who suffered broken bones in both hands early on received a medical redshirt to regain his freshman status. JC transfer Alvin Barnett was added to the fold in the spring, as he's an experienced receiver who could make an immediate mark in the CU program. Four walk-ons round out the spring personnel at the position, senior Marcus Gonzales, junior Nick Holz, sophomore transfer Chase McBride and freshman redshirt Cody Crawford.

Fall Additions: Jarrell Yates (recruit). Key Losses: Mike Duren, Ron Monteilh (graduation), Tyler Littlehales (medical).

Tight End

KEY PERSONNEL: Joe Klopfenstein, Sr.; Quinn Sypniewski, Sr.

With Sypniewski being awarded a sixth year of eligibility from the NCAA, the Buffs now boast a veteran 1-2 punch with him and Klopfenstein, as the pair have 73 games and 32 starts in their careers. Klopfenstein, the all-bowl game tight end selection by many, caught 28 passes for 284 yards last fall, and added five more for 134 yards in the Houston Bowl, including the longest reception by a TE in CU history (78 yards). Junior walk-ons Dan Goettsch and Brandon English and redshirt frosh Justin Adams provide depth.

Fall Additions: Riar Geer (recruit). Key Losses: Jesse Wallace (graduation).

Defense

Defensive Front

VETERAN PERSONNEL: James Garee, Sr.; Alex Ligon, Jr.; Vaka Manupuna, Sr.; Abraham Wright, Jr.; John Guydon, Sr.; Alonzo Barrett, Soph.; Walter Boye-Doe, Jr.

This area could develop into a strength fast—real fast—as the first unit has 49 career starts (38 last season). By moving Garee from end inside to tackle, the coaches hope that the pass rushing skills of Ligon and Wright will blossom and the team will be able to add to its 2004 total of 31 quarterback sacks (and especially increase the pressure—CU had only 38 hurries a year ago). Manupuna is coming off a breakthrough season at nose tackle, completing an impressive starting quartet. The downside is there isn't much experienced depth, other than Guydon and Barrett; Boye-Doe has switched to the position from linebacker and is an unknown at present (he missed the spring following ankle surgery), but his athleticism gives him a shot at competing in the rotation. At end, redshirt freshmen Greg Newman and David Veikune and true frosh Zach Jones, who enrolled in time for spring drills, will get the chance to show what they can do, while at tackle, fifth-year senior Nick Clement and junior Marcus Jones are the only other veterans on the roster; several of those players need to emerge to bolster the depth heading into the fall.

Inside Linebacker

VETERAN PERSONNEL: Thaddaeus Washington, Jr.; Jordon Dizon, Soph.; Akarika Dawn, Sr.; Chris Hollis, Jr.; Joe Sanders, Soph.

Position coach Brian Cabral is all smiles, as he likely has the deepest position on the team. He has four veteran players with a combined 34 starts, and only one—Dawn—is a senior. Washington had a breakout season in 2004, finishing third on the team in tackles (93) and earning a solid reputation as a hard hitting 'backer who was always in the right place. Next to him most of the time was Dizon, who started 11 games, tying the CU record by a true freshman; he was third with 83 tackles, four spots higher than any CU true freshman had ever finished before. And Dawn was no slouch, with 73 tackles and a team-high 13 third down stops. Hollis will get his junior year back, receiving a medical redshirt after missing most of the year with assorted injuries, and Sanders moves over from outside backer where he saw spot action playing behind Brian Iwuh. Redshirt freshman Maurice Cantrell, bulked up to 235, is someone Cabral is high on and he'll figure in the mix; senior Kyle Griffith, a special teams regular, and walk-on R.J. Brown (redshirt frosh) round out the veteran depth.

Fall Additions: Marcus Burton (recruit). Key Losses: none.

Outside Linebacker

VETERAN PERSONNEL: Brian Iwuh, Sr., Brad Jones, Fr.-RS; Ben Carpenter, Jr.

Officially called the "Buff Linebacker" position, Iwuh returns for his senior year and should contend for some national honors. He was the team leader with 98 tackles a year ago, only the second time an OLB led Colorado in stops. His natural talent and instincts fit the position perfectly, as it is the one that allows the most "freelancing." Jones was almost "activated" on a couple of occasions last year, but the coaches managed to save his redshirt year. The tallest of the outside 'backers, he's up about 20 pounds to 220 and should be a viable backup. Carpenter saw spot action a year ago but is savvy, as the perpetual honors student knows the game.

Fall Additions: none. Key Losses: none.

Secondary

VETERAN PERSONNEL: Terrence Wheatley, Jr.; Lorenzo Sims, Jr.; Tyrone Henderson, Jr.; Dominique Brooks, Jr.; Tom Hubbard, Sr.; Gerett Burl, Jr.; Vance Washington, Jr.; Lionel Harris, Soph., Ryan Walters, Fr.-RS

There were no seniors a year ago, and there's only one—Hubbard—this time around. That bodes well in the sense that the group is now accustomed to CU's 4-3 base defense and the core contingent had plenty of snaps. Sims is one starter at corner, but the other is up for grabs, as Wheatley will have season-canceling surgery on Aug. 10. Burl has a shot at earning back his spot, as he was running first-team after spring and started nine games in 2004. Washington, one of the fastest players on the squad, returns from a series of shoulder surgeries, and Robinson, who switched from receiver to the position last fall, will get a lot more practice time in. Other corners include redshirt frosh Wilson and Reid and senior walk-on Anderson. At safety, Henderson, Hubbard and Brooks figure into the rotation at present; the trio has 28 career starts among them, 25 coming last year. The position will be bolstered significantly with the return of Billingsley, one of the top safeties in the country, as he has been reinstated after being suspended for academic reasons. Harris practiced the first portion of the spring at outside linebacker before returning to safety where he's been his first two years in Boulder. Redshirt frosh Walters and Sherman are extremely athletic and enjoyed good springs (Walters won the most improved defensive player award), with true frosh Reggie Foster, who enrolled in time for spring drills, still learning the nuances of college ball.

Fall Additions: Terry Washington (juco), Ben Burney, Gardner McKay (recruits). Key Losses: Chris Russell (juco).

Kicking Game / Special Teams

VETERAN PERSONNEL: PK Mason Crosby, Jr.; P John Torp, Sr.; PK Kevin Eberhart, Soph.; KR Stephone Robinson, Jr.; KR Terrence Wheatley, Jr.; SN Greg Pace, Sr.; H Nick Holz, Jr.

With Crosby and Torp, Colorado arguably has the best placekicker-punter combination in the nation, and both should vie for the pinnacle awards that come with their positions. Thanks to that pair, opponents started over half their possessions (80 of 159) at or inside their 20 in 2004. Eberhart redshirted last year and along with sophomore Isaac Garden, the Buffs are stocked at placekicker, with Crosby the backup to Torp at punter. Robinson and Wheatley were a solid 1-2 punch at returning kicks, especially with Jeremy Bloom being denied the chance to return by the NCAA in late August; several others will get looks there as well (Wheatley is out of the picture for '05 with the wrist injury). Pace handled all snapping duties, with senior Matt Hammond and JC transfer Bryce MacMartin potentially providing depth there. Holz shined as the holder last year, with Dusty Sprague and Joel Klatt the backups there.

Fall Additions: P Matthew DiLallo (recruit). Key Losses: none.

THE PLAYERS

JASON ACKERMANN, ILB

6-1, 220, Jr., 1L

Louisville, Colo. (Boulder Fairview)

AT COLORADO: This Season (Jr.)—He should be able to return at some point early in the season, but was questionable for August drills as he continued rehabilitation from knee surgery. He missed all of spring drills.

2004 (Soph.)—He saw action in nine games, seven on defense and in all nine on special teams before he suffered torn ligaments and cartilage in the Kansas game. He had surgery (Nov. 19) and missed the remainder of the year. Prior to the injury, he racked up nine tackles (seven solo) in 86 plays from scrimmage as the backup will inside linebacker. He added two more stops, both solo and one inside-the-20, on special teams coverage duty and also had a downed punt. He enjoyed a solid spring, tying for the second most tackles in the three main scrimmages with 21 (12 solo, two for losses).

2003 (Fr.-RS)—He saw action in 11 games, one on defense at inside linebacker and in all on special teams. In 27 snaps on defense against Baylor, he was on three tackles, including a solo stop; on special teams, he had two points on the strength of an assisted tackle and a fourth down stop on a misplayed punt (also against Baylor). He had a solid spring, posted 17 tackles, four for losses, in the three full scrimmages; with only three healthy inside linebackers for much of spring ball, he received plenty of quality reps.

2002 (Fr.)—Redshirted; he practiced the entire fall at inside linebacker. Originally slated for January enrollment, some attrition enabled him to join the team in fall camp after the first week of drills.

HIGH SCHOOL—As a senior, he garnered Prep Football Report all-Midwest and PrepStar and SuperPrep all-Midlands honors. Rivals.com ranked him as the No. 17 ILB in the land. He was the all-Colorado Defensive Player-of-the-Year (Rocky Mountain News), and was also all-Colorado by the Denver Post and first-team all-state by both newspapers. He was all-Boulder County (Boulder Camera) and all-Centennial League as both a junior and senior. As a sophomore, he was Fairview's Newcomer-of-the-Year, as he played the last half of the year with varsity, including starts in four games (two playoff). He totaled some gaudy numbers in his prep career, topped by 388 tackles, over 120 for losses, 18 quarterback sacks, 17 forced fumbles, 11 blocked kicks and six interceptions. As a senior, he was in 189 tackles (108 solo), with an amazing 82 for losses including eight quarterback sacks. But the numbers didn't stop there, as he had over two dozen hurries, 11 forced fumbles, five recoveries (one for a touchdown), three interceptions (returning one for a TD) and five blocked kicks (four FG, one punt). As a junior, he was in on 132 tackles, including 83 solo stops, 30 tackles for loss and six sacks, to go with four forced fumbles, three interceptions and three blocked kicks (two FG and a punt he returned for a score). He had 67 tackles, four sacks, two forced fumbles and three blocked kicks as a sophomore. He played some spot tight end throughout his career, primarily as a blocker though he did have three career receptions. His top games as a senior: in a 21-17 win over Columbine, he had 22 tackles (seven TFL's, two sacks) and two forced fumbles; in a 20-13 victory over rival Boulder, he had 18 tackles (four TFL's, one sack), an interception, a forced fumble and a blocked punt; and in a 38-14 win over Mullen, he had 17 tackles (eight TFL's, one sack), an interception, a forced fumble, and a 34-yard kickoff return. Fairview was 12-2 his senior year, reaching the state championship game (a 9-3 loss to Chatfield), 9-2 his junior season and 10-2 his sophomore year under coach Tom McCartney, winning the Centennial League title all three years. He also lettered twice in basketball (power forward) and once in baseball (centerfielder).

ACADEMICS—He is majoring in sociology at Colorado. Owner of a 3.62 grade point average in high school, he was one of nine 2001 Colorado Chapter National Football Foundation and College Hall of Fame Scholar-Athletes.

JAKE BEHRENS, FB

5-11, 230, Fr., HS
Omaha, Neb. (Millard North)

AT COLORADO: This Season (Fr.)—He is projected at fullback as a true freshman.

HIGH SCHOOL—A standout at fullback and defensive end during his prep career, he lettered three times en route to being selected as the Gatorade Nebraska Player of the Year his senior season, when he earned first-team all-state, all-metro and all-district honors. He was named to the pre- and postseason All-Midlands teams by both SuperPrep (its No. 61 player overall) and PrepStar, in addition to being ranked as the No. 12 fullback in the nation (third-best Nebraska prep) by Rivals.com. He was a first-team all-district and all-metro selection his junior year, as well as earning honorable mention all-state accolades. As a senior, he had 203 carries for 1,203 yards and nine touchdowns, with a long run of 62, also occasionally returning kickoffs (three), including one for 85 yards. On defense he made 60 tackles (33 solo, including 15 for loss and four quarterback sacks), along with three forced fumbles, one fumble recovery and six pass breakups. As a junior he had 72 rushes for 538 yards and eight scores (long of 58); he also added 70 tackles (45 solo, 14 for losses with eight sacks) and seven pass deflections. His sophomore season saw him earn 88 carries for 478 yards and four touchdowns. Thus he had 363 career attempts for 2,219 yards, a healthy 6.1 average per carry. He lists his top career game as a 27-26 win over Westside his senior year when he rushed 25 times for 139 yards and three touchdowns in the state semifinal playoff game. In another contest his junior year, he posted 150 yards and four scores on 18 carries in a 56-14 win against Omaha South. Under coach Fred Petito, Millard North was 6-7 his senior season, rallying to make the playoffs before falling in the state championship game; MNHS went 13-0 to win the state title his junior year, and was 12-1 his sophomore campaign (state runner-up). He also played basketball early in high school before fully turning his attention to football.

ACADEMICS—He is interested in business administration, finance or international affairs as possible majors at Colorado. He boasted a perfect 4.0 grade point average in high school (scoring 1280 on the SAT), and was on the honor roll all four years. He was an academic all-state student-athlete, and was also awarded an international baccalaureate (IB) diploma, a program with a challenging course of study for motivated students.

PERSONAL—Born January 19, 1987 in Omaha, Neb. Hobbies include playing basketball and baseball, though is proud that “academics take up most” of his time. He has also done community service at the Humane Society his junior and senior years. He is the first Nebraska prep recruit to sign with Colorado since 1988, when DT John Parrella (Grand Island Central Catholic) signed; Parrella did not qualify academically, so the last Nebraska recruit to enroll was OL Dean Davis (Scottsbluff) in 1984. His full first name is Jacob. (Last name is pronounced bear-ens.)

AT COLORADO: This Season (Jr.)—Surgeries and other issues behind him, he is back in the fold for the fall and should be one of the top defensive backs in the Big 12 Conference. He did not participate in spring drills as he completed rehabilitation for knee surgery in addition to not participating in all team activities while concentrating on academics. Phil Steele's College Football ranked him as the No. 25 defensive back in the nation despite his playing in just two games last fall. He enters the year with 170 tackles, the 19th most by a defensive back at Colorado (and 78th overall), with his 123 solo stops tied for 36th on that all-time list (tied for the 13th most by a DB).

2004 (Jr.-RS)—He suffered a sprained knee midway during August drills (August 19), but he was able to play in the opener against Colorado State, where he saw action for 44 plays... none bigger than the game's final one, when he stuffed Colorado State's Tristian Walker for a 2-yard loss on a third-and-goal play as time ran out to preserve a 27-24 CU win. He sat out the next two games, and with an open week in the mix as well, was hopeful of being healthy for the league portion of the schedule. Though he did play 38 snaps at Missouri and had a big game (six tackles, a forced fumble, a hurry and a third down stop), the swelling persisted and he had season-ending surgery on October 12. Thus, he played in just the two games and was eligible for a medical redshirt year since he had one available to him. Street & Smith's tabbed him as a preseason honorable mention All-American and one of 26 candidates for the Jim Thorpe Award, while Lindy's Big 12 Football selected him as a preseason second-team all-Big 12 Conference performer as well as the No. 16 safety in the nation. 2003 (Soph.)—In earning honorable mention all-Big 12 Conference honors from the league coaches, he finished third on the team in tackles with 94 (69 solo), along with eight tackles for loss, six third down stops, six quarterback hurries, three touchdown saves, three pass deflections and two interceptions. He also earned first-team all-Colorado honors from the Colorado chapter of the National Football Foundation/College Football Hall of Fame. He was CU's defensive back of the week on three occasions, all late in the season after he really got things going: against Texas Tech he had six tackles and two interceptions; against Missouri he posted a season-high 14 tackles, including two for losses; and against Iowa State, he had five tackles, two for losses with a sack, a third down stop and a fumble recovery. His two interceptions against Tech came three-and-a-half minutes apart in the first quarter, making him the 10th CU player in history to record two thefts in the same quarter. He also had 13 tackles against Kansas State, 10 against Nebraska and nine each versus Colorado State and Washington State. He earned three special team points on the strength of two solo tackles and a downed punt. He sat out the second half of spring drills to concentrate on academics (he needed to catch up a bit), but was back on schedule by fall camp.

2002 (Fr.)—A first-team Freshman All-American by both the FWAA and The Sporting News, he was also first-team Freshman All-Big 12 and the recipient of CU's Lee Willard Award, presented by the coaches to the most outstanding freshman. He played in all 14 games, including the Alamo Bowl, with six starts; he saw most of his action in CU's dime package, and played the bulk of his snaps at free safety. In earning his way on to CU's prestigious Victory Club, he finished seventh on the team in tackles with 67, a number that ranked him eighth in the NCAA for tackles by a true freshman. It also set a CU record for the most tackles in a season by a true frosh, as he broke the old mark of 52 set by Jashon Sykes in 1998. In his first start against San Diego State, he established a school record for the most tackles by a true freshman when he posted 15, including 12 solo stops. He had 47 unassisted tackles on the year, with seven for losses and a quarterback sack. He had two third down stops, a fumble recovery and two forced fumbles, one of which was huge: it came in overtime at Missouri, preventing a Tiger first down as Kory Mossoni recovered the ball to end the game. Other top games came against Kansas (12 tackles) and Baylor (10); in the bowl game against Wisconsin he had one tackle (for a 4-yard loss). He finished second on the team in special team points with 13, on the strength of nine tackles (one inside-the-20), two knockdown blocks and a forced fumble. He also won a "CUSPY," as he was selected as CU's Male Freshman of the Year for all sports.

HIGH SCHOOL—As a senior, he garnered PrepStar and SuperPrep All-America accolades along with first-team all-Colorado honors (Denver Post, Rocky Mountain News), with the Post selecting him to its 12-man Blue Chip list. He also earned first-team all-state and all-conference honors playing slot back, with Prep Football Report and SP both selecting him to their all-Midlands teams. Rivals.com ranked him No. 34 in its special "athlete" category; PrepStar had him as the No. 6 athlete out of the Midlands. As a junior, he earned first-team all-league honors at linebacker, and was an honorable mention all-state performer. He amassed 1,177 total yards as a senior, including 736 rushing (105 carries, 7 touchdowns) and 441 receiving (17 catches, 5 TDs). He had five touchdowns of 70 yards or longer in length; two came on 89- and 81-yard runs against Smoky Hill. He did not play defense as a senior; as a junior, he was in on 80 tackles, with four forced fumbles, two sacks, three interceptions and a recovery playing linebacker, the same position he logged 50 tackles and an interception as a sophomore. Over on offense, he racked up just shy of 1,000 yards, as he had 700-plus rushing and 200-plus receiving with two scores. He also returned a kickoff for a touchdown as a junior showing his versatility. Top games included the 42-20 win over Smoky Hill as a senior, when he had 226 yards and three scores; he had 14 carries for 184 yards and three scores in a 28-21 win over Overland and in a 35-24 loss to Mullen, he had 170 yards and two scores. Eaglecrest was 8-3 his senior year, reaching the state quarterfinals, and was 2-8 his junior and 4-6 his sophomore seasons under coach Gary Thompson. He also lettered in twice in basketball as a guard/forward and three times in track (hurdles and relays). He was a member of the state champion 4-x100 relay team as a junior, and was the state champ in the 110- and 300-meter hurdles (14.02 and 37.37 times, respectively) and on the 800-meter winning relay team (1:27.09) as well as a senior.

ACADEMICS—He is majoring in sociology at Colorado.

PERSONAL—He was born November 16, 1983 in Denver. His hobbies include listening to music and video games. His father (Jon, Sr.) played college football at Central Methodist College, with a cousin, Micha Billingsley, played wide receiver first at Fort Lewis and then at Northern Michigan. J.J. stands for Jon, Jr.

DOMINIQUE BROOKS, S

6-1, 200, Jr., 2L

Mesquite, Texas (North Mesquite)

AT COLORADO: This Season (Jr.)—Enters the fall listed first at strong safety on the depth chart, but also can play free safety if need be. In spring conditioning tests, he posted a team best in the standing long jump (11-0 feet).

2004 (Soph.)—He started the first nine games of the season, the first five at strong safety and the next four at free safety and then came off the bench in the final three before starting again in the Houston Bowl as he played in all 13 games. In 647 snaps from scrimmage during the regular season, he finished fourth on the team in tackles with 72 (54 solo), with six third down stops, four passes broken up, two quarterback hurries, a forced fumble and recovery. His fumble recovery was huge, as he returned it 41 yards for a touchdown at Kansas in the first quarter that swung the game's momentum after the Jayhawks had stormed to a 14-0 lead in the game's first four minutes. He also had seven special team points on the strength of five tackles (four solo and two inside-the-20). He had a career high 11 tackles (8 solo) in the overtime loss at Texas A&M, and posted nine against Oklahoma State, eight against Missouri and seven versus both North Texas and Texas. He had five or more tackles in nine games, including six against both Washington State and Oklahoma, in both cases all unassisted stops. Against UTEP in the bowl game, he had one solo tackle (for a 1-yard loss) and a pass broken up on a fourth down play—the Miners last gasp from their own 40 with just under a minute remaining.

2003 (Fr.)—He saw action in 10 games, on both defense and special teams, and started three contests (Baylor, Kansas, Texas Tech) when CU opened in its dime defense. He played 326 snaps from scrimmage, the second most by any true freshman on the team (topped only by OG Brian Daniels), and posted 24 tackles, which included 20 solo and three for losses with one quarterback sack. He was always sniffing out the big play, as he led the team with eight third down stops, two touchdown saves and two interceptions on the year, both coming in the Missouri game; that made him the 69th player at CU to have two in a game, but only the third true freshman to accomplish the feat (the first since 1996). He also had five pass deflections and one quarterback hurry; on special teams, he added two solo tackles. He had four tackles, three being unassisted stops, in three different games: Washington State, Kansas and Iowa State, and against Texas Tech, he had three solo tackles, all for losses. Against Missouri, he had four third down stops (two interceptions, one tackle, one pass deflection), the most by a CU player since the 1997 season.

Rivals.com ranked him as the No. 33 safety in the nation, SuperPrep had him as the No. 40 player in Texas and PFR the No. 57 player in the region (the ninth defensive back). He played in the Coca-Cola All-Star game, racking up seven tackles. As a junior, one of only four who saw action on the team, he was second-team all-state and first-team all-area and all-district. As a senior, playing free safety in what Prep Football Report called "the country's finest secondary," he had 77 tackles (53 solo), six pass deflections, three interceptions, two forced fumbles, two recoveries and a blocked punt. He had 73 tackles as a junior (43 solo), with eight interceptions, five passes broken up, two caused fumbles and one recovery. He also returned punts on occasion, averaging just over 25 yards for nine career returns. Top career games included two efforts as a junior: he had seven tackles and three interceptions in a 37-0 win of Namaan Forrest, and in an overtime playoff loss to Plano, he had 17 tackles and two passes broken up. In two years on the varsity, North Mesquite was 8-2 his senior year and 7-4 his junior year under coach Steve Bragg; it lost in the first round of the playoffs both years, both times by three points in overtime. He also lettered twice in track (sprints, relays), and played two years of basketball.

Niwot, Colo. (Niwot)

2004 (Soph.)—He played in all 13 games including the Houston Bowl (no starts), seeing action at both fullback and tight end (due to injuries) as well as on special teams. He had no traditional stats on offense (rushes, receptions), but he was versatile enough to play both positions in primarily a blocking role and provide several key blocks. On special teams, he had two tackles (one solo) and a knockdown block. He had switched from tight end to fullback for spring practice, and adapted very well to the change. Primarily used as a blocker in drills, he did catch one pass (for 2 yards) in the spring game.

2003 (Fr.-RS)—He saw action in 11 games (no starts), mostly on special teams though he played occasionally in several games at tight end. He had two special team points on the year, on the strength of one knockdown block and one wedge break.

2002 (Fr.)—Redshirted; did not see any action but practiced all year at tight end. He earned the Scout Team Offense Award for the Big 12 Championship game against Oklahoma. MASON CROSBY, PK

Georgetown, Texas (Georgetown)

AT COLORADO: This Season (Jr.)—The near unanimous selection for preseason first-team All-America honors at placekicker (Athlon, Blue Ribbon Yearbook, Lindy's, Playboy, The Sporting News, Phil Steele's College Football), he is a unanimous preseason all-Big 12 selection and is one of the favorites for the Lou Groza Award. The prize selection was making the Playboy team, as he attended the men's magazine's annual All-America weekend and photo shoot in Arizona in early May. He enters his junior year already third in field goals made at Colorado (26), and is tied for 21st in scoring and is tied for sixth in kick scoring (137 points). He is 26-of-32 in field goals made, not including bowl games, 15-for-15 from 40 yards in.

2004 (Soph.)—He was the unanimous first-team All-Big 12 placekicker and one of 20 semifinalists for the Lou Groza Award, though the main All-America teams didn't throw anything his way. Rivals.com selected him as a second-team All-American and SI.com tabbed him with honorable mention status. He led the NCAA in field goals made from 50-plus yards with six (topping Ohio State's Mike Nugent, the Groza winner, who had five), and connected on 23-of-29 on the season (19-of-23 during the regular season, 4-of-6 in the bowl game). He led the Big 12 and was sixth in the nation in field goals made per game (1.77), and became just the 10th player in NCAA history to make a 60-yard or longer field goal without a tee when he nailed a 60-yarder against Iowa State, the longest in the nation in 2004. It was one of four field goals he had in CU's 19-14 win; in fact, he also had a 54-yard kick in that game, becoming the first CU player to make two of 50-plus yards in the same game. The Groza committee cited him as one of its Three Stars of the Week Award winner for his performance against the Cyclones, while he was the Colorado Chapter/NFF player of the week for the same. The five 50-plus yard kicks he made during the regular season, the first five of his career, set CU career and season marks. He scored 85 total points to lead the team, as he also had another 4-field goal game at Nebraska, and was a deadly weapon on kick-offs. Overall, he was third in the league and 34th in the nation in scoring (7.7 points per game), a number that ranked him first and sixth, respectively, in kick scoring in the Big 12 and NCAA. Including the bowl, of his 67 kickoffs, only 18 were returned (seven inside-the-20), with 48 going for touchbacks (30 through the end zone). The opponents average starting yardline after all his kicks was the 21, and just the 22 for the 18 returned. In the bowl win over Texas-El Paso, he made good on field goals from 26, 54, 37 and 20 yards with seven kickoffs going for touchbacks (with the eighth returned to just the 18). He was CU's special teams player of the week on four occasions, and the Big 12 Conference's for the Iowa State and Nebraska games. He won the Bill McCartney Award as the most outstanding special teams player as selected by the coaches for both the fall as well as for spring practice, and was one of just 10 players to earn his way on CU's prestigious Victory Club.

2003 (Fr.)—He set a Colorado record for the most points scored by a freshman with 52 (the old record of 48 was shared by two players). He was only the second true frosh to handle the placekicking chores in a CU season opener in school history, and only the fifth to see any action, period. The Big 12 Conference (and the CU coaches) honored him as the Special Teams Player of the Week for October 11, as he was 3-of-3 on PAT kicks, 3-of-3 on field goals (23, 41 and 23 yards, the latter coming with 0:14 on the clock to send the game into overtime) and kicked off for the first time collegiately, sending eight of nine kickoffs into the end zone for touchbacks (with the one that was returned going for just five yards to the Kansas 18). For the season, he made 7-of-9 field goals, as he was perfect from 44 yards in with his misses coming from 47 and 53 yards; he made 31-of-37 PAT kicks, with three of the misses coming on blocks. His long of 44 yards came in the season finale against Nebraska, while his first career make from 40 yards out against UCLA tied for the fifth longest for the first in a CU kicker's career in Buff history. He made the first five field goals of his career, one shy of the record for the most at the start of a CU career. He kicked off 37 times on the year, with 26 going for touchdowns with just 10 returned for an average starting field position for the opponent at its own 23.

HIGH SCHOOL—As a senior, he earned first-team all-district honors (13-5A) at placekicker, punter and free safety, and was all-Central Texas at kicker. PrepStar named him to its all-Midlands team, while Rivals.com ranked him as the No. 3 placekicker in the nation. He was first-team all-district and second-team all-region at kicker as a junior. As a senior, he converted 7-of-11 field goals (long of 59) and 23-of-25 extra point kicks; he owned a 39.8 average for 40 punts (61 long), with 10 inside-the-20 and five inside-the-5. He also kicked 60-plus yard field goals consistently in practice. At free safety, he had 78 tackles (26 solo), eight for losses, three interceptions, three passes broken up, three forced fumbles and two recoveries. As a junior, he made 8-of-10 field goals (52 long) and 17-of-20 PATs (all misses were blocked). He averaged 37 yards on 60 punts (64 long), with eight inside-the-20. He had 58 tackles (25 solo, 10 for losses), with three interceptions, four passes broken up, three hurries and two fumble recoveries. Top career games included a 30-20 loss to Copperas Cove as a junior, when he made three field goals (52, 46 and 39 yards) against a team that came in with five straight shutouts. In a 10-3 loss to Cedar Park his senior year, he made the longest field goal in Texas in eight years when he drilled a career-best 59-yarder; it tied him for the third longest in state history. He also had a 61-yard punt in the game. And in a 21-7 win over Round Rock as a senior, he had seven tackles and two interceptions, returning one for a touchdown and kicking the PAT following the score. Georgetown was 5-5 his senior year and 6-4 his junior season under coach Larry Moore. He also earned two letters in soccer (defense/midfielder), earning all-district honors as both a sophomore (14 goals) and junior (17 goals).

ACADEMICS—He is majoring in communication at Colorado. He was a consistent member of the “A-B” honor roll throughout high school (five out of six semesters).

PERSONAL—He was born September 3, 1984 in Lubbock, Texas. His hobbies include hunting (deer/exotic), fishing, playing basketball and hiking. Father (Jim) was a fullback at Texas-El Paso in the mid-1970s, and a grandfather (Harry Crosby) ran track at Marshall. He spent two years in Fort Collins as a youngster, and attended several CU games during that time and became a Buff fan. In high school, he was very active in his community, including local mission and church youth group work. Many kickers have interesting rituals or superstitions; his is to hit at least 60 golf balls at a driving range two days before a game.

(Thunder Ridge)

AT COLORADO: This Season (Jr.)— Enters the fall listed fourth at the “buff” (outside) linebacker spot.

2004 (Soph.)—He was to enter the fall listed third at outside linebacker, but he required knee surgery after he tore his ACL the first day of fall practice and went on to miss the entire season. He switched to outside linebacker from safety as the newly created position in CU’s defensive scheme provided a challenge for him, and the need was there for depth. He responded well to the move, as he registered 10 tackles, including five solo, one for a loss and a third down stop in the three main spring scrimmages. He had five of those tackles in the spring game despite playing with a sprained elbow.

2003 (Fr.-RS)—He did not see any game action, but dressed for eight games in all. He practiced at safety the entire year.

He played centerfield and earned honorable mention all-league honors as a senior, when TRHS went to the 5A Regionals. He also lettered in hockey as a freshman at Pueblo County.

JORDON DIZON, ILB

6-0, 215, Soph., 1L

Waimea, Hawai'i (Waimea)

AT COLORADO: This Season (Soph.)—Enters the fall tied atop the depth chart at the "will" inside linebacker position, but after his big freshman season, he'll be in the regular rotation if he doesn't wind up being the starter. Street & Smith's selected him as a preseason first-team all-Big 12 Conference performer, while Lindy's and Phil Steele's College Football tabbed him second-team and Athlon making him a third-team choice. He had a big spring, with 13 tackles (12 solo) in the three full scrimmages.

2004 (Fr.)—He enjoyed one of the finest seasons by a true freshman in school history, as he was CU's first true frosh to ever be recognized with the conference's Defensive Newcomer of the Year (Associated Press) and the Defensive Freshman of the Year (Big 12 Coaches) awards. The Sporting News and Rivals.com selected him as a second-team Freshman All-American, he earned honorable mention all-Big 12 honors from the AP, and TSN also selected him to its Freshman All-Big 12 team. Dizon led all freshmen in the conference in tackles with 82 (51 solo), which also established a CU true freshman record as he bettered the old total by some 15 stops (it was the second most tackles posted by a frosh, red-shirt or true, missing a new mark by just four). He led the team in tackles from game one through game eight, eventually finishing third overall, easily the highest ever by a true freshman at CU (two others had previously finished seventh). He also had six tackles for loss, including one sack (against Texas), seven third down stops, four passes broken up, two touchdown saves, a forced fumble and one recovery. He had two big plays out of the gate, both of his touchdown saves: in the opener against Colorado State, he stuffed former Buff Marcus Houston at the 1-yard line on a second-and-goal run with less than 30 seconds remaining in a 27-24 Buff victory, and a week later at Washington State, he tackled quarterback Alex Brink at the 2, forcing a fumble that teammate Matt McChesney recovered with five seconds to go to preserve the 20-12 win. He had eight tackles in the opener (6 solo, along with a caused interception), and his 13 (9 solo) against WSU were the second most in a single-game by a CU true freshman. He had 10 stops (7 solo) against Texas and nine versus Missouri as he had at least four tackles in every game, five-plus in 10 games and six or more in eight contests. On special teams duty, he racked up seven points on the strength of four knockdown blocks on returns and two assisted tackles, one inside-the-20. When he reported to camp, the coaches had no idea what position he would play; they thought running back or safety would be his first home, but five days into drills after a trial at linebacker, it was evident that he was something special at the position. He would become the first true freshman to start a season opener at inside linebacker in school history, and he went on to start 11 games including the Houston Bowl (he played in all 13), tied for the most starts ever by a true freshman at Colorado. In the bowl win over UTEP, he had three solo tackles and a fumble recovery, the latter coming on the Miner's first possession of the second half and led to a CU field goal. He won the Lee Willard Award, presented by the coaches, as the team's most outstanding freshman, only the third inside linebacker to ever win the honor.

HIGH SCHOOL—As a senior, he was a Prep Football Report and PrepStar All-West regional team member, earning second-team all-state and Kauai Interscholastic Federation (KIF) All-Star honors. PFR ranked him as the No. 65 player in the region and the third ranked running back, calling him "potentially the top fullback on the west coast," while Rivals.com ranked him as the No. 8 running back prospect nationally. He earned second-team all-state honors both as a sophomore and junior, when he was also selected as the KIF most valuable player. He was injured most of the regular season his senior year, rushing once for a 12 yard touchdown run but catching nine passes for 250 yards and three scores in just over two games (he played in four preseason games and rushed for about 600 yards). As a junior, he rushed 150 times for 1,157 yards and 13 touchdowns, with a long of 84, while catching 15 passes for 175 yards. He started at linebacker on defense and was in on 75 tackles. He also handled some of the punting chores in high school, and in the state semifinal as a junior, he pinned four punts inside-the-10 yardline. Top games: in a 55-0 win over Kapaa as a junior, he rushed for 37 times for 376 yards and five touchdowns; in a 42-35 win over Hawaii Prep Academy as a senior, he had 40 rushes for 315 yards and five scores; and in a win over Woodbridge his senior year, he had 33 carries for 275 yards and four TDs. Waimea was 6-2 his senior year and 6-1 his junior and sophomore seasons under coach Liko Pereira (not including preseason games), losing in the state semifinals all three seasons. He also lettered four times in basketball (forward), was a three-time Player of the Year/Island (KIF), as well as a three-time honorable mention all-state performer. He also lettered three times in track (sprints, the 100-meter KIF champion as a junior), and once in soccer.

ACADEMICS—He is undecided on his major at Colorado, but is interested in engineering or business management. He was an honor roll member every quarter in high school, with his grade point average always at 3.5 or higher.

As a junior, he made 7-of-12 field goals (55 long) along with 61-of-67 PAT kicks. He was in on 50 tackles on defense (30 solo), with two pass deflections. KYLE GRIFFITH, ILB

6-2, 205, Sr., 3L

Broomfield, Colo. (Broomfield)

AT COLORADO: This Season (Sr.)—Enters the fall listed fourth at the “will” inside linebacker spot, but should again be a key special teams performer.

2004 (Jr.)—He played in all 12 regular season games (special teams duty only), but was ill and sat out the Houston Bowl. He had one tackle on special teams coverage duty, that coming inside-the-20 to give him two points for the year. The coaches placed him on scholarship following fall camp, as his dedication to special teams play and overall practicing habits in general earned him the honor. He missed all of spring practice as he suffered from chronic active hepatitis, which robbed him of his strength; most of the symptoms cleared by the end of May and he had regained his strength and the weight he lost by the end of June. He decided to switch back to defense (from fullback) during the off-season.

2003 (Soph.)—He started the fall at strong safety and switched the fullback after the season started, but the vast majority of his action came on special teams. In playing in all 12 games, he finished second in special team points with 11 on the strength of seven tackles (two inside the 20), with two knockdown blocks. He had an impressive spring, racking up 15 tackles (seven solo) in three major spring scrimmages, adding two sacks for 19 yards and a pair of pass deflections.

2002 (Fr.)—He joined the team as a recruited walk-on for August drills, and soon established himself as a gritty performer on special teams. He played in the last nine games of the season, and finished the year with two tackles and one knockdown, earning himself three special team points. He was one of three true freshmen walk-ons to play in 2002, but they are in a group of only four who have done so dating back to 1986.

HIGH SCHOOL—He lettered three times in football at Broomfield, as he garnered second team all-conference (Skyline) honors his senior year. He finished the season with 52 total tackles (32 solo) including six for loss, four sacks, two fumble recoveries, one forced fumble, one pass deflection and one interception. Broomfield was 13-1 his senior season, winning the league championship and advancing to the 4A state title game, and was 12-2 his junior year (league titleists) under coach Gary Davies. He also lettered twice in baseball as a catcher and leftfielder.

ACADEMICS—He is majoring in business (finance) at Colorado. He earned second-team Academic All-Big 12 honors as a junior.

He hails from the same high school that produced recent Buff graduate Kory Mossoni; coincidentally they both played the same position, and Mossoni tutored him his freshman season. After college, he has aspirations of on owning his own business someday.

Limon, Colo. (Limon)

AT COLORADO: This Season (Sr.)—He enters the fall atop the depth chart at free safety. Athlon selected him as a third-team member of its preseason all-Big 12 team, and he is one of 42 candidates on the preseason watch list for the inaugural Ronnie Lott Trophy. He missed the last half of spring drills due to an injured knee; though a severe sprain, it did not require surgery and he was expected to be 100 percent for fall camp.

2004 (Jr.)—He saw the first game scrimmage action of his career, earning the reputation of almost always being in the right position to make the play as he saw time at mainly free safety but had some snaps on the string side as well. He played in all 13 games, with five starts including the Houston Bowl, with his first start coming in a win against Iowa State. In 10 games on defense, he saw action for 473 snaps from scrimmage and racked up 28 tackles (15 solo), with two for losses. He also had four third down stops, three passes broken up and an interception (he returned it 23 yards against Kansas State that set up a CU field goal). He had a career-high seven tackles, with two solo, in the Big 12 title game against Oklahoma, and he had six in the two wins leading up to the game, against K-State (five solo) and at Nebraska (four unassisted). He capped off the year by being named the most valuable player on defense in the 33-28 win over UTEP in the bowl game, as he had two interceptions, four tackles (all solo), two third down stops and a pass deflection. One pick led to a missed field goal try early in the third quarter, with the other coming with 11:10 remaining and the Miners at the CU47; it set up the winning points, as six plays later, the Buffs went ahead for good. He was the team leader in special team points, as he won the annual competition with 13 on the strength of six tackles (four solo, two inside-the-20), three knockdown blocks, a recovered onside kick and an interception to thwart a 2-point PAT try by Nebraska. He had eight tackles (all solo) in the three main spring scrimmages.

2003 (Soph.)—He played in six games on special teams only, the first five and the finale as he missed six games with a hand injury. He had one knockdown block on return unit duty. He had five tackles, including three solo and a third down stop at his new position in the three main scrimmages.

2002 (Fr.-RS)—He was to be moved to receiver (from quarterback) for spring practice, but he injured a knee in conditioning in February and did not participate in drills. He was 100 percent by August, and made the move then; he dressed for nine games, but did not see any action.

2001 (Fr.)—Redshirted; he practiced at quarterback the entire fall.

HIGH SCHOOL—He was the recipient of the 30th annual Fred Steinmark High School Athlete of the Year Award, presented by the Rocky Mountain News (one of the state's most prestigious prep honors). As a junior, he completed 55-of-130 passes for 1,101 yards and nine scores, and threw for 850 yards as a sophomore. One of his top games came against Cherry Creek in Grandview's first year of 5A competition when he was a sophomore: in a 24-14 win, he had three receptions for 20 yards and had seven tackles and one sack. It was none other than current CU offensive tackle Tyler Polumbus that Jones beat off the edge to earn that sack, but Jones admits that Polumbus "got him pretty good a few times" in that game. A two-time all-district performer in both baseball (.375 average with four home runs and 16 stolen bases as a junior) and basketball (guard; 22 points per game as a junior), earning three letters in both sports.

ACADEMICS—He is majoring in psychology at Colorado. He was an honor roll student as a junior and senior in high school.

EVAN JUDGE, WR

6-2, 215, Sr., 3L
Scottsdale, Ariz. (Chaparral)

AT COLORADO: This Season (Sr.)—Enters the fall as CU's starter at the “X” receiver spot. He missed the last portion of spring ball with an ankle sprain, but he was healed by May. He enters his senior year ranked 67th in all-time receptions at Colorado with 29, and he's poised to crack the top 100 in career receiving yards with 339.

2004 (Jr.)—He started 11 games including the Houston Bowl at the “X” receiver position and played in 11 overall, as he missed the Nebraska game due to a viral infection that affected his platelet count. He led the team in receptions with 29, which he gathered in for 336 yards and 3 TDs, as he became a favorite and reliable target for the quarterbacks. Judge made some history with his season, as he became only the second walk-on or former walk-on to lead the team in receiving (Jeff Campbell did so in 1988), and his 29 receptions are the 67th most all-time at Colorado but the most-ever by walk-on, topping Campbell's 28. Only he and Campbell are walk-ons to have accumulated in excess of 200 receiving yards as well (Campbell had 802). Judge had 17 catches of 10 or more yards and six of 20 or longer, the latter tying for the most on the team, and earned 21 first downs (20 receiving, 1 rushing on a lateral pass called a run). He caught at least one pass in 10 games and had two or more in seven contests with a high of six (for 50 yards against Oklahoma State). He had five catches for 82 yards and a TD against North Texas, and at Texas A&M, he caught two passes for 39 yards, both for touchdowns, the only multiple TD game by a CU receiver on the year. In the 33-28 win over UTEP in the bowl game, he caught what proved to be a game-winning 39-yard touchdown pass from Joel Klatt with 8:43 remaining; he had two catches for 50 yards in the contest. Six of his eight third down receptions earned first downs, while seven of his 10 grabs on first down did the same.

2003 (Soph.)—He saw action in all 12 games, mainly on special teams, but in a few games at receiver. He did not make any receptions, and he had one knockdown block on return team duty. He was placed on scholarship during the second week of August camp, as the coaches rewarded him particularly for his dedication on special teams. He had six catches for 148 yards a touchdown in the three main spring scrimmages, his long play a 53-yard scoring grab from Erik Greenberg.

2002 (Fr.-RS)—He played in all 14 games, including the Alamo Bowl, on the punt return unit on special teams. He registered CU's only blocked punt of the year, when he beat his man off the edge and got a block against USC in the third quarter. He was credited with a four-yard punt return on the play. In the spring, he had three catches (for 23 yards) in CU's three main scrimmages.

2001 (Fr.)—Redshirted; practiced the entire fall at receiver. He was CU's Scout Team Offense Award winner for the Colorado State game.

HIGH SCHOOL—As a senior, he earned first-team all-region, all-city and all-East Valley honors, in addition to being selected third-team all-state. He caught 32 passes for 700 yards (21.8 per catch) and 12 touchdowns as a senior, with a long grab of 96 yards (a school record). He set numerous other records his senior year, including most receiving yards and touchdowns for a single game and season and the most punts blocked in a game and season (two and four). As a junior, when he was second-team all-region, he caught nine passes for 200 yards and one touchdown. As a freshman, he had 33 tackles (12 for losses) playing defensive tackle, and averaged 23 yards on three kickoff returns. He lettered three time for coach Ron Estabrook, as Chaparral was 14-0 his junior and senior years, claiming the state, region and city championships. In fact, his class posted a 44-0 record during his years as a prep. He also lettered twice in basketball (forward), averaging 10 points, seven rebounds and five assists as a senior when he earned second-team all-city and second-team all-region honors. He was a McDonald's High School All-American nominee as a senior.

ACADEMICS—He is majoring in business management at Colorado. He earned first-team Academic All-Big 12 team honors as a sophomore in 2003, and second-team honors as a junior in 2004 and a redshirt frosh in '02), and is a four-time member of the Big 12 Commissioner's Honor Roll. He won many academic awards in high school, and was a perennial honor roll member.

PERSONAL—Born October 2, 1982 in Grand Haven, Mich. Hobbies include sports and watching television; he's also coached a YMCA youth basketball team.

TAJ KAYNOR, DE
6-5, 260, Fr., HS
Englewood, Colo. (Cherry Creek)

AT COLORADO: This Season (Fr.)—He is projected as a defensive end as a true freshman.

HIGH SCHOOL—As a senior, he was named All-Midlands by PrepStar, as well as earning all-Centennial League honors and honorable mention all-state (5A) accolades by the Denver Post. He had 95 tackles (50 solo), 20 tackles for loss, seven quarterback sacks, three forced fumbles, two fumble recoveries, 13 quarterback hurries and 15 passes broken up. In his junior season, he recorded 85 tackles, eight sacks, two forced fumbles, two fumble recoveries and 12 pass breakups. He played on both the offensive and defensive lines as a freshman and sophomore. His top prep games included a 24-22 win over Columbine as a senior, when he made 14 tackles along with causing a fumble, recovering another and one pass deflection; against Mullen the same year, he had 12 tackles, two quarterback sacks and one pass knockdown in a 21-6 loss; and he recorded 10 tackles against Grandview in a 24-17 win, including two sacks and two pass breakups. Under coach Tim Flanagan, the Bruins were 12-2 his senior year, losing to Mullen in the 5A State Championship game, and his junior year, Creek went 7-4 and lost in the opening round of the playoffs; his position coach was Greg Critchett and all told, Creek was 40-11 during his prep career. He lettered three times in basketball, averaging 10 points and 12 rebounds per game as a junior; he did not play as a senior so he could gain weight and concentrate his efforts on football.

ACADEMICS—He is undecided on his major at Colorado, but is interested in business.

PERSONAL—He was born April 17, 1986 in Salt Lake City, Utah. His hobbies include music and playing most sports. He moved to Colorado from Utah when he was a 4-year-old, and quickly became a Buffalo fan (First name is pronounced similar to Taj Mahal, or todge with a silent "D.")

JOEL KLATT, QB
6-1, 210, Sr., 3L
Arvada, Colo. (Pomona)

AT COLORADO: This Season (Sr.)—CU's starting quarterback, with 22 career starts at the position (12-10), the 10th most at CU by a signal-caller; he could tie for the most if he starts 13 games this fall. An honorable mention preseason All-American by Street & Smith's (he's also on the FWAA's modest checklist), he should also be both a Davey O'Brien and Johnny Unitas award candidate; Phil Steele's College Football ranked him as the No. 22 QB in the nation. He won the inaugural Eddie Crowder Award this past spring, presented by the CU coaches for outstanding leadership. He has a chance to take over almost all of the school's major passing records, as he enters his senior season at Colorado fifth all-time in passing yards (4,679), second in attempts (695) and completions (425), first in completion percentage (61.2), fifth in touchdown passes (30) and tied for sixth in interceptions (25); he's also seventh in total offense (4,546). His career completion percentage of 61.9 (including bowls) is currently the 12th best among active NCAA quarterbacks, while his 208.8 yards per game is 16th and his efficiency rating of 127.7 is 25th. He has 10 career 200-yard passing games, five of which have exceeded 300 yards (Koy Detmer holds the school record of six). He has seven career fourth quarter comebacks to win or tie games: 2003 vs. Colorado State (tie to W); 2003 vs. UCLA (trailed to W); 2003 vs. Kansas (trailed, sent into and won in OT); 2004 vs. Colorado State (tie to W); 2004 at Texas A&M (trailed to OT loss); 2004 vs. Kansas State (tie to W); and in the 2004 Houston Bowl vs. UTEP (trailed to W).

2004 (Jr.)—He started 12 games including the Houston Bowl and played in all 13 (he came off the bench against Iowa State), as he continued to zoom up CU's charts in every statistic for a quarterback. He struggled at times as offensive line developed chemistry, and while he didn't have the same numbers he posted as a sophomore, he still put up some decent statistics. He completed 192-of-334 passes (57.5%) for 2,065 yards and nine touchdowns, but threw 15 interceptions, the second most in a single-season at Colorado. It was the 10th time a quarterback threw for 2,000 yards in a season for CU, the second time for Klatt; in fact, only five players have accomplished the feat: Kordell Stewart did it three times, Klatt, John Hessler and Mike Moschetti twice and Koy Detmer once. He set eight school records, including attempts (334), completions (192) and completions in a game (26) by a junior, and his 196 yards passing and total offense in the second quarter against North Texas set record for the most of each in quarter by any player. He completed 26-of-33 passes for 371 yards against UNT, with the 78.8 completion percentage for the game setting school marks for 20, 25 and 30 attempts in a game. He also passed for over 200 yards on three other occasions: he had 346 at Texas A&M and 222 at Nebraska; the other came against UTEP in the Houston Bowl, when he was named the game's offensive MVP. In that one, he completed 24-of-33 passes for 333 yards and two scores. Against A&M, he recorded his first career reception (18 yards on a throwback from Bernard Jackson). A two-time selection by the coaches as the team's offensive back of the week (North Texas, Texas A&M). He was on the official watch list for the Davey O'Brien Award (one of 42 candidates), and Street & Smith's selected him as an honorable mention preseason All-American. He was placed on full scholarship in January, the earliest allowed by the NCAA due to situational issues, after being a walk-on for his first two seasons on the team.

2003 (Soph.)—In earning honorable mention all-Big 12 honors from the league coaches, he set 19 school records and tied one more in being named the newcomer of the year in the state by the Colorado Chapter of the National Football Foundation and College Football Hall of Fame. He was the John Mack Award winner for CU's outstanding offensive player as selected by the coaches, won the Best Interview Award as selected by the school's beat media, and was CU's offensive back of the week for four games (CSU, UCLA, Kansas and Iowa State). For the year, he completed 233-of-358 passes for 2,614 yards and 21 touchdowns, setting school marks for attempts and completions while throwing the second most TD passes in a single year in becoming the third Buff to throw for over 2,500 yards in a season. His 65.1 completion percentage set school records for every 50 pass increment over 100 attempts, and he was consistent across the board, completing 65.4 percent on first down, 66.1 on second down and 63.5 on third and fourth down (48 of 66 third and fourth down completions earned first downs). He had 426 total plays, also a school record, for 2,523 yards, the sixth most in school annals. He earned 128 first downs (11 rush, 117 pass) as he led the Buffs to 41 scores in 122 drives he engineered. He threw for 200 or more yards six times and completed over 52.0 percent of his passes in all but one game (Baylor, when he was 3-of-8, also the lone game he did not have at least one touchdown pass). He scored one touchdown rushing (against Kansas), as he rushed 39 times for 97 yards when not accounting for sacks. He enjoyed perhaps one of the best debuts as a starting quarterback in Colorado history, if not NCAA history in CU's 42-35 win over Colorado State in Denver. He completed 21-of-34 passes for 402 yards and four touchdowns (and no interceptions), in posting a single-game quarterback rating of 199.9, the second best rating in CU history for a game with 30 or more attempts. The 402 yards passing tied for the sixth most in a single game in school history at the time (he topped it with 419 against Kansas), and were the third most in a starting debut, bested only by Koy Detmer's 418 against Oklahoma and Kordell Stewart's 409 against Colorado State—both coming in 1992. It was also the first 300-yard passing game by a Buff quarterback since 2001 and the first 400-yard effort since Mike Moschetti set the school record with 465 against San Jose State in 1999, with his four touchdown passes marking just the ninth time in school annals that many had been thrown in a single game. He also led the Buffs to a pair of touchdowns in the two-minute drill: he tossed a 45-yard scoring strike to John Donahoe with 29 seconds left in the first half, and then engineered a 6-play, 75-yard drive that led to the winning score with 0:40 left in the game. He garnered all kinds of honors for his effort against the Rams, as The Sporting News, SI.com and college-footballnews.com cited him as the National Player of the Week with the Big 12 Conference naming him its Offensive Player of the Week. Prior to suffering a shoulder injury against Washington State, he put together a streak of 92 consecutive passes without an interception—the sixth longest in school history—with the skein snapped on his first throw in his next game, in the fourth quarter at Baylor in an attempt to rally CU to victory. After missing two starts (Florida State, Baylor) with a sprained shoulder, he returned with a vengeance in throwing for 419 yards over Kansas. In setting CU single-game records for attempts (54) and completions (38), he led the Buffs to a third game winning or tying drive in the fourth quarter, completing 4-of-6 passes for 56 yards and ran for six more on CU's 11-play, 89-yard drive that led to Mason Crosby's 23-yard field goal. His two 400-plus yard games represent the fourth and fifth most passing yards in a game by a walk-on (or former walk-on) in NCAA Division I history. Against No. 1 Oklahoma, he completed 24-of-33 passes for 187 yards and three touchdowns, with his 72.7 completion percentage the fifth best in school history in a game where a QB attempted 30 or more passes. He had entered the fall slightly ahead in the battle to be the starting quarterback, and the coaches named him such just after the midway point of camp. He had a good spring running CU's offense, and was really adept at limiting mistakes (he threw just one interception and didn't take a sack in the three main spring scrimmages).

2002 (Fr.)—He played in three games, against Baylor late in some mop-up duty at quarterback, and in two others (Missouri, Iowa State) on the punt return team as a rusher/blocker. He threw three passes against the Bears, all falling incomplete. He was one of 11 "recruited" walk-ons that joined the team for August camp; he became one of three true freshmen walk-ons to play in 2002, but they are in a group of only four who have done so dating back to 1986. He was the Scout Team Offense Award winner for the Colorado State game.

PROFESSIONAL BASEBALL—He played two seasons of minor league baseball, and was in spring training in 2001 and 2002 with the San Diego Padres. He was selected as a third baseman by the Padres with their 11th round pick of the 2000 amateur baseball draft, and joined Class A Peoria that summer, where he led the team in doubles with 12, as he batted .209 with one home run and 15 runs batted in. He was with Idaho Falls in 2001 (2 HR, 10 RBI, 3 SB) and would have been on the Eugene roster in 2002 had he stayed with baseball. He reported to spring training, but told himself that if he didn't land on the Fort Wayne team (high A-ball) and would have to remain in Arizona for extended spring training, he would give college football a try. Klatt's former minor league baseball teammate, Jake Peavy, claimed the 2004 earned run average title in major league baseball. A pitcher with the San Diego Padres, he finished with a 15-6 record and 2.27 ERA; the two spent two spring trainings together in the Padres organization (2000, 2001) and were teammates in A-ball at one juncture.

HIGH SCHOOL—He was a two-time, first-team all-Jefferson County performer at quarterback, earning second-team all-state honors as a senior. As a senior, he completed 78-of-125 passes (62.4%) for 1,250 yards and 16 touchdowns. On defense as a junior, he had four interceptions playing in the secondary. Pomona was 5-5 his senior year and 10-3 his junior year, winning the Jefferson County league championship, under coach Gary Klatt (his father). He also lettered three times in basketball (guard), earning second-team all-conference honors as a senior. In baseball, as primarily a shortstop, he earned first-team all-state and all-conference honors as a senior, helping PHS to a runner-up finish in the state tournament. He set several school records, including ones for home runs (10), runs batted in (46), slugging percentage (1.126) and hits (52). He also set three summer school records, in homers (26), RBI's (99) and in slugging (1.147).

ACADEMICS—He is majoring in economics at Colorado.

PERSONAL—He was born February 4, 1982 in Arvada, Colo. Hobbies include playing golf (he breaks 80 with regularity), is learning the guitar and being an avid Boston Red Sox fan. An older brother (Jason) played collegiate and minor league baseball. He married the former Sara Ordway this past May.

JOE KLOPFENSTEIN, TE

6-6, 245, Sr., 3L

Aurora, Colo. (Grandview)

AT COLORADO: This Season (Sr.)—CU's starting tight end and a legitimate candidate for the John Mackey Award as well as All-America honors. Street & Smith's and nationalchamps.net both cited him as an honorable mention preseason All-American (and he's one of a just a handful on the FWAA checklist), while he was virtually all the preseason publications choice for either first- or second-team all-Big 12 honors. The Sporting News ranked him as the No. 15 tight end in the nation, with Phil Steele's College Football tabbing him at No. 20. He won the Fred Casotti Award in the spring as the outstanding offensive back as selected by the coaching staff. He was the overall strength and conditioning champion for the "Explosion" group (TE, LB, FB, DS) with 66 points, owning a group bests of 403 pounds in the bench press and a 38-inch vertical jump, along with impressive showings in the standing long jump (10-0 feet), the 40-yard dash (4.53, which was sixth best on the team), the squat (504 lbs.), the power clean (315 lbs.) and incline (347 lbs.). He enters his senior season ranked high on several all-time Colorado career lists, as he is tied for 33rd in receptions (48), tied for 58th in receiving yards (474) and is tied for 15th in receiving TDs (8); those same numbers rank him eighth, 12th and fourth among tight ends.

2004 (Jr.)—He played in all 13 games with 12 starts, including the Houston Bowl (deferring to senior Jesse Wallace for his final home game), and earned second-team all-Big 12 honors from the league coaches and honorable mention accolades from the Associated Press. His best game of the year came at the best time—in CU's 33-28 win over Texas-El Paso in the bowl game, he caught five passes for 134 yards and a touchdown—earned all-bowl team honors from ESPN.com. The touchdown he had against the Miners was a 78-yard catch and run effort where he shook the safety at midfield and ran away from all other defenders for what would be the longest reception by a tight end in school history (by some 21 yards). He tied for the second most receptions on the team, as he caught 28 passes for 284 yards and four touchdowns. He caught at least one pass in 11 games (shutout only against No. 2 Oklahoma), and had two or more in eight games and three or more in five contests. Numbers-wise, his top game came against North Texas, when he caught six passes for 67 yards and two touchdowns. He also had four grabs for 48 yards at Texas A&M, including a pair of key receptions on CU's go-ahead touchdown drive with 1:05 left; one was a terrific one-handed snare and the other brought CU to the 1-yard line (both were 11 yards in length). A 45-yard pass from James Cox against Texas was his long play of the season, and the third longest overall by the Buffaloes on the year. He earned CU's offensive lineman of the week for two games (North Texas and Nebraska). Street & Smith's cited him as a preseason honorable mention All-American, while The Sporting News ranked him as the No. 4 tight end in the nation.

2003 (Soph.)—He played in 11 games, including 10 starts as he had a breakout-type season (he missed the Texas Tech road trip with a bad case of the flu, which also kept him from starting the following week against Missouri). He had entered the fall listed third at tight end, but between a combination of his development and injuries at the position, he ascended to starting status for the season opener against Colorado State. In earning honorable mention all-Big12 Conference honors from both the Associated Press and the league coaches, he caught 20 passes for 190 yards, four touchdowns and eight first downs on the season, catching at least one pass in nine games and two or more in six contests. His reception best was five against UCLA (for 25 yards), with his yardage best being 63 yards on three receptions versus Kansas (including his season long, 48 yards, which went for a score). His two touchdowns against Washington State marked the first time a CU tight end caught two in a game since Nov. 9, 1996, when Brody Heffner Liddiard had a pair in a 49-42 win over Iowa State. He had a solid spring, as he led all players on offense with 11 receptions; he averaged 12.5 yards per catch (137 yards) and caught two touchdown passes.

2002 (Fr.)—He saw action in seven regular season games, but did not catch any passes.

HIGH SCHOOL—As a senior, he earned PrepStar All-America honors, with the publication ranking him as the No. 6 tight end in its Midlands region. Student Sports ranked him as the No. 20 tight end in the country, with Rivals.com ranking No. 27. Prep Football Report and SuperPrep both named him to their All-Midlands teams, and closer to home, he earned first-team all-state (Rocky Mountain News) and all-Grand Peaks League honors at defensive end. He was second team all-league at linebacker as a junior, and was an honorable mention all-league performer at the position as a sophomore. As a senior, he played slot-back, rushing 16 times for 103 yards and catching 10 passes for 130 yards a touchdown. He had 53 tackles on defense (21 solo), with 14 for losses including eight quarterback sacks, seven quarterback pressures and three passes broken up. He had 50 tackles as a junior (12 TFL's, seven sacks), five hurries and a forced fumble, and 45 tackles with four sacks, a forced fumble and a recovery as a sophomore. He played guard on offense as sophomore and junior, and played quarterback as a freshman. He also handled placement kicks on occasion (usually field goals) and kicked off as well. Top games his senior year came against Broomfield (five catches for 50 yards and a touchdown, 12 tackles and a sack on defense in a 38-14 win) and versus George Washington (2-30 receiving, 15 tackles, including three sacks). Grandview was 9-2 his senior year, advancing to the state playoffs, and was 7-3 his junior and 3-7 his sophomore year under coach Rocky Whitworth. He also lettered once in baseball (first baseman) and in track (ran the 200 and relays as a senior).

ACADEMICS—He is majoring in sociology at Colorado. He was an honor roll student in high school.

He ran the second fastest 40-yard dash time on the team (4.38) in spring conditioning tests.

2004 (Soph.)—He enjoyed a breakout season, especially over the last eight games. He played in all 13 games, including the Houston Bowl, with his first two career starts (against Nebraska and Oklahoma when starter Evan Judge was first ill and then not at 100 percent). He was fifth on the team in receptions, as he caught 26 passes for a team-high 417 yards, 16.0 per catch, with one touchdown.  San Francisco, Calif. (Lowell/
 City College of San Francisco)

AT COLORADO: This Season (Jr.)—Enters the fall as the backup at center, but with CU facing some depth issues on the offensive line, he will likely see some practice time if not game action at guard. He enrolled at CU in time for the spring semester and thus participated in spring drills.

A first-team all-NorCal Conference performer during those years under coach George Rush, he started all 24 games and helped lead the Rams to a combined two-year record of 23-1. HIGH SCHOOL—He lettered three years in football playing on the offensive line and at defensive tackle. Very impressively, he never gave up a sack during his entire three-year varsity career, as he was a team captain in 2001 and 2002, while also being named the team's outstanding lineman both seasons. As a senior, he garnered first-team all-metro and all-city accolades to help pave the way for Lowell's 342 yards per game rushing average; in addition, he only committed two penalties. On defense he racked up 63 tackles (42 solo), including 18 for losses, with 6.5 sacks, two fumble recoveries, four forced fumbles and two pass breakups. During his junior campaign he was an all-city selection once again, committing only five penalties; he also totaled 26 stops (14 solo), nine tackles for loss, with 3.5 sacks, three fumble recoveries, three forced fumbles and two pass deflections. He earned all-city honorable mention honors as a sophomore for his O-line play, as well. The top highlights of his prep career include going undefeated in league play his senior year, and winning the 2002 city championship game 52-23 over Carlmont. In that contest, MacMartin helped clear a path for his tailback to gain 286 yards and score six touchdowns. Under coach Jason Krolkowski, Lowell was 11-1 his senior year and captured the 2002 league and city championships. His team finished 7-4 his junior season and went 6-5 during his sophomore campaign. That same year, he played baseball for the first time in his life, earning a letter in leading Thurston with 35 stolen bases. He lettered in track for the first time as a senior (sprints, relays).

ACADEMICS—He is undecided on his major at Colorado. He was an honor roll student with a 3.0 grade point average in high school.

PERSONAL—He was born February 10, 1986 in Detroit, Mich. Hobbies include lifting weights, video games and studying the game of football, especially on film. He also spends much of his free time refereeing youth basketball. An uncle (Grady Burton) played quarterback with the N.Y. Jets during the late 1970s. His father's best friend is John "Frenchy" Fuqua, the Pittsburgh Steeler who was the original target of Terry Bradshaw on the "Immaculate Reception" play against Oakland in 1972. He has lost six close friends to tragic circumstances since 2002.

AT COLORADO: This Season (Soph.)—Enters the fall listed second at one of the cornerback positions and should be CU's top return man for both punts and kickoffs. Athlon Sports selected him as a preseason second-team all-Big 12 Conference punt returner.

2004 (Fr.-RS)—He earned second-team all-Big 12 honors at kick return specialist from the league coaches, as he was eighth in the conference in punt returns and 10th in kickoff returns. He played in all 13 games on special teams and in two on defense (seven snaps, recording a solo tackle and a pass deflection). He returned 35 punts for 269 yards for a 7.7 average and a touchdown; however, the average was misleading as he often caught balls in traffic without signaling for a fair catch just so he could pickup even a single yard to help with field position (14 of his returns were in this fashion for a net 13 yards; he averaged 12.2 yards on the other 21 returns). The 35 returns were the third most punt returns for a single-season in school history and the most since 1992. He also had 15 kickoff returns for 269 yards (a 17.9 average) with a long of 27. He tied for sixth in special team points with eight on the strength of three solo tackles, two fumble recoveries, a forced fumble, a touchdown save and a first downfield credit. He was the Big 12 Special Teams Player of the Week (as well as CU's) for the Kansas game, when he had 98 return yards, including his first career punt return for a touchdown; his 48-yard sprint for a score put CU ahead for good late in the third quarter in the 30-21 win. He had two returns (for 2 yards) in the bowl win over UTEP. He moved from wide receiver to cornerback during fall camp to bolster the depth in the secondary. He missed most of spring practice after suffering a hamstring pull the third day of drills.

2003 (Fr.)—Redshirted; practiced all season at wide receiver and returned kicks on scout team duty. He was the Scout Team Offense Award winner for the Kansas State game.

HIGH SCHOOL—As a senior, he earned all-Midlands honors from PrepStar, Prep Football Report and SuperPrep, as PFR ranked him as the No. 18 player in the region (the second receiver), and SuperPrep tabbing him No. 36 regionally (and as the third WR). Rivals.com ranked him as the No. 27 receiver in the nation, and called him "arguably the top prospect in Colorado." He also garnered all-Colorado (all classes) and all-state (5A) honors from both the Denver Post and Rocky Mountain News. A two-time first-team all-Centennial League pick, he was also first team all-Colorado and all-state as a junior. A four-year starter at wide receiver, as a senior, he caught 35 passes for 896 yards and eight scores, averaging 25.6 yards per catch, and including his kick return yardage, he accounted for over 1,600 all-purpose yards despite missing the better part of four games with a sprained ankle. As a junior, he led the state in receiving with 73 catches for 1,230 yards and 10 touchdowns, while returning four kicks (two punts, two kickoffs) for touchdowns. He averaged over 18 yards per punt return and 30-plus yards on kickoff returns. He caught 20 passes his sophomore year, six for scores, and he had 19 receptions as a freshman. He saw some brief time on defense as a junior (safety/cornerback), making around 25 tackles in four games. Mullen posted a 40-11 record during his time there; the Mustangs were 10-2 his senior year and 9-4 his junior season under coach Jay Madden, and were 11-2 his sophomore year (reaching the state semis) and 10-3 his freshman year under Mick McCall. He also lettered two years in basketball (guard) and twice in track (sprints and relays).

ACADEMICS—He is majoring in sociology at Colorado. He was a member of the French Honor Society in high school, when he owned a 3.57 grade point average and was one of 11 statewide honorees to receive the prestigious National Football Foundation/College Football Hall of Fame Scholar-Athlete Award.

PERSONAL—He was born December 31, 1984 in Denver. His hobbies include playing basketball, listening to music and lifting weights. An uncle (Thadus Swazer) played college football, starting out at Colorado in 1992 and finishing up at Kansas State. (First name is pronounced "steph-on".)

DANIEL SANDERS, OL6-3, 285, Fr., RS
Vista, Calif. (El Camino)

AT COLORADO: This Season (Fr.-RS)—Enters the fall listed as the back-up to both the split and tight guard positions, as with a lack of experienced offensive line depth, the opportunity is there for him to get some quality reps, both in practice and potentially in games.

2004 (Fr.)—Redshirted; he did not see any action but practiced as an offensive lineman the entire fall. He was the Scout Team Offense Award winner for the Texas A&M game as selected by the coaching staff.

HIGH SCHOOL—A three-year letterman who played all three positions on the offensive line during his prep career. He played both guard and center as a senior, when he led his team with 112 pancake blocks, as well as in cut blocks and big hits by an offensive lineman. He did not allow a quarterback sack, and the only penalty he was called for was an illegal procedure for rolling the ball over to grab the laces to snap it. As a junior, he played tackle in starting the five games he played in, but he missed seven others with a broken bone in his foot. He played guard as a sophomore, ascending into the starting lineup for the last three games of the year. Top games his senior year came in a 31-24 win over Valley Center, when he had 15 pancakes and three touchdown blocks in helping his team rush for 430 yards, and in a 29-28 loss to Carlsbad, when he switched off between center and guard the entire game in piling up 14 pancakes. El Camino was 3-7 his senior year, 6-6 his junior season and 7-4 his sophomore campaign under coach Herb Meyer. He lettered four times in track, participating in throws (career best of 50-1 in the shot put and 130-0 in the discus). He was seventh in the CIF meet in the shot put as a junior.

ACADEMICS—He is interested in business management as his major at Colorado. A two-time member of the San Diego Union-Tribune All-Academic team as a junior and senior as well as a consistent member of the honor roll in high school with a 3.21 grade point average.

PERSONAL—He was born February 3, 1986 in Oceanside, Calif. Hobbies include playing basketball, working out and going to the beach. A cousin (Kurt Rubin) played football at Cal-Poly San Luis Obispo.

JOE SANDERS, ILB6-3, 220, Soph., 1L
Nashville, Tenn. (Hillsboro)

AT COLORADO: This Season (Soph.)—Enters the fall listed second on the depth chart at the “mike” inside linebacker position. He had a good spring, with eight tackles (three for losses) and a fumble recovery in the three full scrimmages. He ran the fifth fastest 40-yard dash time on the team (4.52) in spring conditioning tests.

2004 (Fr.-RS)—He played in all 13 games including the Houston Bowl (no starts), seven on defense and in all on special teams. In 74 snaps from scrimmage, he had nine tackles (five solo, one for a loss) and an interception, one of the biggest plays of the year for the Buffs. Subbing for a nicked up Brian Iwuh, he played 36 snaps at Washington State, where with 10 minutes left and CU ahead 10-6, he made his first career interception and returned it 51 yards for a touchdown, what proved to be the winning points in CU's 20-12 victory. He was one of five finalists on Sept. 11 for the ESPN/Pontiac Game Changing Play of the Week for his interception and ensuing TD return. He also had three tackles in that game, and matched that total the following week against North Texas. He didn't post any stats in the bowl game, seeing mostly special teams duty in the win over UTEP. He switched to the outside from the inside during fall camp, after entering August drills as a mike 'backer. He moved from tight end to inside linebacker about midway into spring drills, and impressed the coaches enough to where the switch was made permanent. In two scrimmages on defense, he had six tackles (three solo), a fumble recovery and an interception, the latter coming in the spring game.

2003 (Fr.)—He was projected as a tight end in his true freshman year in college, but shoulder surgery prevented him from taking the practice field the entire fall. He was injured in the practices leading up to the Tennessee-Kentucky All-Star game, and underwent shoulder surgery in July.

HIGH SCHOOL—A standout at both tight end and linebacker, lettering four times during his career. As a senior, he earned PrepStar all-Southeast honors at tight end and was tabbed the No. 5 player in Tennessee, while Rivals.com ranked him the No. 34 tight end in the country. He was selected as the Nashville Tennessean's player of the year in Tennessee, also claiming the defensive player of the year honor and was a finalist for the class 4A Mr. Football Award. He was named to the all-state, all-Midstate, all-region (11-4A) and first-team all-city at both tight end and linebacker. One of Hillsboro's captains, he was also selected defensive MVP for his region, city and team, and was invited to play in the summer 2003 Tennessee-Kentucky All-Star game. His junior year, he was also all-state, all-Midstate, all-region and all-city first-teams at both positions, and he garnered all-region and all-city honorable mention honors during his sophomore year. As a senior, he caught 25 passes for 480 yards and seven touchdowns. On defense, he totaled 133 tackles (65 solo), 30 tackles for loss including three quarterback sacks, four fumble recoveries (one for a 65-yard touchdown), two forced fumbles, two interceptions, 20 quarterback hurries and 15 pass deflections. As a junior on offense, he had 34 receptions for 650 yards and 15 touchdowns; on defense, he was in on 105 tackles, had 15 sacks, three fumble recoveries, one forced fumble, three interceptions, 40 quarterback hurries and 15 pass deflections. During his sophomore year, he caught 15 passes for 280 yards and six touchdowns, adding 63 total tackles (10 for loss), six sacks, three fumble recoveries, one forced fumble and 10 passes broken up on defense. He did not play offense as a freshman, but started at free safety and was in on 58 tackles, had two sacks, one forced fumble, one fumble recovery, five interceptions and 20 pass deflections. Top career games included a state semifinals win over Pearl-Cohn as a junior, when he caught four passes for 120 yards, including a game-winning 72-yard touchdown. On defense, he added nine tackles (one for loss), two sacks and one forced fumble. That same year, in a 19-13 win over Smyrna, he had two catches for 60 yards. On defense, he added nine tackles (two for losses), one sack, one pass deflection and a game-clinching interception that was tipped by teammate Chris Russell on a desperation pass to the endzone. His senior season, in a win over Overton, he had three receptions for 85 yards and one score, in addition to 14 tackles (three for losses), one sack and one pass break up. Under coach Ron Aydelott, Hillsboro compiled an impressive 50-6 record during his career, as it won its region all four years. Hillsboro was 14-1 his senior year (falling short in the state championship game a second straight year to Maryville, 29-26), 14-1 his junior season (Maryville won it, 34-27), 13-1 his sophomore year (losing in the state semifinals to Memphis East) and 9-3 his freshman season. He lettered three times in basketball, as he earned first-team all-region (11-5A) honors at power forward his junior year, averaging 13 points, eight rebounds and three assists a game. He also lettered once in track (sprints and hurdles).

ACADEMICS—He is majoring in journalism at Colorado. He is a member of the Nashville chapter Jack & Jill Inc., which is a leadership group for local high school students.

ad and a junior golf spot. He was also in the cable TV movie Proud Heart with actress/singer Lori Morgan. He has known teammate and fellow CU recruit Chris Russell since age 11; and former CU basketball center David Harrison (from Nashville's Brentwood Academy) since 1998. His father (Edwin) played fullback at Connecticut Wesleyan in 1965, while his great grandfather played hockey and was the first African-American to play collegiate lacrosse at Springfield (Mass.) College during the early 1900s.

6-4, 250, Sr., 1L

Aurora, Colo. (Overland/Whittier)

AT COLORADO: This Season (Sr.)—Enters the fall second on the depth chart at fullback, but he will likely see plenty of duty again on special teams as he established himself as a vital component of several units as a junior. He has bulked up some 20 pounds since the start of his junior season.

2004 (Jr.)—He saw action in all 13 games, including the Houston Bowl, most on special teams duty as he was on both coverage and return units. He finished second in the special team point standings with 12, coming on the strength of four tackles, one inside-the-20, four wedge breaks and three knockdown blocks. He was the Scout Team Offense Award winner for the Colorado State game as selected by the coaching staff. He had a good spring after switching from tight end, and scored a touchdown (1-yard run) in one of the major scrimmages.

2003 (Jr.-RS)—He redshirted, as he was ineligible to compete in games as he transferred to CU from Whittier (Calif.) College in January. He practiced first at tight end during the spring, but was eventually switched to fullback during the fall. He was the offensive scout team player of the week for the Iowa State game.

AT WHITTIER: 2001-2002 (Fr./Soph.)— Lettered twice as a tight end, as he had 16 receptions for 180 yards and one touchdown as a sophomore in 2002 (he had 100 of those yards after the catch). In 2001, when he was the freshman of the year, he caught six passes for 94 yards in addition to being an accomplished blocker. Whittier was 1-9 his sophomore year and 2-7 his freshman season. He also lettered once as a defenseman in lacrosse, also being named the freshman of the year in helping Whittier to a No. 1 national ranking at one time (the team lost in the national semifinals in the spring of 2002).

HIGH SCHOOL— He lettered twice in football at Overland, but missed his entire senior season after sustaining broken ribs and a lacerated liver early on. Overland was 7-4 that year and 6-5 his junior season under coach Tony Manfredi. He also lettered four times in lacrosse, as he was voted team MVP his senior year and named to the Colorado All-Star team and all-Centennial League first-team.

LORENZO SIMS JR., CB5-11, 185, Jr., 2L
Fresno, Calif. (Edison)

AT COLORADO: This Season (Jr.)—One of CU's two starting cornerbacks who is coming off breakout season and could emerge as one of the league top defensive backs. A preseason second-team all-Big 12 Conference pick by both The Sporting News and Huskers Illustrated, he was the No. 49 ranked cornerback nationally by Phil Steele's College Football. He had an excellent spring as the coaching staff named him the Hale Irwin Award winner as the outstanding defensive back.

2004 (Soph.)—He started all 13 games, 12 at cornerback including the Houston Bowl and the Nebraska game at free safety as he earned honorable mention all-Big 12 honors from the league coaches. He had quite the sophomore year, as he was third in the Big 12 and 22nd in the NCAA in interceptions (5, or 0.42 per game), only the 18th player in Colorado history to record five or more in a single-season. He also led the team in snaps played from scrimmage (864), passes broken up (11) and fumble recoveries (3), while tying for second in third down stops (11). His five interceptions came over the course of the last eight games, including two times back-to-back: versus Oklahoma State and Iowa State and at Nebraska and versus Oklahoma; his pick and ensuing 34 yard return set the Buffs up in Sooner territory for the only time in the Big 12 Championship game and led to CU's only points in the game—a Mason Crosby field goal. He posted "crooked" numbers in tackles in every game (two or more in all 12), including four or more in nine games and a season- and career high of eight (seven solo) against Missouri. He had three passes broken up, with a forced fumble and recovery against North Texas, and had his other interception to go with five solo tackles versus Texas. A productive spring was the sign of things to come, as in the three main scrimmages, he posted 21 tackles (13 solo), with three pass deflections, two tackles for losses and four third down stops.

2003 (Fr.)—He played in four games as a true freshman, including three on defense and a start in CU's dime package for his first collegiate action against Washington State. DUSTY SPRAGUE, WR6-4, 190, Soph., 1L
Holyoke, Colo. (Holyoke)

AT COLORADO: This Season (Soph.)—Enters the fall atop the depth chart at the "z" receiver position. He had a solid spring, and in one scrimmage, he hauled in passes of 48 and 45 yards (from Joel Klatt).

2004 (Fr.-RS)—He played in 10 games including the Houston Bowl (no starts), missing the Kansas, Kansas State and Nebraska contests after suffering a broken clavicle against Texas. He returned faster than expected and played in the Big 12 championship game versus Oklahoma, catching one pass for six yards. The Sporting News named him to its Freshman All-Big 12 team, as he was having a fine year before the injury. On the season, he caught 22 passes for 278 yards (12.6 per) and a touchdown; the 278 yards were the fourth most ever by a CU freshman. In the overtime loss at Texas A&M, he accomplished something of note: he caught eight passes for 101 yards, becoming only the second freshman (true or redshirt) to have a 100-yard receiving game in Colorado history (the only other was by Phil Savoy in 1994, when he caught six passes for 113 yards against Oklahoma State). He caught half his passes on third down (11 for 153, 13.9 average, six first downs), and after being shutout in the first two games of the year, he improved game by game, becoming a favorite and trusting target for the quarterbacks. His touchdown came against Oklahoma State (he had two grabs for 27 yards), one of five games where he caught at least two passes. In the bowl win over UTEP, he caught two passes for 16 yards. He also tied for third in special team points with nine on the strength of six tackles (one inside-the-20) and two knockdown blocks. He was a prime candidate to be a holder for placement kicks, but his duties were limited upon his return to he team.

2003 (Fr.)—Redshirted; practiced the entire fall at wide receiver.

HIGH SCHOOL—He won the prestigious Fred Steinmark Award, presented by the Rocky Mountain News to the state's most outstanding senior for accomplishment in sport, academics and citizenship. Many referred to him as the best small school athlete in the state of Colorado for 2002-03: as a senior, he earned both first-team all-Colorado (all classes) and all-state (1A) at defensive back from both the Denver Post and News. He was the LPAA (Lower Platte Athletic Association) player of the year, was all-league at quarterback and free safety, and was the state of Colorado's representative for the Wendy's High School Heisman. SuperPrep named him to its All-America team (listing him as the No. 30 receiver nationally), while PrepStar and Prep Football Report tabbed him as an all-Midlands selection. SuperPrep rated him as the No. 24 player in the Midlands, and the third performer in the "athlete" category, while PFR ranked him No. 44 in the region (the sixth receiver). Rivals.com ranked him as the No. 37 receiver in the nation and as the fifth overall best player in Colorado. As a junior, he earned all-state honors at free safety and all-conference honors at running back, wide receiver, free safety and kick returner, and as a sophomore, he earned all-league honors at wide receiver. His senior year he rushed for 1,340 yards and 25 touchdowns, with a long run of 85 yards, threw for 756 yards, had over 200 yards receiving, and racked up 869 kickoff and 480 punt return yards. On defense (free safety), he had 127 tackles (61 solo), with two interceptions, 12 passes broken up and three quarterback sacks. Top career games included two from his senior year: in a 48-0 win over Jefferson Academy, he rushed 17 times for 180 yards and five touchdowns, along with returning a punt 70 yards; and in a win over Academy of Charter, he had 19 carries for 191 yards and four score, while completing 7-of-10 passes for 115 yards and two TDs (and did not play in the fourth quarter). Holyoke was 8-3 his senior season and 7-5 his junior season under coach Adam Archibeque, reaching the state playoffs both years. In the Colorado All-State game the summer following his senior year, he starred among athletes from all classes, catching six passes for 130 yards and a touchdown. He lettered four times in track, and was the state champion in the 110-meter hurdles as a junior and senior, the long jump champ as a junior, and the runner-up in the 100-meter run, the 300 hurdles and long jump as a senior. He also earned four letters in basketball (guard; an honorable mention all-state performer).

ACADEMICS—He is majoring in business management at Colorado, and was a first-team Academic All-Big 12 team member as a redshirt frosh. He was third in his high school class (41 in size) with a 4.078 grade point average. QUINN SYPNIEWSKI, TE

Granger, Iowa (Johnston)

AT COLORADO: This Season (Sr.-6)—He received a medical hardship from the NCAA and in the process is the first player in CU history to be granted a sixth year of eligibility. Already just one of five players to post game statistics in five different years, he can become the first to do that in six seasons and with 40 games played, can also set a record for the most games played in a CU uniform (the regular season record is 48). He was healthy for spring drills and had a good camp.

2004 (Sr.)—He saw action in the first three games of the season but suffered a lower leg fracture in practice on Sept. 24 and would miss the rest of the season. He caught three passes for 28 yards prior to going down with the injury. He went into the season healthy for the first time since early in the fall of 2002, as battled almost two years of chronic problems with a toe that eventually required surgery. He had six catches for 67 yards in the three main spring scrimmages, including three for 55 in the Black & Gold game.

2003 (Sr.-RS)—He was injured much of the year as a nagging toe injury kept him out of most of August camp, and when he tried to play against both UCLA and Florida State, he was just too hampered to be anywhere near effective. After the year was complete, he opted for surgery to help mend a stress fracture in the toe, and thus received a medical redshirt for the season. In his limited action, he caught two passes (for nine yards), one in each game he appeared. He also had an emergency intestinal procedure on May 2, which sidelined him from conditioning work for about a month.

2002 (Jr.)—He played in 13 games including the Alamo Bowl (seven starts), as he caught six passes for 42 yards despite battling turf toe most of the year. He scored his first career points in the Missouri game, as he caught a clutch 2-point conversion pass from Robert Hodge that padded the Buff lead to seven late in the game (though MU tied it up, CU won in overtime). He also played an additional 57 snaps on CU's field goal/PAT unit on special teams.

2001 (Soph.)—He played in all 13 games, including two starts (at Oklahoma State and against Oregon in the Fiesta Bowl) when the Buffs opened in a multiple tight end set. He caught two passes on the year for 25 yards and one first down (one for 18 yards at Oklahoma State, the other for seven yards at Texas). He had six dominant blocks on offense, as he was in for roughly 40 percent of the plays for the year. He also had a kickoff return for six yards on a short pop-up kick; he also had a fair catch in another situation, and he registered five knockdown blocks in clearing the way for return men on special teams. He led the team in receiving with 12 catches for 98 yards in the four full spring scrimmages.

2000 (Fr.)—He lined up as the second-team tight end throughout the season, playing all 11 games and making two starts the last two games of the year (Iowa State, Nebraska) when CU came out in a two-tight end set. He had two catches for 12 yards on the year, but they were big ones against Texas A&M, CU's first win of the year. He added two knockdown blocks on special teams duty.

HIGH SCHOOL—Considered by many to be one of the top two recruits in the state of Iowa, he earned All-America honors from Prep Football Report, PrepStar, Rivals.com, SuperPrep and USA Today (honorable mention). He was the Gatorade Player-of-the-Year in Iowa, and earned first-team all-Central Iowa Metropolitan League honors. SuperPrep tabbed him as the No. 1 jumbo athlete in the preseason, and ranked him as the No. 3 tight end nationally following the season (the No. 46 player overall on its National 50 and the No. 7 player overall in the Midlands). PrepStar ranked him as the No. 3 tight end overall as well, while PFR had him the No. 25 overall player on its ESPN-Reebok Top 100 list. As a junior, he earned honorable mention all-league honors. His senior year he caught 22 passes for 453 yards and a touchdown, and carried the ball on occasion (six times for 30 yards). On defense, as rush defensive end, he was in on 35 tackles, with nine tackles for loss including six quarterback sacks, along with 18 pressures, two forced fumbles and a blocked punt. Top games came against Valley, when he caught a 74-yard touchdown pass, the longest in league play, and against Ankeny, when he caught five passes for 95 yards. As a junior, he had 13 catches for 130 yards and a score on offense, while posting six sacks on defense. He had eight catches for 86 yards a touchdown as a sophomore (he did not play defense). Johnston was 3-6 his senior year, 2-7 his junior season and 8-3 his sophomore year under coach Spence Evans. He also lettered four times in basketball (center), averaging 10 points and eight rebounds per game as a senior, earning honorable mention all-conference honors. He matched that with four letters in track: he was ranked No. 1 in the state in the discus as a junior (career best throw of 173-9), and also ran the 200-meter dash (23.6 PR) and the 400-meter dash (54.0).

ACADEMICS—He graduated last May ('05) with a bachelor's degree in journalism (news editorial), and is working toward a second degree this May in history. He was an honor roll student in high school, owning better than a 3.1 grade point average, which included several advanced courses.

PERSONAL—Born April 14, 1982 in Des Moines, Iowa. His hobbies include most outdoor activities, especially hiking, fishing and skiing, and working on his truck. He was a member of the show choir for four years in high school, participating in several shows. He has traveled to Europe, has also taught swimming lessons and worked two years as a student assistant in the athletic media relations office during his off-season. Father (George) lettered four years as an outside linebacker at Drake in the early 1970s. (Last name pronounced sip-new-ski.)

JACK TIPTON, OL
6-3, 285, Jr., 1L
Arvada, Colo. (Pomona)

AT COLORADO: This Season (Jr.) —Enters fall drills listed atop the depth chart at the split guard position, as due to injuries, he was elevated to first-team status in spring ball and received plenty of quality reps. In addition, with him practicing most of his sophomore year at tackle, with CU's limited experienced depth on the offensive line, he may very well see action at both positions. He tied for the best bench press on the team (414 pounds) in spring conditioning tests.

2004 (Soph.)—He saw action in three games on offense and in 10 games overall including field goal/PAT unit participation on special teams (he did not play in the Houston Bowl). He was in 21 plays from scrimmage and graded out to 66.7 for the season (14 plus plays).

2003 (Fr.-RS)—He saw action in two games on offense at guard. He got in for three snaps at Florida State (allowing a quarterback pressure) and played eight at Iowa State, recording a knockdown block and grading out to 75 percent. He graded out to 63.6 percent for the 11 total snaps (7 plus plays) for the year.

2002 (Fr.)—Redshirted; did not see any game action. He practiced the entire fall on the offensive line, and dressed for 10 games, including the Alamo Bowl.

HIGH SCHOOL—As a senior, he earned PrepStar and Super Prep All-America honors, as P-Star ranked him as the No. 7 offensive lineman in the Midlands region (and the No. 1 OL from the state of Colorado).

Rivals.com pegged him as the No. 34 guard in the country, and Prep Football Report named him to its all-West team (though selecting him as a preseason All-American). Closer to home, he was named first-team all-Colorado and first-team all-state (Rocky Mountain News, Denver Post), making the Post's exclusive 12-member Blue Chip List. He was voted the 2001 best offensive lineman in the Jeffco League, in which he was a two-time first-team all-conference member of as a junior and senior. As a senior, he graded out to about 88 percent for the year, allowing just one quarterback sack as he registered 50 pancake blocks and was called for just one penalty. He graded out to about 85 percent as a junior, allowing three sacks and getting called for five penalties in posting 35 pancake blocks. He also handled placement kicks on occasion throughout his career. Top games as a senior were against Chatfield and Arvada West, grading out to better than 95 percent in both. Pomona was 6-4 his senior year, 2-8 his junior year and 6-4 his sophomore campaign under coach Gary Klatt. He also lettered three years in track (throws; owns a career-best of 49-9 in the shot put) and once in basketball.

ACADEMICS—He is majoring in architecture (planning) at Colorado. Owner of a 3.6 grade point average in high school (4.0 as a senior), he was a consistent member of the honor roll.

PERSONAL—He was born March 19, 1984 in Denver. His hobbies include lifting weights and fly-fishing. Father (Steve) played basketball at Trinity, and an uncle (Steve) played tight end at Wyoming in the 1970's.

JOHN TORP, P
6-2, 205, Sr., 2L
Lafayette, Colo. (Monarch)

AT COLORADO: This Season (Sr.)—One of the elite candidates for the Ray Guy Award, he's earned some preseason All-America mention (third-team by Street & Smith and honorable mention from Nationalchamps.net, as well as being on the short checklist by the FWA). He also earned assorted preseason All-Big 12 honors: first-team by Huskies Illustrated and Nationalchamps.net, and second-team from Athlon, collegefootballnews.com, Lindy's, The Sporting News and Phil Steele's College Football. TSN ranked him as the No. 5 punter in the nation, with Lindy's tabbing him No. 6. He owns the highest career average among active punters in the NCAA at 44.78 (USC's Tom Malone holds down the No. 2 spot at 44.53). At Colorado, he owns four of the top 20 gross punting days in school history, all this season: 52.3 versus Colorado State (10th), 52.2 versus Oklahoma State (12th), 51.2 versus Iowa State (18th) and 50.8 versus Texas (20th). He also owns two of the top 20 net punting games, also both this year: 48.8 against Oklahoma State (12th) and 46.7 against CSU (19th). He enters his senior year third all-time at Colorado in gross career average (44.62), as well as fourth in punts inside-the-20 (41) and ninth in total punts (134).

2004 (Jr.)—He was the second-team all-Big 12 punter (Associated Press, Big 12 Coaches), though the Austin American-Statesman made him their first-team choice; arguably was the best punter in the nation in 2004, but once eliminated from the Ray Guy Award (for having too many punts returned through nine games) and losing out to Baylor senior Daniel Sepulveda (the eventual Guy winner) for official first-team all-Big 12 honors, All-America honors for him were pretty much out of the question (ESPN.com selected him as the punter on its All-America team, with SI.com tabbing him honorable mention). Some used the old altitude argument against him (though no opponent punter topped him in six games in Boulder), but his 43.7 road average alone would have still ranked him 11th in the NCAA. He was first in the Big 12 and second in the NCAA with a 46.54 average (includes the bowl game), and it gets better looking inside his numbers: he averaged 49.6 on 19 kicks inside the Buff 25, as well as 47.5 yards per punt on CU's side of the field. He had 22 punts inside-the-20 to set a school record (32 percent of his 68 kicks). His punting has paved the way for Colorado to lead the nation in net punting with a 42.43 average, 1.29 yard ahead of runner-up BYU. He owned an average of 42.1 on 15 fourth quarter punts (6 In20, 3 In10), and inside-the-CU25, he had five fourth quarter kicks for 255 yards, or 51.0 per; one of those kicks came late in CU's 27-24 victory over CSU, as he boomed a 61-yarder to get the Buffs out of a hole at their own 16 yard-line with 4:30 remaining. Only five of his kicks went for touchbacks; nine were downed, 14 fair caught and 40 returned for a paltry 6.7 average (21st in the NCAA, and lower than those of the three Guy Award finalists). He earned his way on CU's prestigious Victory Club, as those who make it must post a winning productivity grade in at least eight games, and was CU's special teams player of the week three times (CSU, OSU and Texas). Against UTEP in the bowl game, he averaged 50.0 yards on four punts, with a long of 58 and one inside-the-20. He was one of 36 original players on the Guy Award watch list but his returned punt count prohibited him from making the 10-member semifinalist group.

2003 (Soph.)—He played in all 12 games, as he was CU's regular punter, finishing fourth in the Big 12 and 31st in the nation in punting with a 42.5 average. His 63 punts overall tied for the fifth most ever in a single season at Colorado, with 16 placed inside-the-20 (eight inside-the-10), with 14 traveling 50 yards or longer and four 60-yards plus. He owned a 42.1 average on 21 punts inside CU's 25, and a 44.0 average for 57 kicks on CU's side of the 50. While the average return of his kicks went for 10.2 yards, only 31 of 63 were returned, with another six fair caught (and just four touchbacks). He executed both his fake punt attempts, the first for a 20-yard run against No. 1 Oklahoma that was the key play in a 76-yard touchdown march by the Buffs, and the second a week later for 10 yards in another scoring drive at Texas Tech. A fairly talented defender, he was in on three tackles, two being touchdown saves, after return men eluded CU's aggressors on his kicks. The downside was that four of his punts were blocked, leading to a 37.3 net average (Kansas State busted through to block two of those). He booted both his career long and short kicks in the same game: in the finale against Nebraska, he got off a 69-yard bomb in the first quarter, but with the winds picking up, his last kick of the day went for just four yards, the only negative to an otherwise spectacular day (six punts, also including a 60-yard boot, and a 44.5 average). He was CU's special teams player of the week for two games, versus Colorado State (10 punts for a 40.8 average with three inside the 20 in the rain) and Missouri (a 50.7 average on six punts, with three inside-the-20 and punts of 61, 60 and 55 yards).

2002 (Fr.-RS)—He was the backup to Mark Mariscal, thus he had an up-close view of the nation's 2002 Ray Guy Award winner. He did punt three times for a 49.7 average, all three placed inside-the-20 with a long of 63. His net average on the three kicks was a more than healthy 49.3

2001—Redshirted; practiced at both punter and placekicker his first year on campus.

HIGH SCHOOL—As a senior, he earned all-conference honors for the third straight year when he scored 57 points, as he made good of 45-of-50 extra points and 4-of-6 field goal tries (with a long of 43). He also owned a 40.3 average for 25 punts, including a long of 65 and three inside-the-20. As a junior, he was 53-of-56 on PAT kicks and a perfect 4-of-4 in field goals, with a long of 45. He averaged 35.8 yards on 15 punts. Monarch was 9-3 his senior year, winning the league title and making the state playoffs, and was 8-3 his junior and 9-3 his sophomore seasons under coach Phil Bravo. He also lettered three times in soccer, earning all-conference honors as a sophomore, and three times in track (hurdles). He holds four school records in track: 110 and 300 hurdles, long jump and 2x400 relay.

ACADEMICS—He is majoring in both political science and economics at Colorado, and intends to going to law school after he graduates. A two-time member of the Big 12 Commissioner's Honor Roll (his sophomore and junior seasons). In high school, he was an American Mathematic Award winner and earned All-Academic honors as a senior.

PERSONAL—Born August 19, 1982 in Seattle, Wash. Hobbies include skiing and photography. An older brother (Karl) is a news anchor for CBS/FOX 12 in Jacksonville, Fla., while a younger sister, Anne-Marie, plays basketball at Utah State.

DAVID VEIKUNE, DE

6-2, 230, Fr., RS

Wahiawa, Hawai'i (Campbell)

AT COLORADO: This Season (Fr.-RS)—Enters the fall listed third at defensive end. He had six tackles in the three full spring scrimmages.

2004 (Fr.)—Redshirted; he did not see any action but practiced the entire year at defensive end. He was the Scout Team Defense Award winner for the Missouri game as selected by the coaching staff.

HIGH SCHOOL—Rivals.com ranked him the No. 46 defensive tackle in the nation, as he was a first-team all-state and all-Hawai'i Red West defensive end his senior year by the Honolulu Star Bulletin and Honolulu Advertiser. During his senior and junior years, he was named to the Larry Prince All-Katoosh Team, which is a list of the state's 11 hardest hitters. He was also an all-state honorable mention selection his junior season; prior to moving to Hawai'i, he played at Onate High School in Las Cruces, N.M., when he was a sophomore and freshman. His senior year, he totaled 92 tackles (21 solo), 26 tackles for loss with 16.5 quarterback sacks, three recovered fumbles, two forced fumbles, 56 quarterback hurries, three pass breakups and three blocked kicks. On offense, he saw limited action at tight end, but still snagged one reception for 10 yards. As a junior, he was in on 85 tackles (20 solo), including 12 tackles for loss, five sacks, two fumble recoveries, five forced fumbles, one interception, 45 quarterback hurries, eight pass deflections and three blocked kicks. At Onate his sophomore year, he mostly saw time on special teams. Top games: in a win over Waianae his senior year, he had 17 total stops (six solo), three tackles for loss, seven sacks, one forced fumble, one recovered fumble and a blocked PAT; against Leilehua that season in a 6-0 loss, he finished with 21 tackles (six solo), with one forced fumble and one recovered fumble; and also that year, in a victory over Waipahu, he racked up nine tackles (two solo), including two sacks. Under coach Tumoana Kenessey, Campbell was 2-5 his senior season and 6-2 his junior year, tying for first in the Red West but losing in the opening round of the state playoffs. He also lettered once in track (throws), participating in both the discus and shot put, as well as in baseball.

ACADEMICS—He is undecided on his major and is enrolled in CU's School of Arts & Sciences; he is interested in computer science. He owned a 3.6 grade point average as a prep and was on the Principal's List with a 4.0 GPA several times throughout high school.

After fighting George Foreman, he went on to train Paea Wolfaram, who won a silver medal for the Tongan Islands at the 1996 Olympics Games in Atlanta. A cousin (Mapa Malupo) is a freshman running back at College of the Canyons in California. Hobbies include working on computers and lifting weights. Lived for a time in Winslow, Ariz., as youth as well, where he was a Little League all-star. (Last name is pronounced vay-koo-nay.)

LAWRENCE VICKERS, VB

6-2, 235, Sr., 3L

Houston, Texas (Forest Brook)

AT COLORADO: This Season (Sr.)—CU's starting V-Back, named for his versatility for being a solid tailback, fullback and receiver. Street & Smith's selected him as a preseason honorable mention All-American, while The Sporting News ranked him the No. 5 fullback in the nation (with Phil Steele's College Football ranking him No. 9 in the same category). He enters his senior year already poised to move up on several CU all-time career lists: he is 42nd in receptions (43), 74th in receiving yards (404) and 93rd in rushing yards (373).

2004 (Jr.)—The top fullback in the Big 12 Conference, but the position didn't exist for the all-league team (early in the year, his position was reclassified from fullback to V-back). He was one of 10 players named by the coaches to CU's prestigious Victory Club (which requires a winning productivity grade in at least eight games), was the recipient of the Tom McMahon Award for dedication and work ethic, and was CU's offensive back of the week for the North Texas and Texas A&M games. In playing in all 13 games, with seven starts including the Houston Bowl, he had quite a season that featured a lot of balance. He finished second on the team in rushing (248 yards), fourth in receptions (27), sixth in receiving yards (274) and tied for third in special team points (9, including five tackle points, and one each for a knockdown block, fumble recovery, recovered blocked kick and a first down field). He earned 30 first downs (15 by both rushing and receiving), and scored three touchdowns, two via rushing and one when he recovered a blocked punt in the end zone for a score at Washington State. Against Oklahoma State, he caught nine passes (for 96 yards), the most receptions by a running back in a single game in Colorado history. He received his most rushing work out of the tailback position, carrying 15 times for 72 yards and a score against OSU and 17 times for 71 yards at Nebraska. One of his biggest plays of the year came on a third-and-10 in the final 30 seconds against Kansas State, as he scampered 13 yards on a draw play to set up CU's game winning touchdown pass on the next play. In the bowl win over UTEP, he had three rushes for four yards and caught one pass for 16 yards.

2003 (Soph.)—He played in 11 games on both offense and special teams, including six starts. While he lined up at fullback most of the time, he did see some spot action at tailback. He rushed for 100 yards and a touchdown on the year (28 attempts), and emerged as a threat as a receiver, catching 15 passes for 123 yards and a score. He had 10 plays of 10 yards or more (4 rushing, 6 receiving), and earned 15 first downs, nine on the ground. A 3-yard catch for a TD against Missouri was his first career touchdown, rushing or receiving; he then scored his first time as a ball carrier the following week on a 1-yard run at Iowa State, when he had his season single-game high of 27 yards. His reception high was four against Kansas, while he had 42 yards with two receptions against Texas Tech.

2002 (Fr.)—He saw action in 11 games, including the Alamo Bowl (no starts), seeing time on both offense (at fullback) and on special teams; he was a regular at the end of the year in CU's Stack-I formation (two fullbacks). He had seven rushes for 25 yards on the year, and also caught one pass for seven yards. He touched the ball the most against Baylor, when he had six rushes for 22 yards and his reception. He had a tackle and a knockdown block on special teams duty.

HIGH SCHOOL—As a senior, he garnered PrepStar All-America honors, as the magazine ranked him as the No. 8 running back in the Midlands. SuperPrep named him to its all-southwest team, while Rivals.com ranked him as the No. 11 fullback in the nation. He earned first-team all-state and first-team all-North Forest League while also being named to the first-team all-Greater Houston area. Earning offensive MVP of his district during 2001, he was named to first-team all-district all four years of his prep career. He was also named to the first-teams of the league and district his junior and sophomore years. Playing running back on the varsity squad throughout all four seasons, he finished his career with 4,610 yards rushing and 70 touchdowns on 345 carries (a gaudy 13.4 yards per carry). He also caught 72 passes for 1,950 yards and 24 touchdowns, averaging 27.1 yards per catch. As a senior, he ran for 1,600 yards on 151 attempts, scoring 21 touchdowns with a long of 85 yards. He also caught the second most passes of his career (17) and compiled 500 receiving yards and four touchdowns. As a junior, he ran for 960 yards and scored 17 touchdowns on just 89 carries. During his sophomore season he averaged 15.8 yards a carry, rushing 70 times on the season for 1,110 yards and 22 touchdowns. As a freshman, the only year he played defense, he started in every game and racked up 75 total tackles at free safety, causing 10 fumbles and intercepting seven passes. His top games included a 21-0 win over West Berry his senior year, when he rushed for 248 yards and three touchdowns on 25 carries. In a 50-47 loss to Jasper in the semi-finals of the state playoffs his senior year, he rushed 10 times for 192 yards and two touchdowns and had seven catches for 200 yards and two more scores. Under coach Ron Holmes, Forest Brook went 12-1 his senior year and advanced to the semifinals of the state playoffs; FBHS was 11-1 his junior season (losing in the second round of the playoffs), and was 7-4 his sophomore year. He also lettered three years in basketball, averaging 20 points a game with 10 rebounds, three steals and three blocks a game as a senior, and lettered twice in track, competing in the high jump (career best of 6-7).

He was the Scout Team Defense Award winner for the Nebraska game as selected by the coaching staff. He had rushed for 660 yards and 12 scores, averaging 6.3 yards per rush, while completing 54-of-107 passes for 816 yards and seven scores. He threw for 1,570 yards and 15 touchdowns as a sophomore, rushing for 700 yards and six touchdowns, including the long play of his prep career, a 93-yard scoring run. As a freshman, he was the second-team quarterback and only saw spot action, but also played some wide receiver in catching four passes for 40 yards and a score while rushing for 55 yards and two touchdowns. Top games: in a win over Doherty as a sophomore, he rushed for 200 yards and three touchdowns along with passing for 200 and a score; in a wild 51-46 win over Boulder as a junior, he rushed for 200 yards and three TDs while passing for 250 and two scores; and as a senior in a last minute loss to Fairview, he threw for 340 yards and four touchdowns. One of his top high school moments came when he quarterbacked GHS to a win over Cherry Creek when he did not attempt a single pass due to an injured shoulder. Grandview was 8-3 his senior year, 7-4 his junior season, 9-2 and Grand Peaks League champions his sophomore campaign, and 7-3 his freshman year under coach Rocky Whitworth.

PERSONAL—He was born January 21, 1986 in Los Angeles, Calif. His father, Marc, played quarterback at CU between 1986-89, remarkably coming back at one point from a career-threatening knee injury; he owns a school record as he established the best single game passing rating (any amount of attempts) when he recorded a 353.3 at Kansas State in 1989. The younger Walters is active in his church, and was the second commitment of CU's 2004 recruiting class, pledging to sign with the Buffs on March 10, 2003.

VANCE WASHINGTON, CB
5-10, 185, Jr., 2L
Friendswood, Texas (Clear Brook)

AT COLORADO: This Season (Jr.)—Now healthy, he enters the season listed second at cornerback. With his speed, he will also likely see action on coverage units on special teams. He was the runner-up in the team's strength and conditioning competition for the "Speed" group (RB, DB, WR, QB, K/P), as he owned a team-best 40.5 in the vertical jump and the third fastest 40-yard dash time on the team (4.45).

2004 (Soph.-RS)—He was granted a medical redshirt for the season as he underwent shoulder surgery in late August and missed the entire season. He figured to be in the regular rotation as he was one of just two players on the roster with any Division I experience at the position, albeit minimal (19 snaps). He had a solid spring, with nine tackles (eight solo), four pass deflections, three third down stops and a quarterback sack in the three main scrimmages.

2003 (Soph.)—He saw action in all 12 games on special teams and in one on defense: he recorded one solo tackles in 19 snaps at cornerback against Iowa State. He tied for fourth on the team in special team points with seven, on the strength of three four tackles (three solo), a fumble recovery, a knockdown block and a blocked kick. That block was important, as it was an extra point with 8:55 left in the fourth quarter against Kansas; it left the score at 44-38 in favor of the Jayhawks and CU was able to tie the game with two field goals and send it into overtime.

He missed spring practice recovering from a shoulder subluxation, which he suffered in a January car accident.

2002 (Fr.)—He saw action in 12 games, including the Alamo Bowl (no starts), with all the action coming on special teams.

HIGH SCHOOL—As a senior, he earned Super Prep all-Southwest honors, with Rivals.com ranking him as the No. 35 cornerback in the nation. He also earned all-district (24-5A) honors and was invited to play in two unique high school all-star games, in Europe and Australia. He was a second-team all-district selection at running back as a junior. As a senior, he was in on 80 tackles (40 solo), with two for losses, two passes broken up, two recoveries and two forced fumbles. On offense, he caught 27 passes for 200 yards, rushed one time for a 20-yard touchdown, and owned gaudy averages for kickoff (50.0) and punt (34.0) returns. As a junior, he gained over 1,000 yards on just 82 carries, scoring 10 times with a long run of 85. He didn't play much defense as a junior, but as a sophomore, he was in 15 tackles and had 10 pass deflections and three interceptions playing corner. One of his top games was a 42-13 win over Beaumont Westbrook as a junior, when he rushed 15 times for 187 yards and four touchdowns. Clear Brook was 0-10 his senior year, 6-4 his junior season and 8-2 his sophomore campaign under coach James Smith. ACADEMICS—He is majoring in sociology at Colorado. An honor roll student in high school, he has consistently maintained a 3.5 grade point average as a prep.

TERRENCE WHEATLEY, CB
5-10, 170, Jr., 2L
Richardson, Texas (Plano East)

AT COLORADO: This Season (Jr.)—He missed all of spring drills following wrist surgery in February, but his chronic problems have continued and he was set to undergo additional surgery in August. He will likely miss the entire season, but he does have a redshirt year available so he'll still have two years left to play once healed. He had garnered some preseason all-Big 12 honors at both cornerback (third-team from Phil Steele's College Football) as well as kickoff return specialist (second-team from Huskers Illustrated and third-team from Athlon).

2004 (Soph.)—He played in all 13 games, and started the last five including the Houston Bowl, as he was finally 100 percent back from a couple of nagging injuries (wrist, groin and hamstring, the latter two suffered during two-a-days). He played 535 snaps from scrimmage in posting 33 tackles (27 solo), with five third down stops and three passes broken up. He was second on the team in interceptions with four, making all over the last five games of the regular season (he ranked seventh in the Big 12 and 51st in the NCAA in picks). The first of his career he made memorable, as he returned it 37 yards for a touchdown against Texas, becoming the 12th Buffalo since 1992 to return his first pick for a score. He also had four tackles in that game (all solo), one of six occasions he had four or more in a game. He had six (each unassisted) in the win over Kansas State, and also had six (five solo) with a pick in the victory at Kansas. The coaching staff twice honored him as CU's defensive back of the week (for the Texas and Kansas games). He also earned six special team points on the strength of three tackles (one inside-the-20), a downed punt and a knockdown block. In the bowl win, he had four tackles, four pass deflections (a CU bowl record) and a third down stop. He missed most of spring practice after suffering a dislocated wrist on the third day of April work and was lost for the remainder of the spring; the cast came off in mid-June but was not really fully recovered until after the season started. He was the fastest player on the team in the spring conditioning tests, as he runs the 40-yard dash in 4.38.

2003 (Fr.)—He saw action in all 12 games on special teams and in six defensively, including two starts (against Baylor and Kansas State). He played 268 snaps at cornerback, registering 24 tackles (19 solo), five pass deflections and two touchdown saves. His first start against Baylor was historical as with the other starting cornerback being redshirt frosh Sammy Joseph, it marked the first time in CU history that a pair of freshmen started at the position in the same game (not to mention two starting at least one game in the same season). He posted his season high with eight tackles (six solo) against the Bears, and he also had five tackles (all solo) with two pass deflections at Kansas State. He tied for fourth in special team points with seven, on the strength of five tackles, one inside-the-20, and a downed punt.

HIGH SCHOOL—As a senior, Rivals.com tabbed him the No. 56 cornerback in the nation, as he earned all-state honorable mention honors, all-district (9-5A) first-team honors and was named to the Dallas Morning News all-area first-team as a cornerback and receiver. He was also named the Plano Star Collin County MVP, and during his junior year, he received all-district second team honors at receiver and first-team accolades at kick returner. As a senior, he was in on 82 tackles (three for loss), along with making five interceptions, nine pass deflections, one forced fumble and one fumble recovery. On offense, he caught 25 passes for 410 yards and three touchdowns, as he averaged 35 yards per kick return and 15 yards per punt return on special teams. As a junior, totaled 70 tackles (four for loss), with six interceptions, 18 pass breakups, three forced fumbles and three recovered fumbles. He played running back sparingly, rushing 23 times for 200 yards, and added 11 catches for 161 yards and two touchdowns. He also averaged 25 yards per kick return and eight yards on punt returns. Top career games include a 24-21 win over Lake Highlands his junior year, when he rushed 13 times for 114 yards, and added four receptions for 70 yards, including the game winning touchdown. On defense, he had 10 tackles and one interception. In a 33-14 win over Plano his senior year, he had 65 yards receiving, nine tackles and one pass deflection, adding a 30-yard punt return average. That same year, in a 21-0 victory against Lewisville, he had 85 yards receiving, including a 79-yard touchdown reception, 10 tackles and two pass breakups in addition to a 35-yard kick return average. Plano East was 8-4 his senior season (district champions, but lost in the second round of the playoffs) and 8-3 his junior year (district champs, but losing in first round of the playoffs) under coach John Crawford. He also lettered three times in track and holds school records for the triple jump (49-11½), long jump (23-3½) and 100 meters (10.3). 2004 IN-REVIEW

COLORADO 27 COLORADO STATE 24

Game One; September 4, 2004

BOULDER — Coming in, it seemed impossible to top what happened last year between these two in-state rivals in their 75th meeting, won by Colorado in a classic college football shootout, 42-35.

In that one, CU went ahead with 40 seconds left and CSU's final drive stalled at midfield; this time around, the Buffs held off CSU again, but this time after the Rams had a first and goal at the CU 1 with under a minute remaining en route to a thrilling 27-24 win.

Though Colorado led for 50 minutes and 27 seconds of the game, it certainly appeared that the Rams were going to steal it away with a TD in the final seconds and take their only lead of the night when it counted most. Justin Holland connected with receiver David Anderson for the ninth time in the game on an 11-yard pass that set CSU up with a first down at the Colorado 1 with time ticking down to the 30 second mark, which is where it stood after Holland spiked the ball to stop the clock.

On second-and-goal, one-time Buffalo Marcus Houston was stuffed for no gain by CU freshman inside linebacker Jordon Dizon. With the Rams out of time outs, CSU head coach Sonny Lubick decided to go for all the marbles, and with the clock running and under 10 seconds to go, a pitch to back Tristan Walker was sniffed out by CU safety J.J. Billingsley, who stopped him at the CU 3 with corner Lorenzo Sims finishing the tackle as time ran out on the Rams.

The Buffs snapped a 17-17 tie with 6:43 remaining, as Mason Crosby drilled a 55-yard field goal right down the middle, with at least 10 yards to spare, to put the Buffs up 20-17. It was the first 50-plus yard field goal by a Colorado player in 11 years, and it served to also fire up the CU defense. On the first play of CSU's next possession, Brian Iwuh picked off a Holland pass and returned it 37 yards for a touchdown and built the Buff lead back up to 27-17.

Colorado raced to a 17-0 lead with 4:44 left in the first half on the strength of first quarter 1-yard touchdown runs by Bobby Purify and Joel Klatt and a 31-yard field goal by Crosby. The Rams got on the board with 23 seconds left before the half on a 1-yard pass from Holland to tight end Matt Bartz, and would finally catch the Buffs with 11:42 left in the fourth quarter after a 1-yard scoring run by Houston and a 26-yard field goal by Jeff Babcock.

The Buffs held the Rams to just 44 yards rushing, though Holland did pierce the CU defense for 403 yards through the air. CU countered with 255 rushing yards, its most since the latter half of the 2002 season.

QUOTE—"The game was coming down to who was playing harder and coach was saying, 'Get a turnover, get a turnover,' and I was able to make a play. It really lifted up the team and gave us the momentum." — Colorado OLB Brian Iwuh.

NOTES—A Folsom Field record crowd of 54,954 witnessed the game, topping the old mark by some 739 set in 2003 against No. 1 Oklahoma... Dizon became just the sixth true freshman, and the first at inside linebacker, to start a season opener in CU history, the first since OG Clint Moore started the opener in 1991... This was CU's first goal-line stand as time expired since 1985, when safety Mickey Pruitt sacked Oregon QB Chris Miller at the Buff 9 as the clock ran out, preserving a 21-17 Buff victory... CU outgained CSU by 161-9 in the first quarter, but Holland passed for 380 of his 403 yards in the last 24:39, or from the Rams' last first half possession through the end of the game.

COLORADO 20 WASHINGTON STATE 12

Game Two; September 11, 2004

SEATTLE — Two games does not a season make, but 120 minutes into 2004, Colorado benefited from two goal-line stands in the final seconds, this time recovering a fumble at its own 2 to preserve a 20-12 victory over host Washington State.

Holding Colorado State at bay in eerily similar fashion a week earlier, the Cougars were frantically trying to come from 11 down to send the game into overtime, driving 54 yards in eight plays to the CU 4. After quarterback Alex Brink spiked the ball to stop the clock, he tried to score up the middle after being flushed from the pocket. But Jordon Dizon was there to greet him, hitting him square on to force a fumble that Matt McChesney recovered to end the threat and help Colorado to a 2-0 start for the second straight season.

In a game where defense dominated, only one offensive touchdown was recorded, but the Buffaloes gladly took two scores produced by their defense and special teams. The first came with just under seven minutes to play in the third quarter with the teams deadlocked in a 3-3 tie. Faced with a 4th-and-6 from its own 32, Kyle Basler had a second punt blocked by CU free safety Tyrone Henderson; while the first still managed to travel 30 yards, this one traveled in the other direction, where the Buffs' Lawrence Vickers recovered it in the end zone for the game's first touchdown. In the process, Henderson became the first player in school history to have two blocked kicks of any kind in the same game.

After WSU regrouped and marched for a field goal to cut the lead to 10-6 and then forced CU to punt early in the fourth quarter, the Cougars drove from their own 12 to midfield. But Joe Sanders, subbing for the injured Brian Iwuh at the "Buff" outside linebacker spot, read Brink's eyes perfectly to steal a pass, racing 51 yards for a touchdown and a 17-6 lead.

Not to be thwarted, Brink hit Jason Hill with a 60-yard touchdown pass four plays later to cut the margin back down to 17-12, but that's where it remained when a two-point pass fell incomplete. Special teams then shined again for Colorado, as Terrence Wheatley returned the ensuing kickoff 59 yards, leading to a 41-yard field goal by Mason Crosby that accounted for what would be the day's final points with 4:42 remaining.

Crosby opened the scoring in the first quarter with a 52-yard field goal, which tied for the third longest on the road in school history. The Cougars tied it on a 44-yard boot by Loren Langley three minutes into the second stanza.

The Buffs had just 125 yards of offense, its second lowest total in winning a game in school history. Even though WSU had 402, it took 92 plays to amass it, with 234 of the yards coming on just five plays as the teams combined had 77 plays for zero or minus yardage.

QUOTE—"It was a great defensive effort, especially at the end. Sure, there are times when the defense is asked to carry the load, but there are just as many times when the offense has to make up for defensive shortcomings. What matters in the end is the W." — Colorado defensive coordinator Mike Hankwitz.

NOTES—Colorado had just 125 yards of total offense, the second lowest total it has ever posted in winning a game; CU had 62 yards (all rushing) in a 7-0 win at Utah in 1958... The Buffs improved to 2-0 against WSU in the state of Washington, having not scored an offensive touchdown in either win... With Washington State netting just 15 rushing yards, it marked the first time since 1958 the Buffs held two opponents under 50 yards in back-to-back games... Dizon led the Buffaloes with 13 tackles, the third most ever by a CU true freshman... The eight sacks were the most by CU since setting a Big 12 record with 14 at Missouri in 2000.

BOULDER — After a sluggish start, Colorado scored 38 consecutive points in a 35-minute span as the Buffaloes opened a season 3-0 for the first time since 1998 with a 52-21 win over North Texas.

The Mean Green opened solid on defense, holding the Buffs to three plays and out on their first possession, and then countered on offense with freshman Jamario Thomas breaking free for a 57-yard touchdown run on UNT's second play to take a 7-0 lead. CU then got its wake-up call after the Green recovered an onside kick, as the Buffs held on a fourth down play to take over on its own 38. It would signal the start of an offensive explosion for the Buffs that would last into the fourth quarter.

Colorado would score on eight of its next nine possessions, starting with Bobby Purify, who sandwiched 11- and 24-yard touchdown runs around another Thomas run of 25 yards that put UNT up 14-7 with 6:02 left in the first quarter. But it was after Purify's second score where the complexion of the game changed.

UNT fought right back and drove from its own 7 to the CU 8. But on the 14th play of the drive, Lorenzo Sims forced a recovered a fumble by Andy Blount after a 4-yard reception, giving the ball back to the Buffs. Quarterback Joel Klatt then engineered a 7-play, 95-yard drive, completed all five of his passes including a 1-yard touchdown pass to tight Joe Klopfenstein and the offensive fireworks were on in concert with the CU defense tightening.

After UNT was held to three-and-out, Purify scored for a third time with an 11-yard run, the culmination of a 5-play, 65 yard drive in just 1:15. UNT managed one first down on its next series, and pinned CU at its 8 with solid punt coverage, but CU answered with a 13-play, 92 yards drive, topped off by a 21-yard TD strike from Klatt to Evan Judge to put CU up 35-14 at halftime.

It was extended to 38-14 midway in the third on a 49-yard field goal by Mason Crosby, and the final points of the CU run came when Klatt and Klopfenstein hooked up again, this time covering 17 yards, to make it 45-14 at the 1:39 mark of the third. UNT broke the string with a touchdown on its next drive, with CU immediately answering that to close the night's scoring.

Colorado amassed 586 yards overall, including 383 through the air, while North Texas logged 507 of its own as both schools topped the 200-yard mark both rushing and passing. UNT fell to 0-3 with the loss, while the Buffaloes gave head coach Gary Barnett his first 3-0 start in his 15th year as a college head coach.

QUOTE—"It feels good being 3-0, and it doesn't matter how we've won. All that matters is that we're 3-0 in the record column, and we're looking forward to playing Missouri and starting Big 12 play." — Colorado quarterback Joel Klatt.

NOTES—Klatt set school records for the most passing yards in a quarter with 196 in the second, as well as for completion percentage in a game with minimums of 20, 25 and 30 attempts (78.8%); he also completed 13 straight passes in the first half, third most in CU annals... Gerett Burl's fourth quarter blocked punt was the third by CU in as many games, one shy of the school mark... Thomas' 247 yards were the third most ever posted against Colorado, and the most since KU's David Winbush set the record (268) in 1998... Eleven different CU players caught passes, while 15 earned first downs.

MISSOURI 17 COLORADO 9

Game Four; October 2, 2004

COLUMBIA, Mo. — Brad Smith did what he does best, mixing up the run and the pass, as the junior quarterback helped Missouri snap a five-game losing streak to Colorado as the Tigers defeated the Buffaloes, 17-9, in the Big 12 Conference opener for both teams.

Smith passed for 189 yards and a touchdown, rushed for another 76 yards for 265 yards overall on offense, as he engineered long scoring drives to open each half. In a game where defense and mistakes were aplenty, as perhaps the effects of both teams coming off a bye week took a small toll.

The Tigers took a 7-0 lead with an impressive 12-play, 80-yard march to open the game, with Damien Nash scoring on a 3-yard run to cap the drive that include nine rushes and three passes. On CU's first possession, quarterback Joel Klatt was intercepted by Marcus King, who made a diving stab at the Colorado 49 to set the Tigers up in primo shape. But the Buff defense held, a sign of things to come for the rest of the afternoon, and the Buffs got the ball back at its 27 following a punt.

The Buffaloes drove 69 yards in 15 plays to the Missouri 4 before the series stalled, but Mason Crosby got the Buffs on the board with a 24-yard field goal to cut the lead to 7-3. MU then countered with a field goal to go back up by seven, with CU responding with its most dominant possession of the game. Klatt directed a 5-play, 80-yard drive, completing passes to Evan Judge and Dusty Sprague with Bobby Purify rushing three times, including a 32-yard gallop, CU's long play of the game, and a 4-yard burst over the left side for a touchdown. Crosby's extra point try was blocked however, leaving the score at 10-9.

Colorado could not get untracked in the third quarter, earning just one first down and gaining all of 24 yards, while doing its best to keep Missouri at bay. The Tigers scored on their first drive, with Sean Coffey eluding several tacklers on a 51-yard reception from Smith to up the score to 17-9. Missouri then drove inside the Buff 25 on its next two possessions, only to miss field goals both times.

The Missouri defense pinned its collective ears back in the fourth quarter, as Colorado twice drove into Tiger territory, the first time ending at the MU 40 with a punt and the second with an interception in the end zone, the latter with 6:44 remaining. Klatt connected with Evan Judge on the classic corner fade pass for an apparent touchdown, but Missouri's Shirdonya Mitchell wrestled the ball away as Judge fell to the ground and the officials ruled it an interception, though it appeared both players had possession simultaneously for a brief time. The Buffs got the ball back more time after that, but could not advance it beyond its 36 and Missouri was able to run out the clock to secure the win.

Colorado ran just 56 plays, amassing 251 yards of total offense, while Mizzou controlled the clock with 34:25 of possession time in running 80 plays for 417 yards.

QUOTE—"You go on the road and you play against a good team, and in an environment like this, you can't make the kind of mistakes we made. And we made them, but we were still in the game, but we just didn't have enough today." — Colorado head coach Gary Barnett.

NOTES—Colorado's streak of scoring 20 or more points came to an end, as the 11-game mark was third most in school history... Both Purify and Klatt moved into seventh place on the respective all-time rushing and passing yard lists... Missouri limited the Buffs to just 43 yards on 23 first down plays (1.9 per), keeping CU in second-and-long most of the day... Colorado dropped to 5-4 in Big 12 Conference openers, and lost the league lid-lifter in back-to-back seasons for the first time since 1987-88... The 17 points by Mizzou were the fewest by the winner in the series since C 6-0 win in 1992 in Columbia.

OKLAHOMA STATE 42 COLORADO 14

Game Five; October 9, 2004

BOULDER — The good news was that Oklahoma State ran just nine plays in plus territory all afternoon against Colorado, but the bad news was that they didn't really need to as the No. 21 Cowboys ruined the Buffaloes' annual homecoming with a 42-14 victory.

Three of OSU's touchdowns were over 50 yards in length, with a fourth scored on a late interception return. Otherwise, the Cowboys sustained just one drive in the game that produced a touchdown, while the other set up on a muffed punt return by the Buffs. But it was more than enough for OSU to improve to 5-0 on the season while dealing CU its second straight league setback in dropping to 3-2 overall.

The tone for the game came down to three plays: on OSU's third play from scrimmage, tailback Vernand Morency broke around the left side and raced 58 yards for a touchdown just 3:35 into the game. A defensive struggle started to ensue, but Hugh Charles collided with Stephone Robinson as the latter tried to reel in an OSU punt, with the Cowboys recovering on the CU 11. After a penalty, Morency ran it in from six yards out for a 14-0 Cowboy lead with just over six minutes left in the half.

But perhaps the back breaker came on the last play of the half. OSU seemingly was satisfied with the two touchdown lead going into the lockerroom, running three rushing plays after it got the ball back with 1:20 left. But with nine seconds left, OSU quarterback Donovan Woods drifted back and launched what would be a 58-yard touchdown pass to Prentiss Elliott as time ran out and the lead grew to 21-0.

The Buffaloes didn't throw in the towel, holding the Cowboys to three-and-out on their first second half possession, but what followed basically sealed CU's fate. James Cox replaced an injured Joel Klatt at quarterback, and drove the Buffs from their own 28 deep into OSU territory. In fact, the Buffs were apparently on the board with a 29-yard catch and run by Lawrence Vickers, but it was negated by a holding call. Still, CU came back to face a 3rd-and-3 from the OSU 10, but Paul Duren intercepted a Cox pass at the 5 to end the threat.

OSU then countered with a 95-yard drive in 13 plays, capped by a 20-yard touchdown pass from Woods to Luke Frazier, to take a 28-0 edge late in the quarter. Vickers finally did get the zero off the Buff side of the scoreboard with a 6-yard run in the fourth, and Cox also found Dusty Sprague for a 21-yard touchdown pass, the first by both in their collegiate careers, but the game was already in the bank for the Cowboys.

QUOTE— "I'm not objective on this; it feels to me like we're right on the edge. We played five teams and with all due respect, I feel we're as talented as the team we played. Obviously we didn't play as well in the last two games, and whatever mistakes we made cost us." — Colorado head coach Gary Barnett.

NOTES—The loss gave Colorado an 0-2 start in conference play for only the seventh time since 1948, the first since 1997... It was also CU's sixth straight loss to a Big 12 South Division team... This was the most decisive score in the series since a 28-0 Colorado win in 1992... Mackey had 129 receiving yards on six receptions, his first multiple catch game of his career as well as his first 100-yard effort... Texas was shutout by Oklahoma earlier in the day, thus when CU scored in its 189th straight game, the Buffs took over the active consecutive games scoring lead in the Big 12... Klatt suffered a neck strain late in the first half and did not return.

COLORADO 19 IOWA STATE 14

Game Six; October 16, 2004

BOULDER — If you like exciting special teams play, then Folsom Field was the place to be on this Saturday, as Mason Crosby kicked four field goals, including a school record 60-yarder, to lead the Colorado Buffaloes to a 19-14 win over the Iowa State Cyclones.

The Buffs moved to an early, and easy, 10-0 lead in the first 10 minutes of the game, perhaps being lulled into believing they would have their way with the Cyclones. On the game's first possession, CU drove to mid-field before stalling, only to have Todd Miller fumble a John Torp punt with Colorado's Lawrence Vickers recovering at the ISU 11. Three plays later, James Cox, making his first career start at quarterback, drilled a 3-yard touchdown pass to Jesse Wallace, with Crosby's PAT kick putting the Buffs up 7-0. But that would be CU's only touchdown on the day.

After Iowa State went three plays and out, Crosby kicked his first field goal, a chip shot from 28 yards after CU drove to just outside the Iowa State 1-yard line on the strength of a 17-yard pass from Cox to Bobby Purify, followed by a 35-yard run by Purify to the ISU 3 and a personal foul call. But a false start, a slip by Cox and an incomplete pass left the Buffs settling for three and a 10-0 lead.

From that point on, the game turned into a dogfight. ISU drove into CU territory on its next two possessions, only to turn the ball over the first time and then miss a 22-yard field goal. The latter set the stage for Crosby's record-setting kick, as he had plenty of distance but needed a friendly bounce off the upright to extend the lead to 13-0. Iowa State finally got on the board 82 seconds before halftime when Ellis Hobbs picked a Cox pass and raced 34 yards for a touchdown.

At that point, Joel Klatt came in at quarterback for the Buffs, but the ISU defense stifled his first possession, forcing a punt. This time, Terrance Highsmith bobbled the ball with Stephone Robinson right there to recover for the Buffs at the Cyclone 18. Two plays later, CU was at the ISU 6, but a touchdown pass from Klatt to Wallace with eight seconds left was wiped out on an interference call on the CU tight end. That drew a 15-yard penalty, and an unsportsmanlike conduct penalty on the Buffs set CU back to the ISU 36. Crosby trotted in and nailed a 54-yarder at the halftime gun, becoming the first CU player to ever hit two from over 50 yards in the same game.

Crosby's fourth and final kick was from 33 yards out with 8:28 to play, as it came after Iowa State failed to score after driving three times in a row inside the Buff 20. The Cyclones turned it over on downs at the CU 7, missed a 25-yard field goal, and then fumbled it back to the Buffs at the CU 18. After the field goal, ISU again marched to the CU 12, only to misfire on four straight plays and turned the ball back over on downs. A 43-yard touchdown pass from Bret Meyer to Todd Blythe, on a 3rd-and-20 play, netted Iowa State's its only offensive points with 2:38 left. But CU earned two first downs, both on Vickers runs, to seal the victory.

QUOTE— "No one really said anything to me (before the 60-yard kick). Nick (Holz) told coach that we should kick it, and he's done a great job holding for me this year. I saw it drawing toward the left upright but it caught it at the right angle and dropped over." — Colorado placekicker Mason Crosby.

NOTES— This marked the 20th time the last 21 meeting Colorado posted a win over ISU... Tom Hubbard made his first career start, getting the nod at strong safety with Dominique Brooks shifting over to the free side... Purify's 69 rushing yards enabled him to top the 2,500-mark for his career, becoming the sixth Buffalo to do so... Iowa State averaged just under six yards on first down and almost nine on third down, but was held under one on second down, gaining 23 yards on 21 first down plays... Due to the muffed punts and the interception return for a score, CU had 15 offensive possessions in the game to Iowa State's 11.

TEXAS A&M 29 COLORADO 26 (OT)

Game Seven; October 23, 2004

COLLEGE STATION, Texas — Todd Pegram's fifth field goal of the game, a 19-yard chip-shot in overtime, proved to be the winning points for Texas A&M after Colorado countered with a turnover on its extra period possession as the No. 17 Aggies rallied to defeat the Buffaloes, 29-26.

The overtime session was perhaps a fitting end to wild and hotly contested game, as the seesaw affair had five lead changes and the only tie at the end of regulation. Colorado led most of the way, including by 19-7 after scoring on its first possession of the second half, and still owned a 19-10 edge entering the fourth quarter. However, the host Aggies stormed back to go ahead 20-19 on a Courtney Lewis 2-yard run and Pegram PAT kick early in the fourth quarter, and tacked on three more on a Pegram 34-yard field goal to go up 23-19 with just 4:09 remaining.

CU responded with its most authoritative drive to date of the season, marching 82 yards in 13 plays as Bobby Purify's 1-yard run and Mason Crosby PAT vaulted the Buffs back ahead 26-23. Joel Klatt completed five passes on the drive, with two players making spectacular catches: tight end Joe Klopfenstein made a one-handed snare for 11 yards to the A&M 46, followed by Dusty Sprague hauling in a 34-yard tightrope job on the east sideline and Klopfenstein again for 11, scooping up a hard throw from Klatt at the 1 that set up Purify's go-ahead score with just 1:05 left.

A&M was up for the challenge, as quarterback Reggie McNeal drove the Aggies 78 yards in eight plays, with Pegram making a 20-yarder as time expired to knot the game at 26. CU won the overtime coin toss and elected to play defense, and eventually stifled A&M on a first-and-goal from the CU 1 and forced a field goal try. After Pegram's kick made it 29-26, CU came back with a 6-yard pass from Klatt to Sprague and then a Hugh Charles 3-yard run to the A&M 16. Purify had the first down with a 5-yard gain, but Lee Foliaki forced a fumble that he also recovered, ending the game and CU's upset bid.

Klatt threw two touchdown passes to Evan Judge, one from 15 yards out that gave CU a 13-7 halftime lead, and the other covering 24 yards to open the second half. Crosby earlier had connected on a pair of short field goals that put CU up 6-0 before having a streak of six straight made end after he missed a 50-yarder into the wind.

Both teams surpassed 500 yards in total offense (A&M 532, CU 510); in fact, at the end of regulation, the Aggies had 499 to CU's 496, another indicator of how close these two teams mirrored each other on the afternoon.

QUOTE— "It had to be a great college football game to watch. Other than losing, it was fun to be a part of. It always comes down to a play or two plays, but this one probably had about 10 that made a difference. I think our guys enjoyed the challenge of coming down here and playing in a great atmosphere." — Colorado head coach Gary Barnett.

NOTES— Colorado had a 100-yard rusher (Purify) and receiver (Sprague) in the same game for the first time since the 62-36 win over Nebraska in 2001... The Buffs led for 35:35 of the game, compared to just over 16 minutes by A&M... Klatt completed just 2-of-8 passes for 17 yards in the first quarter, but was 23-of-34 for 329 yards the rest of the way... Both Purify and Klatt moved into the top five in all-time CU rushing and passing, respectively... A&M went turnover-free for the sixth time in seven games this year.

TEXAS 31 COLORADO 7

Game Eight; October 30, 2004

BOULDER — Heisman Trophy candidate Cedric Benson rushed for 141 yards and two touchdowns with quarterback Vince Young adding 68 yards and two scores himself as No. 8 Texas slowly but surely pulled away in defeating Colorado, 31-7.

Things looked bright for the Buffaloes for the first quarter and a half of the game, as Terrence Wheatley picked off a Young pass at the Longhorn 37 and returned it for a touchdown to give Colorado a 7-0 lead. That score, with 8:50 left in the first quarter, turned out to be the only points of the day for CU, but the Buffs did hold that lead deep into the second quarter.

After Texas took over on its own 9, Benson would carry six times for 51 yards including runs of 18 and 14 yards, with Young scoring from a yard out to polish off a 12-play, 91-yard drive that tied the game with 5:32 left in the half.

UT's stifling defense held the Buffs in three plays and gave the ball back to its offense at the 4:27 mark. The 'Horns took the lead for good after a 10-play, 58-yard drive with Benson scoring on a 2-yard run with just 52 seconds left before halftime. Young hit tight end David Thomas for a 20-yard gain on the drive, as well as picking up 18 yards himself on a draw play to the CU 7 to set up Benson's score.

Texas pulled away in the first six minutes of the second half, turning two CU turnovers into touchdowns. Young scored on a 9-yard scamper following a fumble by Colorado quarterback Joel Klatt, and Benson added his second score after Michael Griffin snared a deflected Klatt pass. Both drives were short and totaled 37 yards combined. Dusty Mangum added a 33-yard field goal later in the quarter to complete the day's scoring.

Meanwhile, the Texas defense wouldn't budge against the Buffs, holding CU to just 88 yards through three periods while keeping CU from crossing midfield until two minutes into the fourth quarter. Two late CU drives that reached the Texas 23 and the 9 were also thwarted, one by an interception and another on downs.

QUOTE— "We played our hearts out the whole game and my hat's off to the defensive line for playing a hard game against a Heisman candidate. Our first interception, we were able to build on and I felt we were playing like the No. 1 in the nation but then things started to not go our way. We tried to play our game but they did what they had to and won." — Colorado ILB Jordon Dizon.

NOTES— The team voted to remove the nametags from the back of the jerseys and to play for the COLORADO on the front as one; the last time CU's jerseys were nameless was in 1983... The Buffs had just one first down at halftime and just 39 total yards (with minus-19 rushing); CU finished the game with just three rushing yards... Klatt topped the 4,000-yard mark in career passing, as his 142 gave him 4,068; he reached the plateau in the third fewest games in CU history (22)... Wheatley's interception return for a touchdown made him the 12th CU player since 1992 to return his first career pick for a score.

COLORADO 30 KANSAS 21

Game Nine; November 6, 2004

LAWRENCE, Kan. — Stephone Robinson's punt return for a touchdown near the end of the third quarter gave Colorado the lead for good as the Buffaloes remained in the hunt for the Big 12 North Division title with a 30-21 win over the Kansas Jayhawks.

The win snapped a two-game losing streak and gave CU a 2-4 record in league play, just one game out of the division lead. It also left the Buffaloes needing just one win to become bowl eligible.

It wasn't easy, as CU spotted the Jayhawks a 14-0 lead in the game's first four minutes. John Randle scored on a pair of short runs, the first capping an 80-yard drive to open the game and the second a short possession after Rodney Harris intercepted a Joel Klatt pass and returned it to the CU 28.

The Buffs methodically battled back, led by its defense. On KU's next possession, John Nielsen replaced an injured Jason Swanson at quarterback, and on a 3rd-and-10, he hit Randle on a short gainer. But Vaka Manupuna was there for the Buffaloes to jar the ball loose, with Dominique Brooks picking it up and racing 41 yards for a touchdown to cut the Kansas lead in half.

The Buffs worked the ball down to the KU 2 early in the second quarter but had to settle for a 19-yard field goal from Mason Crosby, further eating into KU's lead. However, those were the last points of the half and it remained 14-10 at intermission.

Colorado came out in the second half with one of its most impressive drives of the season, marching 70 yards in eight plays to take a 17-14 lead. Klatt completed 6-of-6 passes for 62 yards, with his final throw a 4-yard touchdown toss to tight end Joe Klopfenstein. But Kansas immediately countered with its own impressive drive, as Nielsen hit Brandon Rideau on a 19-yard touchdown pass to cap a 12-play, 80-yard possession that put the Jayhawks back up, 21-17.

Those would be KU's last points on the day, as the CU defense would stifle the Jayhawks from that point on. Kansas went three downs-and-out on its next five possessions and had just 93 yards on offense the last quarter-and-a-half.

Colorado added an insurance score with 3:37 remaining on a 4-yard touchdown run by Lawrence Vickers, as it polished off a 51-yard drive. It was the fifth straight possession CU had started between its 41 and 49 yardline, but the only one that yielded points as the combination of a tough Buffalo defense and pinpoint punting from John Torp kept the Jayhawks at an arm's length. Kansas' attempt at a comeback was thwarted after it reached the CU 18, but Terrence Wheatley intercepted Nielsen in the end zone to seal the win.

QUOTE— "We came in here with our backs against the wall, knowing that unless we win we were pretty much done (in regards to the Big 12 title game). We made the plays when we had to and responded well. I think the ball bounced our way for the first time in a long time." — Colorado DE Matt McChesney.

NOTES— McChesney recorded five tackles, including two sacks in celebrating his 23rd birthday... Bobby Purify moved into fourth place on CU's all-time rushing list, as he passed former teammate Chris Brown... The touchdown to open the third quarter was just CU's second score to open the second half this season... The comeback from 14 points down tied the sixth largest in school history, and was the largest since rallying from 14-0 down to beat Washington 33-21 in the 1996 Holiday Bowl... CU committed a season low number of penalties (3) and Kansas' 342 yards on offense was also an opponent season low.

COLORADO 38 KANSAS STATE 31

Game Ten; November 13, 2004

BOULDER — Ten years earlier, a 64-yard touchdown pass as time expired lifted Colorado to an improbable win at Michigan as time expired. The Buffaloes likely took the all-time lead in 64-yard TD passes to win games in the final seconds as Joel Klatt and Ron Monteilh worked the magic this time around to lead Colorado to a 38-31 win over Kansas State.

CU coaches wanted to win in regulation, despite taking over at its 23 with just 30 seconds left. After two incomplete passes, Lawrence Vickers picked up a first down with a 13-yard gain on a draw up the middle, setting the stage for Klatt and Monteilh's magic. With 16 seconds on the clock, the hope for CU was to get into field goal range and four receivers took off downfield; Klatt found Monteilh by himself at the KSU 23, and after eluding two would be tacklers, he ran around the left side and sprinted into the end zone with just five seconds showing on Folsom Field's clocks.

The score completed a fourth quarter flurry by both schools, as Kansas State rallied twice to tie the game as the teams combined for 35 points and 339 yards of offense. What had been a fairly defensive game with CU leading 24-10 with 12:03 remaining turned into a classic track meet.

Bobby Purify's 3-yard touchdown run, one of 24 carries for 155 yards in the game, and a 5-yard touchdown pass from Klatt to Joe Klopfenstein had CU sitting pretty with a 14-point lead entering the fourth quarter. In fact, the lead likely would have grown to three scores had Purify not been accidentally tripped up by one of his own players after a 25-yard gain. But KSU held the Buffs on their first possession of the final stanza, and things got crazy from there.

Alan Webb scored on an 11-yard run to cap an 86-yard drive to pull K-State to within 24-17 at the 9:12 mark, and exactly a minute later, Ted Sims returned an intercepted Klatt pass 37 yards to knot the game at 24. CU then came back with an eight play, 62-yard march that ended with a Purify 2-yard touchdown, reclaiming a 31-24 edge with 3:58 on the clock. Klatt had key completions to Monteilh for 22 yards and to Vickers for 24 on the drive. However, K-State didn't fold, answering with an impressive 14-play, 80-yard effort in which it converted three times on third down, including the game-tying score on a 17-yard pass to Jermaine Moreira from Dylan Meier, who replaced an injured Webb earlier in the quarter. Now tied at 31, the stage was set for Colorado's last second heroics.

The Buffs took a 10-0 lead just one minute into the second quarter, as Klatt scored on a 1-yard run on CU's second possession of the game and Mason Crosby made good on a 51-yard field goal. But the Wildcats came back with 10 points before halftime to tie things up, with Darren Sproles scoring from a yard out and Joe Rheem matching Crosby with a 52-yard three-pointer.

Colorado outgained K-State by 382-372 despite running 12 fewer plays; for the most part, the statistics on the afternoon were a draw.

QUOTE— "After finding a way to win it, and then not win it, and not win it, and win it...we won it. What a great play by (Joel) Klatt and (Ron) Monteilh. It was great character by our team and by Kansas State; our guys just never quit believing. Everyone says that when they win it, but we never quit believing; this team hasn't all year. There are a lot of guys who made big plays in the game. Just great, great, great heart from the Buffaloes." — Colorado Head Coach Gary Barnett.

NOTES— Following the game, in which several hundred fans stormed the field to celebrate the win, Purify was presented with the Buffalo Heart Award by the fan behind the bench... Senior WR Mike Duren made his first career start, coming in his home finale, while DE Abraham Wright also made his first career start... Thanks to the legs of CU's special team stars, Kansas State started nine of its 12 drives at or inside its own 20 (punter John Torp had four kicks inside-the-20, while six of seven kickoffs went for touchbacks by Crosby)... The teams combined for 65 or more points for the fourth time in the last five games.

COLORADO 26 NEBRASKA 20

Game Eleven; November 26, 2004

11

LINCOLN, Neb. — In both 1997 and 2003, Colorado needed a victory in the regular season finale against Nebraska to become bowl eligible. On both occasions, the Huskers prevailed, ending CU's postseason dreams. But the Buffaloes got even in a big way with a 26-20 win, as well as positioning themselves for the Big 12 North Division title.

Missouri's 17-14 overtime win at Iowa State the next day left the Buffaloes and ISU tied atop the North standings at 4-4, but by virtue of CU's win over the Cyclones in October, the Buffs won the division and advanced to the league's title game against No. 2 Oklahoma.

This time around, it was a 5-5 Nebraska team that needed the win to become bowl eligible, but when denied by the Buffs, two of the most impressive streaks in NCAA history came to an end. It would be Nebraska's first losing season since 1961, as well as ending 35 consecutive years for the Huskers earning a bowl invitation.

CU played like it wanted it more, at least at the onset, as the Buffs rolled to a 17-0 lead just four minutes into the second quarter. Colorado set the tone on its first possession, marching 90 yards in 14 plays as quarterback Joel Klatt threw a bullet to receiver Blake Mackey in the end zone, as the play covered 6 yards for the touchdown. Mason Crosby tacked on the PAT kick to make it 7-0, and then hit a 37-yard field goal minutes later after the first of two interceptions on the day by linebacker Thaddeaus Washington.

Nebraska responded to that score and got on the board with a 2-yard TD run from quarterback Joe Dailey, as the Huskers drove 80 yards in 12 plays. Crosby added his second field goal, this one from 39 yards, as time expired in the half to put the Buffs ahead 20-7 at intermission.

Crosby added kicks from 46 and 20 yards in the third quarter to extend the CU lead to 26-7. As has been the case in the past, where Nebraska built sizeable leads only to see Colorado battle back late, the Huskers threw a scare into the Buffaloes with a pair of late scores. Dailey threw a pair of 4-yard touchdown passes, to Steve Kriewald and Ross Pilkington, but the Buffs were able to run out the clock in the final 1:38 as Nebraska was out of time outs.

Purify rushed for 130 yards, moving into third place on CU's all-time rushing yards list, while Klatt passed for 222 and the touchdown to Mackey, who caught eight passes for 116 yards.

Washington was in on 10 tackles to go with his pair of interceptions, and he along with Crosby were honored as the Big 12's players of the week on defense and special teams, respectively.

QUOTE— "I am just so proud of this team. We entered the month at 1-4 in the conference and knew we had to just approach each game for what it was worth, and hope that we could somehow stay in the hunt (for the North Division title). Each week, we found a way to win, and each week, what we needed to happen did, so it just goes to show you that if you take care of business, sometimes things can fall your way." — Colorado Head Coach Gary Barnett.

NOTES— Nebraska's 67 rushing yards were its fewest against the Buffs since netting 68 in the 1966 game... When Colorado took a 26-7 lead in the third quarter, it marked the third largest lead it has ever held in Lincoln; leads were bigger in a 36-14 win in 1951 and a 27-0 triumph in 1957.... Purify went over both 1,000 yards for the season and 3,000 yards for his career on the same carry in the fourth quarter... The team presented the game ball to Dick Tharp, who resigned earlier in the week after serving nine years as the school's athletic director.

OKLAHOMA 42 COLORADO 3

Game Twelve; December 4, 2004
(Big 12 Championship Game)

KANSAS CITY, Mo. — Colorado came into the 9th annual Big 12 Championship with no less intention than to win the game, but No. 2 Oklahoma came in on a mission to avenge its bad memories from the year before and in the end, the Sooners' will was overwhelming as OU defeated the Buffaloes in Arrowhead Stadium, 42-3.

The Buffaloes, who won their third North Division title in four years, were a surprise entrant in the game to many, though several observers said CU was no doubt the best team in the division despite claiming it with only a 4-4 mark. Oklahoma, on the other hand, was the No. 2 team in the nation from wire-to-wire and was out for redemption after losing 35-7 to Kansas State in the same venue in 2003.

The Sooners methodically dismantled the Buffaloes, using the run (15 plays) and pass (10) to score touchdowns on its first three possessions in taking a 21-0 lead just seven seconds into the second quarter. Fab freshman Adrian Peterson and senior quarterback Jason White, both Heisman candidates, were the stars of the Sooner Show but both had plenty of support.

Peterson had runs of 18 and 24 yards on OU's first drive, which featured three third down conversions, with White getting Oklahoma on the board with a 5-yard TD pass to Will Peoples, the fifth time CU allowed a touchdown on the game's first possession.

The Buffs' response to the opening score likely could dictate the way the game would play out. CU picked up a first down by penalty on its second play when quarterback Joel Klatt was the victim of a late hit, but two straight penalties against Colorado linemen (holding and a false start) set up a first-and-25 that the Buffs could not get out of. A 55-yard punt by John Torp, who was one of few bright spots on the night, got the Buffs out of trouble, or so it seemed.

The Sooners countered with a quick 6-play, 63-yard effort topped off by a 22-yard pass for a score from White to Mark Clayton. After the Buffs lost 10 yards on three plays when they got the ball back, the duo repeated the feat on OU's next drive in building a 21-0 lead. Peterson scored on a 1-yard after an Antonio Perkins interception of a Klatt pass put the Sooners in business at the CU 40. The 28-0 score held at intermission, and extended to 35-0 after Peterson scored on a 3-yard run to cap a 41-yard drive that ensued following a failed fourth down punt fake by the Buffaloes.

Late in the third quarter, Colorado enjoyed its best moments of the game. Lorenzo Sims picked off his fifth pass of the season and returned it 40 yards to the Oklahoma 32. The Sooner D stiffened, but the Buffs averted a shutout when Mason Crosby made good on a 34-yard field goal. Peterson added a 32-yard TD run early in the fourth to close the game's scoring.

Oklahoma gained 498 yards on offense, though CU had 10 tackles for loss, but the Sooners limited CU to its third fewest yards in history, as the Buffs netted 46 on just 44 plays from scrimmage.

QUOTE— "We sort of survived this year by being the best team on the field for three hours, and by far we weren't even close today. They played the game the way it's supposed to be played, thought that they just took it right at us, and especially with the defense. Not much to say, other than give them a great deal of credit." — Colorado Head Coach Gary Barnett.

NOTES— Colorado had just three first downs, two of which came on personal foul penalties on the Sooners... Oklahoma ran 48 plays in CU territory, but the Buffs only countered with four on the Sooner side of the field... CU started nine drives either at or inside its 20, and also had nine drives out of 14 end in three plays (or less) and out... It was CU's the ninth straight loss to a Big 12 South Division team, with OU starting the skein in 2002 and owning four of the wins against the Buffs... CU's minus-4 yards rushing was its fourth lowest in school history... Crosby's field goal gave him 19 for the season, a CU single-season record.

A NOTE TO OUR FANS AND LETTERMEN ABOUT MEDIA GUIDES:

NCAA legislation in April 2005 limited media guides for all sports to 208 pages. This meant at Colorado that we had to cut 284 pages from our 2004 publication for this season; most of that was history and records. While some schools were wasteful, Colorado was one of many that labored to pay great tribute to its history and former student-athletes. In reworking this year's guide, we weren't going to shortchange the current players and coaches, so the cuts had to come from this section. We at CU vehemently disagreed with this asinine legislation, brought forward by the University of North Carolina and then the ACC to the NCAA (they first proposed eliminating publications all together in 2003). Big 12 sports information directors were unanimous in supporting freedom for each school to present their programs and histories as they wished; I personally did exhaustive research that was totally ignored by the AEC Committee of the NCAA, which moved forward with the limitations this past spring, with the Management Council approving its recommendation. For the record, interim athletic director Jack Lengyel agreed with the SID's and was very vocal in his support of shooting down this proposal. We truly hope that in the future, schools will be able to return to recording and presenting their history as they desire without these ridiculous limitations. — David Plati.

ALL-CENTURY TEAM

The University of Colorado selected an "All-Century Football Team," as public balloting in 1989 tabbed 11 All-Americans among the top 25 selected to the 100-year squad.

Over 6,200 ballots were received in the public selection process, with over 150,000 votes cast from those ballots. Former CU players pared a list of 881 lettermen down to 118, which were in turn presented to the public for the final team selection.

Byron "Whizzer" White, the U.S. Supreme Court Justice who was CU's first All-American (1937), received 5,812 of a possible 6,265 votes. Bobby Anderson, who starred at both quarterback and tailback between 1967 and 1969, was the second leading vote-getter with 5,636, and two-way-star Joe Romig, who led CU to its first outright Big Eight Championship in 1961, was third with 5,145. White (#24), Anderson (#11) and Romig (#67) are the only Buffs to ever have their numbers retired.

One other player topped the 5,000 vote mark, as flashy Cliff Branch, whose name still frequently appears in the CU record book and who played a big part in the Buffs' No. 3 national ranking of 1971, captured 5,111 votes. The player with the fifth most votes, 3,989, was the only active Buff at the time to make the top 25, tailback Eric Bieniemy (a junior in 1989).

Joining White, Anderson and Romig as All-Americans on the century squad were Dick Anderson ('67), Pete Brock ('75), Mark Haynes ('79), Dave Logan ('75), Herb Orvis ('71) and Bob Stransky ('57).

Four players in the early years of CU football made the team, led by Walt Franklin, who played center and end between 1917 and 1921. Back Lee Willard ('21), Judge Hatfield Chilson ('25) and guard Bill McGlone ('26) round out the quartet which represents the formative seasons of CU football, when the team was known as the "Silver and Gold."

Other familiar names on the team include Hale Irwin, who starred at defensive back in the mid-60's but gained his fame on the PGA Tour; John Stearns, another pivotal player of the 1971 team who went on to be a star catcher with the New York Mets; Dave Logan, a veteran of 10-plus NFL seasons and current sportstalk celebrity in Denver; Carroll

John Wooten

John Stearns

Hardy, who played in the early 1950's and is the only man ever to pinch-hit for Ted Williams; and John Wooten, one of the first African-American players at CU who has spent several years in the scouting departments of the NFL Dallas Cowboys and Philadelphia Eagles.

Listed below are the 25 members of the University of Colorado All-Century (1890-1989) Football Team, selected by lettermen and the public over a three-month voting period. Another 28 players were selected to an honorable mention team:

RETIRED NUMBERS

#24 BYRON "WHIZZER" WHITE

Colorado's first All-American and one of the greatest students in the history of the school, Byron (Whizzer) White, retired as a justice of the Supreme Court in March, 1993, after serving 31 years on the nation's high court.

White made all the All-America teams after a brilliant 1937 season in which he led CU to an 8-0 record and Cotton Bowl bid as he set national records with 1,121 rushing yards and 122 points. Those marks, erased nationally only after colleges went to 10- and 11-game schedules, set CU records.

White was a Phi Beta Kappa, Rhodes Scholar, two-time All-Pro halfback with Pittsburgh and Detroit, leading graduate of the Yale Law School in 1946, decorated naval intelligence officer in World War II, leading Denver attorney, and deputy attorney general for the United States. White is a member of the NFL Hall-of-Fame, the National Football Foundation's College Football Hall-of-Fame, the GTE Academic Hall-of-Fame, and was selected to CU's "All-Century Team." In 1998, he was the first inductee into CU's Athletic Hall-of-Fame. He passed away at the age of 84 on April 15, 2002.

#67 JOE ROMIG

Romig, a two-time All-American selection, is a member of the Big Eight Hall-of-Fame and the National Football Foundation's College Football Hall of Fame. Now a senior research associate in radio physics in Boulder, Romig was the Buffs' 1961 team captain and the United Press International Lineman of the year. Romig had no peers as a linebacker, as he ranged far and fiercely from his middle linebacker position behind a four-man line. Fast and strong, he was consistently in on most of CU's tackles.

Offensively, Romig developed into an excellent straight-ahead and pulling blocker. Like White, he was an inspirational leader gifted with extraordinary physical and mental abilities.

Romig was a tremendous student, logging straight A's in his last six semesters and building a 3.9 grade-point average. He was also a Danforth and Woodrow Wilson Scholar. A Rhodes Scholar, Joe received his master's degree in physics at Oxford University in England and a doctorate in physics at Colorado in 1975. He is a member of the GTE Academic Hall-of-Fame and was selected to CU's "All-Century Team." In 1999, he was part of the second class to be inducted into CU's Athletic Hall-of-Fame.

#11 BOBBY ANDERSON

Anderson set 18 single-game, single-season and career marks during his three-season career with the Buffs along with earning All-Big Eight and All-American honors.

A professional player with Denver (the team's No. 1 draft choice), Washington and New England, Anderson started his CU career as a quarterback but switched to tailback for the third game of his senior season (1969). In his career, he rushed for 2,729 yards and had over 5,000 yards in total offense.

Anderson concluded his Colorado career with a 254-yard rushing effort in the 1969 Liberty Bowl as the Buffs beat Alabama 47-33. He currently is a Denver-area businessman, and has worked over two decades for KOA-Radio handling pre- and post-game shows as well as sideline reporting on the CU Football Network. He is a member of CU's "All-Century Team." In 1999, he received the prestigious University Medal, awarded to those who have performed outstanding service to or for the University.

THE NATIONAL PLAY-OF-THE-YEAR

In 1992, Nu Skin International and CoSIDA started sponsorship of "The National Play-of-the-Year," honoring the most outstanding play annually in college football. Notre Dame won the inaugural honor in 1992, but the University of Colorado won for both the 1993 and 1994 seasons. Here's a closer look at CU's winning plays:

1993 (October 16; Colorado 27, Oklahoma 10)—Lamont Warren throws a 34-yard touchdown pass to Charles Johnson on the halfback option play. What made it special? Warren slipped on the slick artificial surface as he threw the ball, and some 40 yards later in the end zone, Johnson made the catch on the ground after he was interfered with. The play defied imagination, and is truly appreciated when looked at in slow motion.

1994 (September 24; Colorado 27, Michigan 26)—College football's play of the decade, this effort also won an "Espy" from ESPN for the play of the year in all of sports for 1994. As time expired, Kordell Stewart throws a 64-yard touchdown pass to Michael Westbrook, who made the catch after a Blake Anderson deflection. CU had trailed, 26-14, with under four minutes remaining, and trailed by five with 15 seconds left on its own 15-yard line after stopping Michigan on defense.

ALL-TIME LETTERMEN

Throughout the years, various standards have been used to determine who has been awarded letters at CU (as well as at every school in the nation, as all set their own criteria). From the 1930s until the late 1970s, letters were awarded based on a player seeing action in at least half of the quarters played by CU in a particular season. In recent times, criteria have ranged from a minimum of 100 plays in a season or possessing a special skill (the Bill McCartney Era) to playing at least one snap in at least one game (Rick Neuheisel Era). Under Gary Barnett, the Buffs returned to the criteria that McCartney first instituted. In addition, it has been a standing policy since 1982 to award letters to all seniors in the program, regardless of playing time.

Jersey numbers, heights and weights are generally those listed in CU publications (or other sources) in the player's final letter-winning year. Positions are listed in the terminology of the era in which the letterman played; if more than one position is listed, then that player saw substantial game time at those positions. Hometowns are usually the place from which the player came to CU, followed by the high school and any previous institution, be it a junior or senior college.

There are 1,740 known football lettermen at the University of Colorado, but information prior to 1940 is limited at best and thus some holes do exist. The list below was researched and expanded with the help of the late CU athletic historian Fred Casotti in 1999; if you have additional information on yourself or someone on this list, please call the Athletic Media Relations Office at 303/492-5626.

MEDIA INFORMATION

MEDIA CREDENTIALS for covering athletic events at the University of Colorado can be obtained by writing the Athletic Media Relations Office two weeks in advance of the scheduled contest. Requests which are approved will either be mailed or left at the will call window (located in the ticket building adjacent to Gate 6, just off Colorado Avenue). Coverage of all CU athletic events dictate approval of press credentials for Colorado media outlets; radio and television stations must cover practice and/or get postgame and postpractice tape on a regular basis to qualify for credentials.

PHOTOGRAPHER CREDENTIALS will be issued only to officially recognized media outlets and/or individuals on special assignment. Only working photographers will be allowed on the sidelines. Photographers must have their passes displayed at all times on the sidelines, and must remain outside the 25-yard lines on both sides of the field. Due to the constraints of Folsom Field's sidelines, a limit of 25 field photo passes will be permitted for members of the media which cover the visiting team.

FAX SERVICE is available on a first-come, first-served basis. Please contact the Athletic Media Relations Office either in advance or on the day of the game.

TELEPHONE SERVICES are available through Qwest Communications, but it is advised that you make your arrangements at least one week in advance of the game. To order a phone line, contact Laura Salava with Qwest at 800/301-9220 (FAX: 800/705-3307) for installation. The address of the press box when asked is 2005 Colorado Avenue. Qwest provides a line only; you must make arrangements for your own telephone set. Note: Please check with the athletic media relations on your telephone needs. There are 15 ethernet connections, seven courtesy lines in the press box after the game, and four available for use during the game.

VISITING RADIO personnel desiring to broadcast athletic events from the University of Colorado should contact the Athletic Media Relations Office at the earliest possible date to request permission to broadcast. The station is responsible for making its own arrangements with Qwest (Laura Salava, 800/301-9220). Qwest will contact the Athletic Media Relations Office for booth assignment. Spotters and/or statisticians are available upon request (please request at least 72 hours before the event).

PRESS BOX SERVICES include play-by-play and statistical highlights at the end of each period. Full statistical facts and figures along with quotes from coaches and players will be available following the contest. The media will be escorted to the locker rooms following the event for postgame interviews. Coach Barnett's postgame press conference can also be heard over the audio system in the press box for those media members who can't make it down to the lockerroom after the game. An informal luncheon will be served in the press box starting two hours prior to kickoff.

HANDICAP ACCESS is available via elevator to the Folsom Field press box facility at the north end of Balch Fieldhouse.

A "NO SMOKING" POLICY is in effect at Folsom Field, including the press box, to conform with CU policy concerning smoking on campus. Those members of the media who do smoke will be directed to those areas of the stadium where smoking is permitted.

PARKING passes are limited. The media must request parking along with their credentials request. Media outlets covering the University of Colorado on a regular basis will have first priority.

FOLSOM FIELD is located in the University of Colorado campus at the corner of Colorado Avenue and Folsom Street. Driving time from Denver International Airport is approximately 50 minutes via the Denver-Boulder Turnpike (U.S. 36). The Press Box is located on the west side of the stadium, and the entrance for the media is on the west side of the field through Gate No. 1. The press box phone numbers are 303/492-5626 and 303/492-3209.
